Pastor Who Wrote the Book on Jesus

By: Richard Dean

Linda Smith is the Pastor of LOVE OF GOD MISSION on Athens Street in Winder, whose midweek service is one of the few that is on THURSDAY evening (1900). This reporter was there to see the book so many are talking about.

Pastor Linda Smith of Love of God Mission

The book, Jesus Speaks to Me, is talked about by many and is offered free to those who go to Love of God to pick one up.

When Pastor Linda was 12 years old she began writing in a journal of her experiences with the Son of the Most High. She was married at 21 and still writing in a journal (Cont. on pg. 2).

Miracles, Deliverance And Revival

By: R. D. Hempton

Miracle Deliverance House of Prayer hosted the first night of the seven-day revival on Monday 16 April. Pastor Willie Harris of Christ Outreach Worship Center opened the service in prayer. Pastor Harris also spoke a bit after praying, "If we only go to church one Sunday a month, that's not enough. That's where I used to be. I was married to a saved woman and before she passed, she done told God on me. I got down and prayed and went to bed. An hour later I woke up and I was free."

Pastor Roger Williams read I Chron 4:9-10, the "Prayer of Jabez just before the Miracle Deliverance Praise Team with Veronica and Valerie Chandler provided some on-time praise and worship music. When it was testimony time, Deacon James Jordan (Cont. on pg. 2)

Diversity, Revival, and Worship in Winder

By: Richard Dean

The host church of the second night of the 7-day revival was Winder Worship Center on Wright Street. Pastor Kenny Simpson spoke at the Pastor Patsy Garrett of Jefferson Gospel Taber.

Outset, "We are all one church under one Lord. I believe in what Rick is trying to do."

Dr. Kenneth O'Neal came to the pulpit next and reminded us all of Mat 6:33, "...Seek first the kingdom of God and His (Cont. on pg. 4).

Women of Destiny

May By: R. D. Hempton

The President and Founder of Women of Destiny, Karen Lewis opened the service in Prayer. Michelle Pritchett then began the most excellent worship music, which carried all present in the spirit on a cloud of worship and into the presence of the Lord.

Karen spoke about the offering with tears, "I don't want to see Women of Destiny close due to lack of funds, but, without a miracle..." Rebecca Wheeler said a prayer over the offering before introducing the speaker, Lynn Adams.

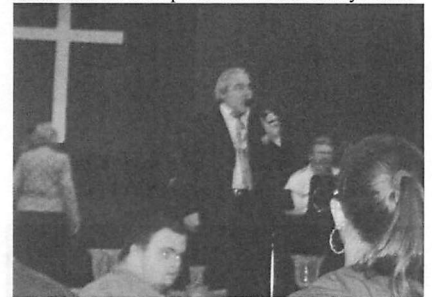

Before Lynn spoke, however, Dana and Erica Kattalia, mother and daughter, sang Amazing Love.

Lynn Adams began with Gal 5:13, "For you, brethren, have been called to liberty... ..but through love serve one another." One who serves is a servant. Lynn gave a definition of a servant as, "a person hired (Cont. on pg. 6).

Revival Wednesday

By: R. D. Hempton

The third day of the revival was hosted by Emmanuel Worship Center. Pastor Larry Pruett

Pastor Larry Pruett at Emmanuel Worship Center that incredible Wednesday evening began praising loudly even before the service began. The Emmanuel Praise Team began the worship music breaking only for Pastor Lemechel Allen of New Anointing to open in prayer. The worship was intense. Some were on their knees and many stood with hands raised.

Pastor Walter Cleveland prayed over the offering and Pastor Pruett introduced the man all had waited for. We all expected to hear a preacher, but what they got was so much more. Pastor Clint Jones from (Cont. on Pg. 7).

Jack Out of the Box

By: Mateo Raza

The area behind Love of God Mission was useless, overgrown with weeds, covered with mud and garbage. It was this way until Jack showed up. Jack Boring has been at Love of

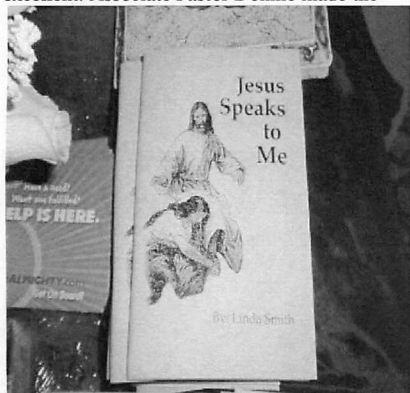

Jack Boring of Love of God Mission

Jack has been at the church for about a month. "It was filthy, nasty, with beer bottles and junk," Jack told BFN. "I thought if it got fixed up they could use it." Jack has already done a great deal but has big plans for the lot behind the church. For instance, he plans to build three crosses at the top of the little hill.

"I asked Ms. Linda what she wanted done with this area - maybe that she had always wanted but people let her down. She said she wanted to be able to look out the back (Cont. on pg. 9).

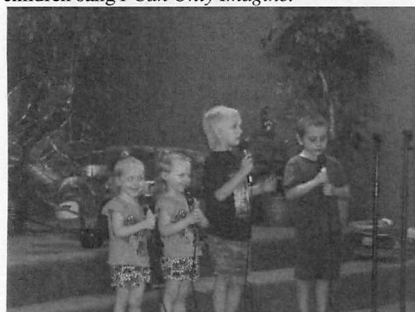

Book on Jesus (from pg 1)

On a visit to Pastor Linda's church, Love of God Mission, the service was found to be excellent. Associate Pastor Donnie made the statement, "I'd rather be here than in the finest hospital." After every one agreed, of course, the children sang I Can Only Imagine.

The kids singing I Can Only Imagine

"We are representatives of Jesus," Pastor Linda reminded us. "Why ain't God working in our lives? Because we are sitting around thinking about ourselves. Go out and lay hands on someone and pray for them. God will give you more than you ask for."

Pastor Linda Smith at Love of God Mission

"For ten years it was horrible." Pastor Linda said, speaking of her marriage in an interview about her book after the service. "I was baptized in the Holy Ghost at 27. We started Love of God here in 1984."

Pastor Linda's book is one of the most exceptional and inspiring this reporter has ever read. The forward in the book by her husband, Charles Smith, explains so much.

"Linda Smith is a woman of God if there has ever been one. She has kept me close to God by the way she lives. I have retyped her stories. They made me cry, they made me laugh, but most of all they made me know what the real LOVE OF GOD felt like. I didn't know that I was one of her biggest trials until I read the things that I had done to her. Through it all, she never let go of God, no matter how bad it got or how badly I treated her. She loves everyone. She has an undying devotion to show the LOVE OF GOD through Jesus Christ to everyone she meets. She has been cursed out, spat upon, and made fun of, but the love of Jesus grows stronger with each battle. I know this book will bring the meanest person to his knees, it will open the blind eyes of some of those that are only a step away from receiving the real Holy Ghost."

Pastor Linda begins the book when she was a small girl and continues on through her life with her relationship with the Living God. She tells how she narrowly escaped death through no power of her own, how she was on the hill Golgatha while Jesus was being crucified, how she was paralyzed and minutes from death and the Lord appeared and completely and instantly healed her. There is so much more but no time or room to write about it. This book is a MUST READ. The only way you can get a copy is directly - from Pastor Linda. There is no charge for the book. What? That's right. There is no charge but you better get one while it is still possible.

Rick Hempton spoke on Unity in the body of Christ and introduced Marty Starcher of Least

These Ministries. He read from Mat 25:41. The ministry prepares food for the needy (e.g. at Project Adam) then bring the word to them. "In Jackson and Barrow counties there is great financial need," said Marty, "but also a great need for the Lord. We can do it, but more people could do more."

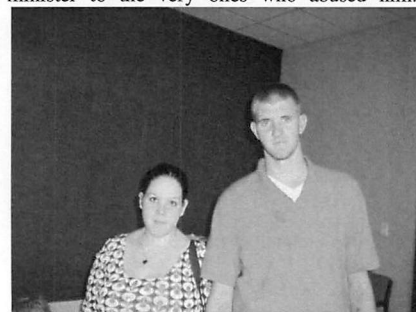

The speaker for the evening, Dorthea (Lovie) Allen, began, "As a minister of the gospel, I must remain teachable and do my assignment without excuses." Isaiah 45:7 says, "I form the light, and create darkness: I make peace, and create evil: I the Lord do all these things."

"Who?" asked the preacher, "I the Lord." Judges 9:23 says, "Then God sent an evil spirit between Abimelech and the men of Shechem..." I Sam 16:14 says, "But the spirit of the Lord departed from Saul, and an evil spirit from the Lord troubled him."

"In Genesis Joseph was born into a dysfunctional family. His dad was married to his mother and his aunt. His brothers said, 'we will kill him and then see what happens to his dreams.' But Reuben said, 'No, we'll put him in this pit.' He was sold to the Midianites and went to Egypt, where he was sold to Potiphar. With Potiphar's wife, Joseph found more evil. He went to prison. God had to get Joseph out of Potiphar's house because what he had to do was too big for Potiphar's house. There's a purpose for my pain. After Joseph became the governor his tests really began. Joseph wept seven times and six of them were after he was governor.

"We say things like, 'I wish I would win the lottery.' Well, Joseph had it all but he still had pains coming. His brothers did not know who he was and he had to tell them. God had Joseph minister to the very ones who abused him.

"It is not people and things that deliver it; it is the Lord God Almighty. God turned the evil for good. Joseph could've said it was his mama and daddy's fault. We have to stop blaming those that hurt us for the whole thing. We get so focused on our hurt and pain we miss the good part. It doesn't matter HOW many baby daddies you have when you find out Christ is their real daddy. God had to temper Joseph to teach him to be forgiving. What happens when you are still in pain? The right thing. When you get hurt in a church? You go back. Do the right thing.

The first night of a seven-day revival is usually the least attended. The revivals usually get off to a slow start that way. The first night of the April seven-day revival at seven different churches might have been the very best first night of revival ever.

righteousness, and all these things will be added to you.” He then took us to Mat 6:9 and reminded us that Jesus did not give us this prayer so we could just repeat it word-for-word. He gave it to us as a model of how we should pray. Then he prayed and afterward introduced Melanie Phillips, the manager of Atlanta Mission Thrift Store and More on May Street in Winder. She told of how tragedy struck the lives of her and her husband and how they lived in fear for a year but finally went back to church. “The thrift store, formerly The Potter’s House,” shared Melanie, “has grown from 4 to 7 stores, and they help about 1000 people a month. I manage a team in Winder of 3 to 10 people. We are blessed to be able to pray with whoever is in the store. The stores help support the recovery center in Jefferson, which provides a year-long reprogramming for addicted men.”

After Ms. Phillips, Rick Hempton of the Whole Body of Christ Alliance spoke on the importance of unity in the body of Christ. He began with Psalm 133 and went to John 17:11, 17:20-21, “I do not pray for these alone, but also for those who will believe in me through their word; that they all may be one, as you, Father, are in me, and I in you; that they also may be one in us, that the world may believe that you sent me.” “Why do we need to be in unity?” The Rev. Dr. Hempton asked, “That the world may believe ‘that thou didst send me.’”

Where these differences don't mean anything

Running sound for the gathering

Sarah Lindner signing to the lyrics of the music

We have this ministry and we have received mercy and we do not lose heart; we have renounced the things of shame. If our gospel is veiled, it is veiled to those who are perishing. We all have a ministry, and we need to find it and do it. If we let the differences between us remain, we hide all of these things Paul writes of here. We need to get to where these differences don't mean anything. Jesus isn't down here but we are. We have to duplicate what he does – be his hands, his mouth. There is trouble everywhere, but there's good news: Jesus is everywhere.

"Our trials are supposed to lead us to the foot of the cross, and make us better, not bitter.

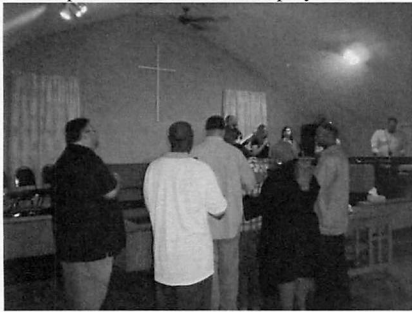

"We have to come together in agreement. Pray in agreement with someone. Pray it through. Put on the whole armor of God. We wrestle not against flesh and blood. We have to quit wrestling with one another. If we don't, we are on the devil's side.

"And having done all, to stand. Truth! We need to be in unity, not only with each other, but with God."

The music began anew. Pastor Patsy called for all who needed prayer to come to the front.

The king was called Ahasuerus by the Jews, Khshayarsha by the Persians and Xerxes by the Greeks. Only God could have made Esther be selected by the king. Esther knew that going before the king could cost her life. In Esther 4:14 Mordecai told her, Athens sat on the stage with the spot light on him and began a sort of life story.

"I've failed. I've let so many people down. As a teenager living at home I clashed with my dad. I hated living there. I just wanted to have some fun. I was sick of doing everything his way. People always told me I should be like him.

First Lady June Pruett of Emmanuel W. C.

Things just got worse every day. One day I was fed up and I told my dad, 'I Hate You! I wish you would die!' Oh, the look in his eye. He led me to the door, gave me a lot of money and said, 'Okay Son, I love you.'

"At last, I could do what I wanted. Every night was a party. No responsibility and oh, the friends that money brought me, the drugs, the alcohol, and nobody telling me what to do.

"After a couple years, the money ran out, I could find none of those friends, and the life I lived was living me. The anger that built up pushed people away. I lost jobs. There was no where to go. Finally, I found myself surrounded with pigs – me, a nice Jewish boy. I was so hungry I wanted to eat that pig food. I remembered the last thing my dad said to me, 'Son, I love you. I remembered the hired help. They didn't even live like this. Maybe, just maybe he'd let me cut the grass – be a servant. I'll go back. I'll tell him I've sinned against him and God. He'll tell me I'm getting what I deserve and he'll be right. You reap what you sow. But at least I won't be eating this pig food."

The spot light went to black as the music played. A few seconds later the spotlight came back on at the other side of the stage.

"They're all excited he's back! I' am so mad I could spit! He's back after all those years. I cut the grass! I did all the work! Here he is back now and they're all in there having a party. I want him gone right now! I can't stand him! Everybody says, 'You have to help your little brother.' Nobody recognizes what I've done. Kill the fatted calf? I don't even have a blasted goat. They all celebrate because that piece of trash has come back."

The spotlight went to black once again as the music played. After a couple seconds the spotlight came on center stage.

"God has blessed me with two wonderful sons. When the youngest one was a teenager we went at it. My wife said, 'He's just like you.' I just didn't want him to have to go through what I went through. He blew up one day and I knew I had to let him go. He would have to learn some things on his own. I worried about him for so long. I'd just sit by the phone and wait. There was nothing he could do to make me love him more or less.

"I had been praying for him and I was looking down the road. They said, 'Who is that?' I knew who it was. I ran down the road and threw my arms around him. I made sure he got a shower, clothes, shoes, and a ring on his finger. We had a barbeque. I was the happiest daddy in the world.

"My oldest boy has never given me a bit of trouble. I am so proud of him. He doesn't know it, but someday he's gonna be runnin' this place. He can really put away the groceries. He brings his friends on the football team and they will clean us out, but it's okay. He's my boy. He doesn't know it but I told the servants that if anything happens, it better not happen to him." Does anyone recognize this story? Luke chapter 15.

"The good news is that you don't have to come back to the Father as a servant, but as a child of the most high God. You have his royal DNA in your blood.

"The oldest boy did what he was supposed to do the whole time and he thought he was a servant, that is was a chore to be there. Some church folks are there – miserable, feel like God has let them down. They say, 'It isn't fair.' In the kingdom there is no such thing as fair. By our standards, the Father practices profound unfairness.

"I'm gonna have a Grace Party. I didn't earn it, but I get it because he loves me."

Almighty God Refuses Access

By: Mickey McConnell

READER'S NOTE: There are many advantages to the body of Christ being in unity – many things we can do if we have it that we cannot otherwise do. We continue to lose battle after battle because we have not yet attained it. But it is not just a good idea; Almighty God commands it.

The Rev. Mickey McConnell has written a book on the subject, Almighty God Refuses Access, available through the Battlefield News. He has given his permission for BFN to print excerpts from it.

Mickey McConnell has been a church pastor, a missionary, and worked with with troubled young men. He is a speaker, an author and a godly brother in Christ.

bring up the ark of the covenant from the city of David, which is Zion. The priests and Levites brought up the ark, and the tabernacle of the congregation, and all the holy vessels that were in the tabernacle, and placed it in the inner sanctuary of the temple. King Solomon and all the congregation sacrificed tens of thousands of sheep and oxen. Then starting in verse eleven, "And it came to pass, when the priests were come out of the holy place; (for all the priests that were present were sanctified, and did not then wait by course: also the Levites which were the singers, all of them of Asaph, of Heman, of Jeduthun, with their sons and their brethren, being arrayed in white linen, having cymbals and psalteries and harps, stood at the east end of the altar, and with them an hundred and twenty priests sounding with trumpets:) it came even to pass, as the trumpets and singers were as one, to make one sound to be heard in praising and thanking the LORD; and when they lifted up their voice with trumpets and cymbals and instruments of music, and praised the LORD, saying, For he is good; for his mercy endures forever: that the house was filled with a cloud, even the house of the LORD; so that the priests could not stand to minister by reason of the cloud: for the glory of the LORD had filled the house of God."

Notice the priests had consecrated themselves. The Levite singers and musicians were also assembled there dressed in white linen, and had their musical instruments with them. There were also 120 priests there sounding trumpets. When the trumpeters and the singers became as one, praising and thanking Almighty God, the Almighty filled the temple with His presence. The glory of Almighty God was so great that the priests could not stand to minister. How very beautiful and awesome this scene is. Do you understand that the Almighty appeared in great power and glory as they became one? Division is a very key ingredient hindering the work of the kingdom. I cannot overemphasize the importance of this factor. The corruption of division taints things, that Almighty God in His holiness and purity holds back His great power from this devil-devised scheme. It is devilish, sensual, and filled with pride. Remember, pride goes before destruction, and not before a great display of power from the Almighty. If we desire to see His great power, we must humble ourselves instead. Acquiring singleness of mind with our brethren throws the door wide open to receive great and mighty things from on high. Coming into agreement creates a sweet sweet environment in which the Holy Spirit delights to work. Making and maintaining denominational division has the tendency of quenching the Holy Spirit. Let him that hath an ear to hear, listen to what the Holy Spirit is saying. The Almighty loves unity among His people. He expects us to have a pure heart and to be as one. The Almighty will not refuse access into this powerful realm when we are one the way we are supposed to be: quite the contrary. He will pave a glorious entrance into that which he has for those who love Him.

The Whole Body of Christ

Alliance is a body of believers from many Christian churches, denominations and ministries that work toward unity in the body of Christ: not all under one pastor but as individual organ systems in a single body. We seek unity in the body of Christ; not one world religion. As the Bible instructs us, we are to work together synergistically, not against each other, nor are we to be independent of one another. No organ functioning on its own will survive very long.

This alliance seeks talented individuals to help in this mission. We are in need of resources, especially the most valuable resources – people. You do not need a degree. What is required is a true desire to serve Jesus Christ without dogmatic constraints and that you either are now or are willing to become absolutely sold out to Jesus (not to this alliance nor to your denomination).

If you have the desire to glorify the name of Jesus, one of the things you were created for, and your talents are not being fully used, contact us using the information previously provided. If you wish to have an article published in the BATTLEFIELD NEWS or have a comment on anything you read in the publication, contact us. Your article may be published. Be sure to keep a copy since your article will not be returned to you. Nor will you receive any financial compensation for it.

Most things in this eighteenth edition are not copyrighted material. All ministries are encouraged to reproduce all or any part of it for God's purposes.

If the Whole Body of Christ Alliance has not Contacted your church or pastor and your body of believers would be included, we will get to your church eventually, but do not wait until next year. The Lord may come for his bride before that. Contact us.

Be Not Deceived...

By: Jeff Carr

Reader's Note: The Rev. Jeff Carr is a Christian counselor who has reconciled over 2000 marriages, counseled hundreds of fallen pastors, many of them to restoration, and helped thousands of people to find and operate in their callings. Jeff operates a counseling ministry, Cross of Christ Ministries; has been a church pastor, a speaker, an author, a teacher, and is a godly brother in Christ. He has given permission for BFN to print excerpts from some of his writing. It is our hope that you will both enjoy and benefit from it. Rick (Cont. on pg. 12)

Be Not Deceived (from pg. 11)

Misleading New Believers

Without an understanding of sowing and reaping we give new converts to Christ a life-sentence of fleshly striving. If we preach the hope of new life in Christ, but fail to reveal the cross as the power to "put off the old man," they will strive to overcome, by determined obedience, what they've already struggled with for a lifetime. Only death with Christ can truly release them from bondage. All other striving will lead to frustration.

Resurrection Life is a Christian's Hope.

Our new life in Christ is to be the result of a resurrection, not merely a greater human effort. For us to walk in resurrection life there has to be a death of the old life.

Even though Christians in America don't have to face hungry lions and burning crosses, as the first disciples did, we are still commanded to pick up our crosses and die to ourselves. We are not to try to preserve our old life, even though our culture is far more tolerant of us than the culture of 2000 years ago was to the first disciples.

The Cross of Christ is our power against the old life and against our old life and against the reaping of corruption and suffering that comes from that old life. As I face what I am reaping in life and bring to death the old man who is reaping it, a new life is FORMED in me which will not draw to itself the reaping of things sowed in my past.

If we do not learn to appropriate the power of the cross to set people free from what was sown and is therefore being reaped in their lives, then individuals, marriages, and families, will never become what they could be in Christ, and we will remain ineffective against the rising tide of corruption in our communities.

Betraying the Cross

In many churches, even very godly people have become so frustrated with the human weakness and wretchedness around them that they are easily tempted to preach a "pick-yourself-up, brush-yourself off, and-just-start-making-the-Right-choices" kind of gospel. That message does nothing less than BETRAY the message of the cross to people who need to learn by example how to die to their old lives. Saints give each other platitudes of the personal testimonies of broken and crucified lives. We feed on eloquent sermons and beautiful songs instead of honest, gut-wrenching and sacrificial fellowship that leads to sanctification. We run to seminars instead of living in life-giving community. How can a person get healed of lifelong wounds in a body that offers less love and fellowship than the family that originally caused the wounds? How can people get whole in churches that offer little more loving fellowship than the wounded found in school growing up?

This concludes this installment from Rev. Carr. Next month he intends to begin with a discussion of, "Isn't it all under the blood?"

Grace, Love of God

Pastor James Walker representing Grace Deliverance Church in Athens opened the service. He introduced Pastor Roger Williams of Miracle Deliverance to open in prayer.

Pastor James Walker and his wife Theresa have nine children, all of whom play and sing music. The children, under the direction of Theresa Walker, provided the worship music for all those who attended Grace Deliverance Church hosting at Love of God Mission.

After the worship the Rick Hempton spoke about unity in the body of Christ. When he finished he told everyone to introduce themselves to someone they don't normally go to church with. The people of many churches responded.

People greeting one another in center top of picture are the two that attended every night of revival, David Beasley and Sarah Lindner.

Pastor James Walker introducing Rev. Iler

The Rev. Missy Iler spoke about United Front

The Rev. Missy Iler was introduced and spoke about United Front Ministries. She read the mission statement and explained that it was a united front against the enemy. She took us to Genesis 11:6 and quoted, "Nothing shall be impossible for them."

The man everyone had been waiting for, Rev. Jeff Carr, began. "Elders in the city - Paul writes to Titus about elders in the city, not elders in a particular church. They were to work with and oversee the churches and pastors. We have completely lost that in most places in America. Elders in a church have lost their power, the power that was intended from the beginning of the church. There are supposed to be elders in the city. That is the function Rick is fulfilling. There are so many in the body whose calling is not going to be fulfilled in their body of believers, but only outside that body."

Rev. Carr handed out his business cards to everyone in the sanctuary that wanted to take one and announced, "I will have 3 to 9 hours to be with anyone of you without charge."

"I was the V.P. in charge of sales for WANG Corporation," Jeff shared, "and God told me to quit my job and go into the ministry. My mother lost 9 babies by miscarriage. I was baby number 10. She died just before I was born. This gave me the passion to see the body of Christ become everything it was intended to be. I am what I am because Jesus is a Wonderful Counselor - because of what He is. I Peter 4:1 tells us to 'Arm yourself.' I called it inviting Jesus into my heart, but it was me being crucified and resurrected - born again."

"Romans 8:5 tells us to be carnally minded is death but to be spiritually minded is life and peace. It has been this way since the garden. When we read James 4:1, we are reminded that we kill each other with our words. We can visit the sick and those in prison and pray for people but that is not the same as laying down your life for the sheep. Lay it down. Jesus lived right in front of his disciples. Live right in front of your sheep. We preach against abortion and yet we abort the callings of those sheep. Live out in the open in front of your sheep. Bear their burdens, don't just talk about it. Talk is cheap. Pastors, it's not your job to keep those sheep. It's your job to prepare them to go out there in their calling. Stop talking and do. Operate in unity with the other churches. Welcome the elders of the city. God bless you all.

Timothy at Living

Hope By: R. D. Hempton

Friday 20 April, the fifth night of the seven-day revival at Living Hope Christian Fellowship in Hoschton, Pastor Allen Stevens greeted everyone present and prayed. He introduced Rick Hempton, who spoke about unity in the body of Christ. Deena King, Grail King, Kevin Rowe and Belinda Hamms, Joyful Spirit provided the music for the service. Dr. Lorrie Richardson-O'Neal then spoke about Anointed Hands Medical Service.

was introduced. Pastor Halbert accepted the engagement in spite of the fact that he had recently undergone surgery.

Dr. Lorrie Richardson-O'Neal speaking

Pastor Jesse Halbert of Timothy Baptist Church West delivering the message

Pastor Halbert began in I Chron 4:9 – the prayer of Jabez. "When we get out of our comfort zone, we get nervous. This is true for churches too. If we don't get out of our comfort zone will begin to die as a body. "There are 3 noticeable things about this prayer. First, the prayer is an oasis in the text in the midst of all the begats. He was not satisfied just to beget. Everyone in here can do something for Christ.

"Second, the name Jabez means, 'son of my sorrow.' Forget that. What does God say I am? Don't let folks call you out of your name. We don't have to drop below God's standars because we have already made that choice.

"Third, Jabez was more honorable than his brothers. He looked at what his family did and said, 'I can do better.'

"We've become divided and begun to build little empires. We don't have to do this anymore. Jabez prayed for prosperity. Money is not necessarily it at all. Pray, 'God, whatever you want for my life, that's what I'm asking for. Jabez asked God to enlarge his territory. He asked for influence that he could impact those around him. We should all want this in our lives.

"God is still a prayer-hearing God. He has already purposed in me. The good news is that God is willing to do the same thing with you as he did with Jabez.

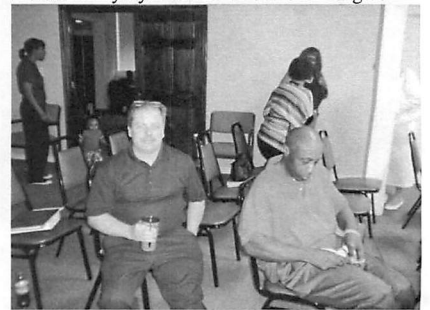

New Harvest of Miracles and Power

By: Donna Michelle Iler

House of Power Church is in Dacula. Therefore, in order to keep the revival more centered, Pastors Clyde and Carol Patman lent the sanctuary of Miracle Deliverance House of Prayer for Pastor Danny Dyer and his congregation on Saturday 21 April.

Pastor Danny dyer of House of Power begins

Marty Starcher and David Beasley before svc.

Hosting Pastor, Danny Dyer opened the service. "In 2006 I weighed 625 pounds. I was on my death bed. The night after I prayed, 'God, take me,' the Dr. called and my surgery was scheduled. I have now lost 317 pounds. Thank you, Jesus." Pastor Dyer introduced Pastor John Duncan of Faith Tabernacle in Talmo, who prayed the opening prayer. The Miracle Deliverance Praise Team began the worship music with Oh Happy Day. The music was upbeat and lively.

Pastor Clyvette Driskell

Ms. Nancy Arnold of Move of God Church

Rick Hempton was introduced and surprised many because, instead of speaking about unity, he shared a vision of what unity looked like.

Marty Starcher of Least of these Ministries shared, "In Phil 2:1 Paul uses the word 'fellowship,' (Greek: Koinonia) it means partnership. When we come together with our gifts, it's like 1+1=3."

Then, the anticipated speaker, Pastor Betty Arnold of New Harvest began, "I'm going on with this word I got this morning from Ps 33:1, 'Rejoice in the Lord, o you righteous! For praise from the upright is beautiful.' Ps 34:8; Yummy, yummy. Taste and see. This does not mean to check out God's credentials. It means that we find out that he is good, kind, and able. You want to win the lottery, but God knows you're not even doing right with the money from your job. Ps 34:10-those who seek the Lord will lack no good thing. Ahab told Jezebel they had killed all the prophets of God, but God's not gonna let anybody do something like that all by themselves. Why doesn't God deal with me like he does Pastor Patman? Because you talk too much. If God hadn't saved me, I'd probably be a comedian. God is talking. Is anybody listening? If you want unity, you have to get unified with Jesus. Elijah crawled up into a cave and the voice said, 'Elijah, what you doing here?' How did you get in the shape you're in with all God has done for you?"

Pastor Betty Arnold bringing the word

Pastor Arnold called those who needed it to come up front. People were dancing in the spirit. People were healed. Pastor Roger Williams introduced Ms. Nancy Arnold, who closed in prayer.

The sixth night of revival with House of Power Hosting at Miracle Deliverance and New Harvest's Pastor bringing the word was better than many hoped for.

Hope Fellowship at Living Hope

By: R. D. Hempton

People from nine churches were present on the final night as Pastor Johnny Williams of Hope Fellowship in Winder hosted at Living Hope Christian Fellowship in Hoschtton. Pastor Allen Stevens opened the service in prayer and Wanda Stevens spoke on Unity in the Body of Christ.

Pastor Stevens welcomes and introduces

Pastor Johnny Williams of Hope Fellowship beside James Mays of Kingdom Community

David and Sarah were at every night of revival

Pastor Johnny hosting (preaching)

Pastor Johnny Williams hosted the final evening, but, being a preacher, he also preached some. He introduced Pastor Kenneth Cooper of Kingdom Community Worship Center, who brought the word.

"In Daniel 3:17 I read how God is able." Shared Pastor Cooper. "Even though these boys were in a strange land, they knew God was able to take care of them. Nebuchadnezzar built an image – big, beautiful, expensive. He told the boys, “When the music plays, you have to bow down.” They said they’d rather burn than bow down to an idol. I’d rather burn than to bow down to worldly folks. They didn’t bow down, but, if the rest were bowed down, how did they know? The boys told the king ‘God is able to save us, but even if he does not, we will not bow down.’ The God I serve is real, whether I’m living or gone. The guards that threw them in the fire burnt up, and Nebuchadnezzar could see the glory of God in the furnace. The boys came out and walked on the ashes of those that put them in there. Who was the 4th man in the fire? He was the same one who died on the cross.”

4: Clearly the book of Romans was authored by Paul the Apostle but the amanuensis (scribe) was a man named Tertius. We know these things for several reasons, not the least of which is the fact that Paul identifies himself in Rom 1:1 and Tertius identifies himself in Rom 16:22. Concerning the book of Revelation, contrary to popular opinion John the Apostle is not the author, but merely the amanuensis. The author is Jesus Christ, who identifies himself as such in Rev 22:16.
