On Prayer 40

Self-centered Praying

(Part Two)

By: Mozelle Davis-Weeks

Consider James 4:1-3:

“Where do wars and fights come from among you? Do they not come from your desires for pleasure that war in your members? You lust and you do not have. You murder and covet and cannot obtain. You fight and war. Yet you do not have because you do not ask. You ask and you do not receive, because you ask amiss, that you may spend it on your pleasures.”

Many people ask for things selfishly. They want their prayers answered for pleasure. They want the gimme list. God says, “No!”

The hedonist asks, “What’s wrong with you, God? You won’t answer my prayers!”

The Bible says, “Adulterers and adulteresses! Do you know that friendship with the world is enmity with God? Whoever therefore wants to be a friend of the world makes an enemy of God (James 4:4).

Are you embracing the world’s standards? If you cling to promiscuity, immorality, masturbation, and all the X-rated, filthy stuff perpetrated in the world and then ask, “Why aren’t my prayers answered?” God will respond, “You are an adulterer – the world’s friend – and you have become my enemy.”

Perhaps you had better pray that you will be a man or woman of God. Maybe you should ask God to make you pure and holy: “Lord, make me a blessing to someone; make me usable.”

You are never too young, too old, or too anything to be a blessing. The prodigal son became a blessing the moment he arrived home. And as soon as you get back in the spirit, whether you are 15 or 75, you can be a blessing. Ps 106:13-15 says, “They soon forgot His works; they did not wait for his counsel, but lusted exceedingly in the wilderness, and tested God in the desert. And he gave them their request, but sent leanness into their soul.”

This scripture proves that we can talk God into answering a prayer that is not best for us. They were screaming for quail, and God said, “I’ll give you quail.” If you read the context of the Old Testament (Num 11), you will find that quail was practically coming out of their nostrils.

They forgot God’s works and refused to wait for his counsel. Instead of asking, “God, how should I pray?” they said, “Here I am to name and claim, God. You had better be my Santa Claus, or I won’t serve you. You may think you are God, but I’m going to tell you what you are going to give me – and how soon and how much.”

That is just blasphemy! You cannot make God your errand boy or talk him into fulfilling your lust. You may get some quail – he gave the Israelites their request, but he also sent leanness upon them.

We have been talking about prayer that moves away from selfishness and motivates God to make us what He wants us to be. Two Old Testament examples illustrate the nature and consequences of gimme-osis.

Gen 30-31 tells the story of Jacob’s flight from his father-in-law, Laban. Jacob took his possessions, gathered his family, and left for his homeland. Rachel, his wife, secretly took the household gods from her father’s house and hid them in her saddlebags. Furious, Laban pursued Jacob and demanded his household gods back. Not knowing of Rachel’s sin, Jacob allowed Laban to search the entire group.

Rachel managed to keep the idols from being discovered, but her gimme-osis helped to make the rift between her husband and her father even wider. Her selfishness also led to more sin, since she was forced to lie to her father and continue her hold on idols that God abhorred.

Unwittingly and ironically, Jacob confessed Rachel’s death. He told Laban, “With whomever you find your gods, do not let him live.” (Gen 31:32) A few chapters later, Rachel gave birth to Benjamin, and Jacob’s words came true: she died giving birth. The curse he had pronounced came on the person he loved the most – his Rachel.

Another example of the devastating effects of selfishness is seen in Joshua 7. After taking Jericho, Joshua took his army against the city of Ai. This time, however, Joshua’s army was defeated, and “The hearts of the people melted and became like water.” (Joshua 7:5)

When Joshua fell before the Lord, cried out, and listened for an answer, the Lord said, “Get up! Why do you lie there on your face? Israel has sinned, and they have also transgressed my covenant which I commanded them. For they have even taken some of the accursed things, and have both stolen and deceived; and they have also put it among their own things. Therefore the children of Israel could not stand before their enemies, but turned their backs before their enemies, because they have become doomed to destruction. Neither will I be with you anymore, unless you destroy the accursed from among you.” (Josh 7:10-12)

Joshua soon discovered that Achan, of the tribe of Y’hudah, had stolen from Jericho a “beautiful Babylonian garment, 200 shekels of silver, and a wedge of gold weighing 50 shekels” (Josh 7:21). He had hidden the spoils in his tent in defiance of God’s command that nothing be taken from Jericho. Because of his sin, he and his family were stoned to death and cremated.

The consequences of Achan’s gimme-osis were serious on several levels. He turned God against the entire nation and caused the defeat of the army and the deaths of many men. He jeopardized the success of Israel, for God said, “Neither will I be with you anymore, unless you destroy the accursed from among you.” Finally, he brought destruction on his entire family. His gimme-osis was destructive from beginning to end.

Gimme-osis always creates problems and fosters sin. Ultimately it hinders prayer and brings about disaster.

Do you have anything hidden in your saddle bags? Do you have anything hidden in the center of your heart? If you want to pray, pray until nothing hidden remains in your heart – articles or attitudes. You may disagree with how I defined worldliness earlier, so look at your own definition. What does today’s Christian look like when he is wearing a Babylonian garment? What is it that makes us of Babylon – the world system?

Achan could not keep his hands off that wedge of gold. Money was on the top of his gimme list. He got it, hid it, and thought he was safe. He thought no one knew. But God knew! Achan needed to do some praying, not for a wedge of gold or for worldliness, but to be a man of God.

If there is something hidden in your life that you would not want me or your best Christian friend to know about, to that extent you are a hypocrite. If you have a filthy VHS tape, pornography, or anything you would be ashamed to reveal publicly, you need to get off your camel and open your saddlebag. Destroy that accursed thing. It may be a bad attitude, hate, or bitterness. It could be anything.

You need to pray until you are a Nathanael. When Yeshua saw Nathanael, he said, “Behold, an Israelite indeed, in whom is no guile!” (John 1:41). “No guile” means no deceit, cunningness, craftiness, or double-heartedness.

Pray until you can say, “As far as I know, I do not hate anybody or harbor any secret sin. Nothing is in my tent. I have destroyed every Babylonian garment.”

The prodigal son says, “Give me my inheritance. I want it now.” The repentant son says, “Make me holy.” Selfish prayer causes people to leave the Father’s house. Prayer for holiness causes people to be holy.

I have a challenge for you: be like that repentant prodigal son. Whatever your pigpen is – hate, pornography, selfish prayers, or anything else – why not leave it? Come to the end of yourself, and run home to Daddy. That is something to pray about!

Pray with all your heart until you are back home wearing the robe, the ring, and the sandals, with joy in your heart. God is waiting. He is not angry with you. You can come home.

Almighty God Refuses Access

By: Mickey McConnell

Mickey McConnell

Sadly, leaders in churches are often the biggest part of the problem here. I have carefully used the WORD to establish this truth: Almighty God desires oneness among his devoted sons and daughters. Will you allow church leaders to dissuade you from doing the creator’s will in this? Please carefully and deliberately take time and objectively think about what I just asked. Are we followers of Christ or are we followers of men? Are we willing to substitute the traditions of men for the will of the Great Creator? This is a very serious spiritual question. Are we willing to substitute a form of godliness for obedience? Once we have come to the knowledge of the truth, we will give an account for it on the judgment day. What is more important than the law of love? Notice in Acts 5:27, “And when they had brought them, they sat them before the council: and the high priest asked them, saying, ‘did we not straightly command you that you should not teach in this name? And behold, you have filled Jerusalem with your doctrine, and intend to bring this man’s blood upon us.’ Then Peter and the other apostles answered and said, ‘We ought to obey

God rather than men.”

Understand from this passage that it is never ok to obey men out of fear of what they might say or do more than we awe and respect Almighty God. We will not give an account to men on the judgment day for our deeds, but we will give an account to the Great Creator. If and when one of your church leaders forbid you to promote unity among Christ’s devoted, let it be like water off a duck’s back. As I said before, do everything in your power not to cause strife, but continue to go about seeking restoration among Christ’s true followers. If one of these ministers gets up and preaches a hard sermon about why their denomination is so godly and must be preserved, let it be like water off a duck’s back, for it is a message in contradiction of what of what is said in the I Cor 1:10-13 and Eph 4:11-13, and many other passages I have shown you earlier in this book. Christ’s ministers are under authority, as we all are.

through it. All of us need a word. When you have ashes - it could be your finances, your marriage - you can’t see the way out. You lose precious things. There is a difference between crying and mourning. Mourning cuts to the heart and is a horrible feeling. We have to be careful to bind up the broken hearted, and proclaim the day of favor.

to link up with the, to work with them, and resist the fleshly tendency to shun anyone not of our group. The body of Christ must come together as one body.

“There is no unity without U and I,” shared Pastor Curt Buckmire. “You shall know the truth and the truth will make you free. In America, we sacrifice truth. Secular society does not want to hear the truth. We represent God on earth and we are responsible for spreading the truth. Donald Trump will not be the savior of this nation. He will be the next president only because the alternative is worse. If he does not stand for the truth, speak the truth, this nation will not make it. We know we will not have to take the "truth" poured out by Washington. The LGBT society will be able to have the bathroom they want. Society says, 'Believe the science.' Science says, 'If your sex chromosomes are XX, you are a girl; if XY, you are a boy.' About this society says, 'Do not believe the science.' Now they say to believe the children over the science. If not programmed to stand up for the truth, this nation will be lost, just as in Judges: A generation arose that did not know God. We have the responsibility to teach them the truth. We have to come together and stand for the truth. The enemy tries to shame us into silence. If we say no, we are 'homophobic, bigoted.' I tell them, 'I do not hate you, but I am not for you. You will not get me to believe a lie or repeat this lie. I know the truth. Don't tell me your "sexual identity" problem; God can fix that.' We are the intercessors on the wall. Many have laid down their lives for this gospel. It is our time to stand up to secular society and say, 'You don't have the truth. There is truth and it is not relative. If it is relative, it is not the truth. Truth is the key, but unless you are prepared to put in the door and turn it, you cannot be the farmer who plants the seed. Plant the seed of truth.'

Pastor James Loyless, board of directors, Whole Body of Christ Alliance

"I went to a family reunion," said Pastor Loyless, "and they broke up into little groups. We are the body of Christ. We are a family. We are not supposed to be broken up into little groups. Why do we need to have unity? First, because in John 17, Jesus prayed for it. Second, Paul pleaded for it as in Phil 2. We can do more together, outside just our own ministry. What is truth? No, who is truth? Jesus! Only in unity will the body grow stronger. We don't need a 'church,' a building. It's just a building to keep you in. We must preach out there."

Rev. Dr. Mary Neal

"John 17," Began Dr. Mary, "was one of Yeshua's last prayers on earth. 'I in you, I in them and they in me.'"

Pastor Michael Macauley of Redemption Church

"Phil 2:17-18, Most of us," said Pastor Michael Macauley, "fail to remember the sacrifice He made. This is Memorial Day weekend. Memorial Day is about the ultimate sacrifice. The communion is to recognize the sacrifice he made. 'Do this in remembrance (memorial) of me.' If we forget the cost, the sacrifice, we forget the cause we fight for. I have three challenges for you:

- 1: Take time this Memorial Day to remember the sacrifice made by Jesus Christ. We are to live our life as a living sacrifice.
- 2: Understand in your life the times you have to sacrifice. You have to give up to go up. Sacrifice what you have now to improve. Let go of something to go to the next place.
- 3: Somebody else gave a sacrifice for you to be where you are. We stand on the shoulders of giants who went before us. Call and thank somebody who sacrificed for you to be where you are."

Redemption Church Praise Team

Pastor Peter Paye

"In Ps 23," began Pastor Paye, "David said, 'The Lord is my shepherd; I shall not want.' What disrupts and stands in the way of our unity? The source of our discomfort is our want. James 4 speaks of our wants corrupting our actions. This breeds jealousy and undermines our unity. '...I shall not want.' What is the want in your heart, in your own life that will keep you from unity? What stands in the way of unity at the local and national level? Let God be your shepherd. You will not want. He will supply you."

Connie Jackson from One People Ministries in Waco, Tx with Dr. Mary Neal

people just lay down in their ashes. Stop crying and feeling sorry for yourself and get up! The Lord will give you confidence and restore hope. God is using you so that those coming after you will know. The Hebrew word for ashes is Epher (ay-fair); the Hebrew word for beauty is pe'er, (peh-air). You see the similarity and how beauty can be easily substituted for ashes. The Lord will renew you and give you the mind of Christ. As it states in Romans 12:2, 'Do not conform to the pattern of this world, but be transformed by the renewing of your mind. Then you will be able to test and approve what God's will is—his good, pleasing and perfect will.' We have to get ourselves together so generations ahead will have a new path, a new direction."

Ms. Joanne Frey at Beauty for Ashes

Beauty for Ashes was the first annual women's conference hosted at Kingdom Life Refuge. It was held on 14 May in Commerce, Ga. The conference was arranged by Sherry Angel,

First Lady of Kingdom Life Refuge.

First Lady Sherry Angel

“Women internalize,” Lady Sherry told the women, “we hold on to things. Sometimes it doesn’t allow us to move on and we live in the past. We all have one thing in common; we are all children of God. We work with women that don’t believe there are little things that you can do to show them God’s love . But we know that we can, and God will bless us for it. We all need to be in one mind and one Accord. How awesome would that be?”

“There is a book called Jesus Calling that was given to me by a friend. It is encouraging to read every day. I have put it in the bathroom in my school because of its encouragement to women. It has changed my work environment. it has been a blessing , and the ladies are using the language from the book, so I can tell they are reading the material. The book is just one way to show them how God can turn things around. The purpose of the conference is to trade Beauty for Ashes (Is 61:3). There is going to be an exchange made today.”

He's making diamonds out of us! What a wonderful group of diamonds we had in the house today! Beautiful speakers, testimonies, and music! Beauty for ashes women's conference 2016! This is only the beginning of greater things!

The ladies

There were many testimonies given that were very emotional, and there was not a dry eye in the building. Some young women and some older women released secrets and revealed weaknesses in order to help others deal with the same type situations they might be facing. The speakers included Margaret Jolly, Joann Frey, Bridget Hill, Macy Lord and Megan Lord. At the end of afternoon all the women took a bag of ashes to the altar and laid them down in exchange for a beautiful flower. This symbolized the exchange of Beauty for Ashes.

On Wednesday of the Revival Lem Minish of the Bridge opened in pray. “Mat 1:1-18 is The genealogy of Jesus through Joseph In Mat 1:21 the angel told Joseph, ‘You shall call his name Yeshua, for he will save his people from their sins.’ Just think of where our lives would be today without that moment.”

On the same night at Bush Chapel AME Zion Church in Winder, Ms. Mary Tate, Director of Ms. Mary’s House of Hope spoke. “The girls in my house will emerge butterflies, that is, unless they leave prematurely. You see, I receive them as an egg, which becomes a larva. The larva will become a pupa encased in a chrysalis. If the pupa matures, it emerges as a butterfly. All this

Mary Tate of Mary’s House of Hope

If a sheep does not want the shepherd, they may leave prematurely. The larva, the worm is ugly. It goes through stages and becomes beautiful. The prodigal son had it all, and still went out into the world. Without a shepherd, the girls at my house will go back out into the pigpen of the world. Some people don’t want a relationship with the Lord; they just want to court him. Therefore, they don’t get te benefits. When you are married, there are benefits. When you know God, there are benefits. When we came to Christ we were ugly, but we are going through stages to become beautiful. If we are not willing to go through those sometimes painful stages, we will remain ugly.

“In Phil 2:1-11,” began David Yeom at Bush Chapel, “Fulfill my joy by being like-minded... ..Let this mind be in you that was also in Christ... ..to the glory of God the Father. We need to ask this question every morning: Who is Christ to you? Different people seek the Lord in very different ways. Do not evaluate them. Do not over or underestimate them. Everybody can be hopeful. The world is hopeful. They call this optimism. Homosexuals hope, Muslims hope. Yeshua asked this question of the talmadim (disciples): Who do you say that I am? This is what makes us different. Many people who say they are Christians love their identity. You cannot be a white man and be a Christian. You cannot be a black man and be a Christian. You cannot be Hispanic and be a Christian. ‘I am black, but you are my brother.’ Paul did not maintain that ‘I am a Jew, but I am preaching to you anyway.’ The question is who are you?

Who are you if you are not a Christian who belongs to Jesus Christ? If you are a Christian, you are already dead. Paul said, ‘To live is Christ and to die is gain.’ I try to live detached from the world. If you have not graduated from the world, you will never understand what is required by Jesus. In my church in South Korea, if they call you brother, they will give you all, and will give all for you. Until the white man takes the form of the black man and the black man takes the form of the white man, it is not going to change.

“To be a Christian means to set it all down, and say, ‘Lord, what do you want to take from me?’ Like the people at Mt. Sinai, we don’t want to hear his voice; it’s too scary. I have been to Nigerian, Chinese, and Korean churches. They do not talk about love as much, or hug each other as much, but there is real love there. In most American churches they say love a lot and hug a lot, but they are loveless. Racism will not end in the U.S, but it should not be in the church. It must not affect us. (see pg 6)

Wisdom Missed

The Rev. James Mays of KCWC

“The transformation of a butterfly is a renewing. The Bible says to renew your mind. Together we will stand, and divided we will fall. David Yeom is powerful. Who is Christ to you? If you don’t know, how can you tell anyone else? Love is an action, the fruit of the spirit. We over estimate and underestimate our enemy. You must know who the enemy is. Christians worry about their identity. It’s not about you; it’s about Christ. In hitting an invisible ceiling, if we have that hope and faith, we will not be depressed. The State-of-the-union address – deep. If we do not come together, how will we fight the enemy? If not for this Whole Body of Christ Alliance, I would not know any of you.”

Kimberly Loftin

At Unity on a Mission Headquarters in Hoschton, Kimberly Loftin of Pawga Ministry

addressed the people. “Joshua 19:11, 22, 34 describes the tribal boundaries. When we are in intercession, our minds might not be in the right place. When people are in a dark place in chains, the intercessors will find them. However long it takes, we will all be one.

An element of revelation and power came to the early church because they strived, stayed, and did not give up. We will see the chains broken. What are you willing to give up? Are you willing to sell something in order to bless someone? We must pray without ceasing. Will you be the one? He knows his intercessors. To God be the glory.

At Unity on a Mission headquarters Wanda Stevens, First Lady of Living Hope Christian

First Lady Wanda Stevens

Fellowship shared about unity in the body of Christ. “The Lord threw me a curve ball this time. He said, ‘There is strength in numbers.’ Wait, that’s Numbers, not unity. The Bible says, You will strengthen your people (I argued with the Lord). I looked up all the scripture I could to find that said there was strength in numbers. There was none. Why ‘strength in numbers’ if I don’t find it in the Bible?

“God told Gideon he had too many men. I was still hung up on numbers. I know numbers is important to you, Lord, because one of the books in the Bible is named Numbers.

“Last night Johnny preached about Jehoshaphat, who had many mighty men. But the warriors did not have to fight. God took care of them. God wanted me to search the word. It is not just numbers that unite us, but the number one – Him. In II Chron 20:20-23, the singers went out ahead of the army, praising God. This makes me think of the Unity Band. While the singers sang to the Lord, He caused ambushes to be set against all the enemy factions, and they wiped each other out. It is not our strength that is important, but our trust in him.

music. We sing together. Col 3:12-14, ‘Therefore, as the elect of God, holy and beloved (holy means pure and blameless), put on tender mercies, humility, meekness, long-suffering; bearing with one another (bearing is forbearing, enduring, to hold one’s self up against. We all have people we have to put up with), and forgiving one another, if anyone has a complaint against another; even as Christ forgave you, so you also must do. But above all these things put on love, which is the bond of perfection.’ I will teach you a little song: I love you with the love of the Lord Yes, I love you with the love of the Lord I can see in you the glory of my king And I love you with the love of the Lord Remember, we are made in the image of God. I, you and everyone we see, each is made in the image of God. Sometimes we forget this. “I see in the news how our brothers and sisters are losing their heads in the middle east. I will not allow myself to hate those who are cutting their heads off.

“Last night I left you with a question you would not know the answer to unless you have read the battlefield news. Who in the alliance demanded that the announcement of the 7-day revivals be placed on the front page of BFN? It was Pastor Joseph Essiful-Ansah.

On Friday 16 April at Anointed Hands Ministry and Healing Center James Mays of Kingdom

The Rev. James Mays

Community Worship Center spoke on unity in the body of Christ. He began with prayer. “Gal 3:26-28, Gees unit, a God unit. Unity in the body of Christ is imperative. If you fall, who will pick you up? We are a group that is part of something larger. We need more understanding. We understand so we can overstand anything. Eph 4:25-30 tells us not to go to sleep angry, not to lie to one another, not to steal anymore. If you study the word to find unity, you will find in the word everywhere. It is not what goes into the mouth that defiles a man, but what comes out.

“If Satan can separate you, you are weak. Sectarianism is sin. I Cor 1:10 tells us to speak the same thing, and that there be no division among us. Mal 2:10 says, ‘Have we not all one Father? Has not one God created us?’ Our connection to the savior? The church is our connection. It is not what you know, but who you know. Read Ps 133 and I Cor 12:12. If we are not treating each other right, remember love is not a feeling; it is an action.”

On Sunday 17 April, the last night of revival, Mary Tate of Ms. Mary’s House of Hope was there. “The pen, the paper, and the ink were discussing who was more important, but they forgot about the author. How many people forget about the author? Without the author, there would be no words. God is our author. We make our plans and forget about the author. The body is out of alignment and not working together. And they wonder why God is not working miracles. If you are alone, there is no one to pick you up. Ecc 4:9-12, ‘Two are better than one...but woe to him who is alone when he falls, for he has no one to help him up...and a threefold cord is not easily broken.' Unity is very important and Christ is the author. Be yourself. It is amazing how God has given us uniqueness. Without it we are robots. When we don't like people think we should, they build a wall. Church folks are the only ones that shoot their wounded. Obedience God will use. You will never change the world by going to church, only by being the church.

as he sewed, some fell by the way side, and the fowls of the air came and devoured it up. And some fell on stony ground, where it had not much earth; and immediately it sprang up, because it had no depth of the earth. But when the sun was up, it was scorched; and because it had no root, it withered away. And some fell among thorns, and the thorns grew up, and choked it and it yielded not. And the other fell on good ground, and did yield fruit that sprang up and increased; and brought forth, some thirty, and some sixty, and some an hundred. And he said unto them, He that hath ears to hear, let him hear.'

Praying at Smith Memorial

"The Sower, the soil, hard heart, a good heart, defeated heart, a cultural heart. A hard heart is cold, filled with anger and bitterness, but refuses to allow God to work. A defeated heart is also cold; nothing can get in. Satan saw a good candidate to join his company. Satan prevents us from hearing God because he spends time studying the children of God. Seeds are uncovered as the birds pick them up. There are enemies in the field to steal, kill, and destroy. Don't allow Satan to have an open invention to our hearts. When we make our lives of Jesus, Satan comes in.

The Rev. Roseanna Brannon

The Rev. Dr. John Paul Ruth

Dr. Ruth and Pastor Lynn Hill

Dr. Ruth, Pastor Hill, and Sabrina Scott in prayer

"It's no good now and has not been good which causes the soil to be thin. Roots grow we need our patience to grow. When our faith is not equipped, it withers. The roots didn't grow. They didn't have the soil to stand in the power. The Root didn't stay long enough to find out that God is the protector, joy, hope, the Rock, the Great I am.

"A cluttered heart can't listen and hear Gods word. It does nothing with it. It keeps them from developing the growth in Christ. The word of God was choked out. A divided mind worries when it should be praying. Don't hold on to anything that is harmful to your heart, soul, mind, and body. Too many have hearts with stones and thorn's that need freedom.(see pg 8) is a body of believers from many Christian congregations, denominations, and ministries that work together for unity in the body of Christ; not all under one pastor, but as individual organ systems in a single body. We seek unity in the body of Christ, not one world religion. As the Bible instructs us, we are to work together synergistically, not against each other, nor are we to be independent of one another. No organ functioning on its own will survive very long.

If you wish to have an article published in the BATTLEFIELD NEWS or have a comment on anything you read in it, contact us. Your article may be published. Be sure to keep a copy of it since it will not be returned to you. Nor will you receive any financial compensation for it.

Same Seed (from pg 7)

Forgiveness is for you not for the person who hurt you. God is in the business of heart transplants. He's just that good. It may take a little more recovery time for the operation. It's time to be in recovery.

The Tent Continues

Kimberly Loftin, Joseph (JoJo) Finney, Caroline Edwards, Missy Iler, and Barbra Buyck. They all took part, coming forth with a word or even prayer. Greg Brockman opened in prayer and then spoke as he heard the Lord. He said each one is an image of Christ and in the early years prayer meetings were in houses.

The people in prayer

If we don't carry out the prayer meetings, what the Lord wants to do will slide away. The people will miss it. Each person really doesn't know one another, there own brothers and sisters in Christ. This is because it's not a personal relationship with one another. Rock opened up in prayer and as she prayed, she began to give a word from the Lord. "We are sheep among wolves, but he is mighty against anything. Be a storm against the fear. Be strong by being of good courage. Don't use your words, but use the two edged sword. If you don't have the word of God, do not say anything."

The term tent meeting is applicable

"Stand on the word of God," JoJo Finney told the people at the tent. "Go out two by two, go among the world. There is time to give raw truth and facts it's a real life. Yes we want it to be motivating and great, but sometimes we must give the raw truth."

Greg Brockman said he also called the big angel in prayer and felt sick at his stomach and felt the spirit of suicide. He sent it back to the pits of hell, he also called out spiritual death in the churches. He spoke with authority that mercy and a race to be prayer warriors rise up in each city and county: Commerce, Gainesville, Braselton, Winder, Athens, Walton, Barrow, Jackson; that living water come. We must dig the well. He prayed for all churches in every region to have visitations from the Lord, real living relationships within the church, for an outpouring of the Holy Spirit, and for faith to rise up. He called faith out. He also said that there would be seeing in the body of Christ when a prophetic word comes. "Watch," he said, "because the critic will come and try to destroy that word from the Lord."

Mary Tate

Mary Tate began with a prophetic word from the Lord "Rise up! Take authority! It is time to take your place. Look at the enemy and say, 'Boo!' God is not one-sided; you must take the correction and rebuke with the blessings. Mary began her sermon. "When God is talking, are you listening? Have you ever tried to talk to someone who was not listening? It can be very frustrating. Can't it? You just want them to stop, pay attention, and listen. Well, that is the way God feels when he begins to speak to us. He always wants us to stop what we are doing, pay attention, and listen to him. Speaking in prayer is very important, but listening is too. When we pray, if we don't take time to listen to what God is saying, what good is our prayer? God will always give us instruction, but sometime we need correction as well. Again it is up to us to apply it to our life.

"Prayer is the key to heaven, but faith unlocks the door. When we pray we have to have faith that God will answer our prayer. Daniel prayed and it took twenty one days for God to answer because the prince of the kingdom of Persia intercepted the answer. In Daniel 10:13 The Angel Michael interceded in the spirit realm. The spirit realm, where spiritual warfare is fought, where the angels and demons are fighting over your prayers. Angels are agents that intercept our prayers, engaging with demons in the spirit realm. This is what is referred to as 'heavenly places.'

People who pray

"It is very important to listen to God. We must always be ready to hear what God is going to say to us. We must always be submissive to God. Our spirit must always be open when God is speaking. The problem today is, God has spoken but we are not listening to the voice of God. Doesn't peace always follow obedience? Listen!

"There are certain things no one can do for us, things like spending time with God and listening to him. Nothing can ever take God's place in your life. He still lives and his Word still speaks. When God speaks we need to listen to his word because of our position before him, and our responsibility to him.

Greg Brockman in prayer and prophecy

You see, some people get ahead of God. Some people think God sent them a message, but in reality, it could have been the enemy setting a trap. The enemy hears us just like God does. God knows what your heart desires. People don't wait, they are too impatient. When you pray, your prayers go up like smoke. Smoke is vapor, often resulting from the action of heat on moisture. The Angels are in action in order to receive your petition or your prayer. The enemy will send counterfeits into your life in order to distract you, to get you off balance with God's plans, and will. Know this: the enemy cannot counterfeit the Holy Ghost. Some in the church speak in 'tongues,' yet have devils within them. If you have discernment, you will know the difference. Some people are ignorant because they are not taught, but once you are taught you have no excuse. If you go somewhere and you are not supposed to go, you will receive the consequences because you were not obedient. People blame God for their mistakes, and the devil gets too much credit."

In prayer

After the word, the people gathered in a circle and prayed individually. They also prayed over

Kimberly Loftin. Greg Brockman saw a string and said that God broke it off her mind. She was set free like the word of God says, "Who the son sets free is free indeed."

 Still Seeking: Vendors, Performers, Speakers & Singers

Brandi Hallan, Douglas Huff, Chuck Black, Justin Owens, and Amanda Black were among the many volunteers that helped with the coordination of the event. As a special gift to each guest speaker and performer Brandi Hallan presented them with shirts personalized to their ministry with their names on the front. This was a small token of appreciation for giving up their time for the Lord. Unity on a Mission, Revolved, Retro Praise, and D-Earl were among some of the bands and singers that performed. There were 12 Souls saved!

One of the messages spoken was on the Blessing of Brokenness and how everyone is broken. King David was a broken man most people do not think of him like that, but he had a lot of issues before he returned and focused on God. Psalms 147, which was written some years after David's death, and after the return from Babylonian captivity by the Israelites, says, "He heals the brokenhearted and binds up their wounds" Praise the Lord that he heals and binds our wounds!

We don't know the cause of anyone's brokenness; only God knows. Yet we make judgment calls on them. We are all people who have darkness in our hearts. His light can overcome, rescue, and deliver you because we all have been broken. Sometimes people don't know they are broken and that they are children of God. They have pride and they need to seek forgiveness. If they don't, they can't walk in the light. Some carry scars from the past - 20, 30, 40, even 60 years later. It could be a broken spirit, broken confidence, or a broken heart. We need to sacrifice it to God. God is near to you. If you would be still, he has a blessing for you that he will whisper if you will listen.

cold. If you are lukewarm, he will spit you out. Stop playing with God. He is real! He wants to change you inside. The only way is to become his disciple. If you are his disciple, disciple is not your title. My title will do nothing to help me if I am dying, only Jesus. That same power that raised Jesus from the dead is in you. You can't do it the world's way, only Jesus' way. It's gotta be with Jesus.

"Yeshua said to the women at the tomb, 'Do not be afraid. Go tell my brothers to go to the Galil.

They will see me there.’ We call it the Great Commission, but are we his disciples to carry it out? He says, ‘You are my disciples, go into all the world baptizing them and teaching them to observe all that I have commanded you. And I am with you until the end of the age.’ If you are his disciples, you will hear the word, go home and study it. He said, ‘All power is given to me.’ We operate in his power, not our own.

There is a dividing line so that you can say, ‘I don’t want to be in the gray. I don’t want to be spit out by Yeshua. The time for playing church is over. I’m scared of God. I will answer to him. He is gonna question y’all very closely. He says, ‘They keep lifting their hands up to me, but their hands are dirty.’ You have a nice car, but you don’t tithe. God did not give you that. The devil blesses too. Atheists have nice houses and cars.

“Disciples, will you go to the altar with your brother or sister? Let them go; you can’t go with them. You can’t save them. Only Christ can save them. He said go and teach. Teach what? Your way? No! Teach the word of God to all nations. You are not to bow down to someone because they have a title, or bigger pockets than you. We you are his disciple, he will change things for you. Baptize them. Don’t be afraid of water, nor to be baptized in the word. Live the life long enough to know you are not living from emotionalism. All power is the Lord’s. He said he would be with us until the end of the age. You protection is sealed because we either believe his word or we don’t. If I believe, he will seal me for ever, even to akharitha yamim (the end of the age). In the name of Jesus you can live. You can do all things through Christ who strengthens you.”

The line up for the Piedmont Southern Gospel Music Hall Of Fame was the Saxon Family, Melvin Klautd, Straitway, Clark Kessler and Friends, the Mitchells, the Spiritual Voices, and the Saxons. Melvin and Margie Klautd celebrated their sixty third anniversary with us that day. What an honor to be married sixty three years to the same person. What a blessing. The concession stand was sponsored and attended by The Jackson Family. Door prizes were donated by Mary Tate of Miss Mary's House of Hope. Great food, good fun, wonderful singing, awesome fellowship describes the whole day.

To Know Jesus (from pg 1)

is coming against me all through the day. He will hit you on one side, and when you turn, he hits you on the other side. Jesus is our help. He will defeat our enemies. In Mat 4:12, Yeshua is walking by the sea in the Galil (Galilee). He had moved to K'far-nakhum (Capernaum) that the writing of the prophet Yesha'yahu (Isaiah 9:2) might be fulfilled: 'The people living in darkness have seen a great light.' From that time he began to preach, 'Repent, for the kingdom of heaven is at hand.' Jesus is calling us to preach the gospel. People, stand up; he is calling us to repentance, to righteousness, to holiness, doing his will to win lost souls. We got saved to get others saved, to be fishers of men.

"We make excuses. We have to get back to where God has a place in our lives. We have to stop playing games. This 'I can't do anything' has got to end. We have just sat and gotten comfortable in our churches. God is moving in my life tonight because I know Jesus.

"Jesus was walking by the sea and he came across Sh'mon (Simon) and Andrew his brother casting their nets into the lake, for they were fishermen. He said, 'Follow me, and I will make you fishers of men.' He was quoting Jer 16:16. We have to have the right bait to catch the fish. When God calls you to do something, he means right now. He used Peter. He used simple ordinary people.

Anthony Bertsch preached as well before Pastor Michael Smith.

Pastor Linda Smith: 30 years as Pastor of Love of God Mission

"Who wants to do something for Jesus? People in the world don't care what the Lord wants, but Christians are afraid to preach the word. God has not given us a spirit of fear, but of a sound mind. The world is waiting on us. Have you invited anyone to church, or are you just chillin'?" Are you becoming a reprobate? If you tell the truth, people that don't want to hear the truth will be mad at you for telling the truth. You go to church to get the word, to get the bait for the fish.

"We get the power in the name of the Lord. So, what are we gonna do with that power. When you need to pray for someone, tell them to let you pray for them right then, not later so you forget. Jesus healed people. We have to start using that Holy Ghost power, that Dunamas, and destroy the enemy. Jesus is the same today and always. Get the right mindset. I can take back what the devil stole from me. You have to know what you have so you can demonstrate to the devil what he does not have. Shake off those chains. Stop talking about 'what the devil is doing to me.' Start talking about what the Lord is doing.

Study God's Word

By: Joyce Heard

Study God's word; it will make you strong.

It provides you strength to carry on.

Study God's word; it will give you light

So you will see clearly to walk upright.

Study God's word; it will give you peace.

In the midst of life's storms, your faith will increase.

Study God's word; it perfects your love,

So you are able to reflect godly character from heaven above.

Bible Knowledge

By: Mateo Raza

I am very moved. I have known for some time now that the Battlefield News is sent to many parts of the U.S. as well as other countries, especially in Africa. But I have recently discovered that an evangelistic ministry that goes to many parts of the world carries with it the Battlefield News. Especially in places where the Bible is not allowed, the Battlefield News, even old editions, is highly valued. It reminds me of how, in America, we take many of the things we have for granted, while people in other parts of the world are grateful for the kinds of things many of us throw away. It makes me more grateful for the things I have, and more importantly, it makes me thank our Great Creator for everything.

Let us review and look at the answers to the questions for the May issue:

They Heard Voices

1: Yochanan Bar-Zavdai (John the apostle). Rev 6:10

2: Eliyahoo (Elijah). I King 19:13

3: The Gerasene demoniac, who claimed the name Legion.

4: Leprosy. Luke 17:12-13

5: Eliyahoo (Elijah). I King 19:12

6: Barabba. Luke 23:18

7: Job. Job 38:1

8: An eagle. Rev 8:13

9: The heavens. Ps 19:4

10: Yochanan the Immerser (John the Baptist). John 3:29

Now let us get to the June questions:

2: Who heard a voice telling of the fall of Babylon?

3: Which gospel mentions the dead awakening to the voice of the Son of God?

4: What, according to Prov 1:20, lifts its voice up in the streets?

11: Which gospel tells of God's voice being heard while Yeshua was teaching his disciples?

12: Who heard the voice of Jesus many months after Jesus' ascension into heaven?

13: What epistle mentions an archangel's voice in connection with the resurrection of believers?
