He wants to deliver us from addiction and emotional bondage. There are 40 to 50-year-olds still trying to deal with it. The body of Christ has just as many issues as the world. ## On Prayer 55 Divine Intervention (Part Three)

By: Mozelle Davis-Weeks

"Gather yourselves together, yes, gather together, oh undesirable nation, before the decree is issued, before the day passes like chaff, before the Lord's fierce anger comes upon you, before the day of the Lord's anger comes upon you! Seek the Lord all you meek of the earth, who have upheld His justice. Seek righteousness, seek humility. It may be that you will be hidden in the day of the Lord's anger."

This is taken from Zeph 2:1-3, and it exhorts us to seek God and humble ourselves in order to escape his judgment.

Notice that the prayer must come before the decree: 1) before the decree is issued; 2) before the day passes like chaff; 3) before the Lord's fierce anger comes upon us; 4) before the day of the Lord's anger.

In the midst of judgment, we can find "pockets of mercy." When I first considered this concept I wondered if it was scriptural. Then, during an appointment with God, I came to the passage in Zephaniah quoted above. The Lord revealed that we can be hidden in the day of his anger. There is a hiding place in the midst of the anger of God – a pocket of mercy. Everything is not predestined, inevitable, and hopeless.

Maybe you will find a pocket of mercy. You can pray for the Lot in your life in today's S'dom. You can pray for you son who is overseas in the Armed Forces or your friend captured on an airplane by terrorist. You can say, "Maybe nobody else will get out, but I'm going to trust God and send his angels into the situation."

At the time that I found this passage, many American passengers were being held hostage on an airplane in Beirut. It appeared that they all would be killed, so I specifically prayed for god to send his angels. I felt faint while I prayed, as though I was in God's will doing spiritual battle. Now the matter is fully resolved. Some years ago, after the fact, I spoke to John Testrake, the captain of the TWA plane that was held. He confirmed that prayer definitely caused the release of the hostages. This miracle was a direct answer to intercession. These people were placed into a "pocket of mercy" as a direct result of prayer.

I do not believe that anything is inevitable or impossible. I believe that the Lord provides pockets of mercy in the midst of judgment, whether that judgment is God's or Satan's.

Mal 3:17 tells us of a separation to come: "'The y shall be mine,' says the Lord of Hosts, 'On the day that I make them my jewels. And I will spare them as a man spares his own son who serves him.'"

God is going to spare a certain group of people. Yeshua tells us in Luke 21:36 to "pray always that you may be counted worthy to escape all these things that will come to pass, and to stand before the Son of Man." You can be among those who escape. When judgment falls, God can say to you, "You are just like the diamond in my ring. You are my jewel. I am going to spare you as a father spares his own son."

The 10 Northern Tribes Again

By: Shane Haley

Ezekiel 37:16, "Moreover, thou son of man, take thee one stick, and write upon it, For Judah, and for the children of Israel his companions: then take another stick, and write upon it, for Joseph, the stick of Ephraim and for all the house of Israel his companions."

All agree that the above is an end-time vision. Simply stated, Ephraim and the ten northern tribes are one stick, while Judah (the Jews) is the other. As we look about us now, something wonderful is happening to both the Jews and the ten lost tribes, something we have been waiting to see for 2700 years:

Isaiah 11:13, "The envy also of Ephraim shall depart, and the adversaries of Judah shall be cut off: Ephraim shall not envy Judah, and Judah shall not vex Ephraim."

Shane Haley

Before the end, the Lord will take the stick of Ephraim, now in the real Church, and unite it with the stick of Judah, and we will be one stick in God's hand.

Ezekiel 37:19, "Say unto them, Thus saith the Lord God; Behold, I will take the stick of Joseph, which is in the hand of Ephraim, and the tribes of Israel his fellows, and will put them with him, even with the stick of Judah, and make them one stick, and they shall be one in mine hand."

It appears that God plans to make one stick (one people) of Israel and Judah again. He is going to heal the division between them and draw them together. Within this generation, the Christians will be united with the Jewish people, and we will be one people again. The Israel of God. Are we up to the task ahead? Of course not, but now that our hearts can be opened to who Ephraim and Judah are, we can just begin to see what our end-time roles will be:

Zechariah 9:13, When I have bent Judah for me, filled the bow with Ephraim, and raised up thy sons, O Zion, against thy sons, O Greece, and made thee as the sword of a mighty man."

Judah, now back in the Holy Land, will have only one true ally: Ephraim and the Gentile church. We are the only candidate left in the world for the title of "the stick of Joseph." The days when the United States was a trustworthy ally to Israel are swiftly passing, as our governmental leaders bend to the wishes of the Palestinian Muslims and dip Old Glory into the inescapable tar-pit of Islamic oil.

There is only a remnant of the real Church left in any western land now. As Scripture opens before us, we can see that the remnant may be from the lost tribes of Israel, whom Satan has always hated (Rev 12:17). Don't be lulled to sleep, folks. If the Lord doesn't provide a way of escape, physical persecution is close at hand for Christians everywhere:

Revelation 12:11-12, "And they overcame him by the blood of the Lamb, and by the word of their testimony; and they loved not their lives unto the death. Therefore rejoice, ye heavens, and ye that dwell in them. Woe to the inhabitants of the earth and of the sea! For the devil is come down unto you, having great wrath, because he knoweth that he hath but a short time."

"Oh thanks so much," Helen said, unwrapping a copy of Randy Alcorn's book titled Heaven. "I've heard many times how wonderful this book is. I can't wait to get started on it."

"You're more than welcome. That book is a spiritual blockbuster."

"So what do we have here?" Henry said. "Ah – it looks like you got me a copy of Lee Strobel's The Case for faith. But interestingly, I also have a copy of Richard Dawkins' The God Delusion. What's up with that? Dawkins is a world renowned Atheist."

"I think I sized you up pretty well," Jerry said. "I took a sort of spiritual analysis of you when we first met a few weeks ago. I figured that you might need to be intellectually stimulated by looking at opposing positions."

"That's very interesting."

Wade & Elisa Carey

"In your case, I think you should evaluate both ends of the spectrum of the Christian faith – from a man like Dawkins, who can't completely rule out that God exists, but who does every thing he can to lead others to believe otherwise; to Strobel, who builds his case for Christianity through various interviews with experts. I just thought you'd appreciate evaluating both perspectives."

"Thanks Jerry," Henry said sincerely. "You're a good man. Opinionated, but good."

"You're certainly welcome," Jerry said, winking. "And Megan, what've you got, young lady?"

Megan nodded. "My book is called, The Case for Christ, also by Lee Strobel. This is the same author as one of Dad's books."

"It sure is," Jerry agreed. "Mr. Strobel uses the same approach, but the books are actually different. Anyway, I just thought you might want to start your own investigation into the Christian faith. I hope that's okay."

"Oh, sure," Megan said. "It certainly is."

"One more thing," Jerry said. "I also have a wonderful study Bible for you folks. Unfortunately, I ordered it online too late, and it won't be here for a couple of days. Anyway, I'll bring it over when it does arrive. That way, if any of you has any questions, it'll be here to help."

"That's great," Helen said. "Thanks so much."

"Thanks, Mister Jerry, and Merry Christmas, Megan added.

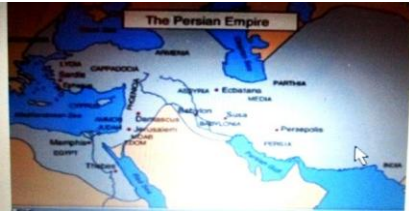

"And a very Merry Christmas to you, Megan, also, to your wonderful parents Henry and Helen. I hope the Lord richly blesses all of you on this holy day." After a few moments of comfortable silence, Helen announced, "Dinner is just about ready. Everyone go get washed up."

Prophecy from Esther

By: Herman Parks

Boy we are going to get you thinking today, because you are going to see something that absolutely shows you that the Bible is true. You know that there are many things in the Bible that we can just see on the top. But then you dig down deeper, you can see a lot of marvelous things. One of those things you are going to see today. We are looking at Iran. Jesus said watch the nations. Iran has such a long Bible history and a prophetic future. So now Iran became a part of the great Persian Empire. In fact, Shushan the palace that was the capital of the Persian Empire is in the book of Esther, chapter 1 verse 2.

Esth 1:1-4, "Now it came to pass in the days of Ahasuerus, (this is Ahasuerus which reigned, from India even unto Ethiopia, over a hundred and seven and twenty provinces:) that in those days, when the king, Ahasuerus sat on the throne of his kingdom, which was in Shushan the palace. In the third year of his reign, he made a feast unto all his princes and his servants; the power of Persia and Media, the nobles and princes of the provinces, being before him: when he shewed the riches of his glorious kingdom and the honour of his excellent majesty many days, even an hundred and fourscore days."

Persian Empire before Alexander the Great

So for six months he's throwing a big feast in the capital. From all over the Persian Empire the princes of the provinces have come up to the castle. The Persian king made a feast that lasted six months, and at the end of it he had a small feast that lasted seven days. They drank out of gold vessels and all kinds of things. At the end of that feast he ordered his wife Vashti to come forward and show her beauty. They were all drunk and she refused to go before them. Thus, he ordered her banished and sent her out of the kingdom resulting in, no more queen. Now he was going to look for a new Queen throughout all the vast Persian Empire. Seeking to find the most beautiful woman, he found a young maiden whose secular Hebrew name was Hadassah. Her sacred Hebrew name was Dosser. She had been brought up by her cousin Mordecai, and she became the queen of Persia. She was a beautiful woman. God wanted to use her. He needed a woman, and he needed her to be beautiful. So he equipped her.

So in one of the most fascinating accounts in the Bible is the saving of Israel, God used this little Hebrew girl. There was a man named Haman, and he was the Hitler of the day. He stood in prominence in the Empire. He was right next to the King. He was a descendent of Haggi. Do you remember Saul, who God told to kill all of the Hagrites, and he did not kill the King. There would have never have been a Haman if Saul had obeyed God. So Haman rolled through the streets and he asked that every body bow to him. He was such a proud man. One man who sat in the Kings gate was Mordecai the Jew, and he would not bow to somebody else. Haman was furious. He asked who that man was and why he would not bow. They told him that it was Mordecai, and that he was a Jew. So Haman said that I will destroy all the Jews. He offered to pay for it out of his own pocket. Through that vast Persian Empire he wanted to kill every Jew. He got carried away when he thought more highly of himself then he ought.

Herman Parks of Grace Glory School of Ministry

Mordecai learned of this plot, and he urged Esther to go before the king. Now at the time she was living in the Kings harem for the women. She said no. The King has not summoned me for 30 days. If you went before the king un-summoned, it meant death unless the king held out the golden scepter. So she was reluctant to go and everybody knows this statement of Mordecai. Esth 4:13-14. Mordecai was acting as a liaison between the house of the women and himself. "Then Mordecai commanded to answer Esther, Think not with thyself that thou shalt escape in the king's house, more than all the Jews. For if thou altogether holdest thy peace at this time, then shall there enlargement and deliverance arise to the Jews from another place; but thou and thy father's house shall be destroyed: and who knoweth whether thou art come to the kingdom for such a time as this?"

We all think about that in our own lives. That is a favorite quote. Esther, who knows, maybe you were in that place for such a time as this, and she was. We all think that about ourselves. I believe, and I want to think that you believe that we have come to the kingdom for such a time as this, to do God's will. Now I am going to read to you Esther 5:1. It says this differently in the King James. In the King James it says that Esther "put on her royal apparel" Her, and apparel, are in italics. That means it is not there. So the King James itself says that Esther put on Royal. But look at how the Jews who speak Hebrew translate that. This is in the arch scrolls.

Esth 5:1, "Now it came to pass on the third day of the fast and of Passover, Esther donned Royal and stood in the inner court of the king's palace facing the king's house while the king was sitting on his throne in the throne room."

Now here is what the Talmud says, now this is one of those comments that you are going to get at the bottom of the Scriptures. The word royalty refers not to clothing but to spiritual royalty. Esther put on the Holy Spirit. She was close with the wholly prophetic spirit. So Esther donned the Holy Spirit. She put on the Holy Spirit and she went before the king. Of course he stretched out his scepter to her, and she was able to go in.

Now remember Haman had a plan to kill all the Jews. He passed lots, the King James says, to come up with the date to do this on. You know he is superstitious and you have to get the right date. Those lots, the word for them is pur, p-u-r. So, plural is going to be purim, p-u-r-i-m. So he cast lots, called purim to come up with the day to kill all the Jews in all the land. He was so full of hate for Mordecai that he built a big gallows to hang him on. Now Esther learned of the plot, Mordecai learned of the plot, and God gave Esther a plot. She planed a big feast and she invited Haman. It is so interesting, you will enjoy going into the book of Esther and reading how she tricked him, and how he ended up. He had plotted against the King really. Now he ended up revealed, and on the exact day that he had picked out that he was going to hang Mordecai and kill every Jew in the land. He had people out there throughout that vast Persian Empire to kill every Jew on this certain day. He picked it because it was an auspicious day. On that day, guess what happened. They got killed and they got hang because it was revealed to the King all their skullduggery.

Now, let us look at of Esth 9:1. "Now in the twelfth month, that is, the month Adar, on the thirteenth day of the same, when the king's commandment and his decree drew near to be put in execution, in the day that the enemies of the Jews hoped to have power over them, (though it was turned to the contrary, that the Jews had rule over them that hated them):"

So, the Jews in verse five, smote all of their enemies, the king gave them the right to do so. So all of those who were going to kill the Jews, Jews you get the right to kill them. This is Esth 9:5.

Esth 9:5, "Thus the Jews smote all their enemies with the stroke of the sword, and slaughter, and destruction, and did what they would unto those that hated them.

Now it tells how many they killed. Listen and attentively.

Esth 9:6, "And in Shushan the palace the Jews slew and destroyed five hundred men."

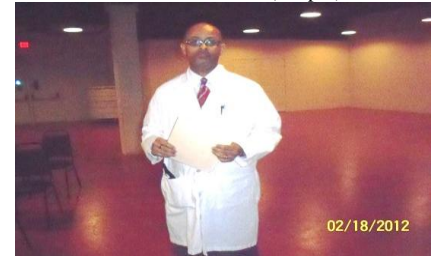

And they are going to list some names here. The names that they are listing are the ten sons of Haman, and so it lists them.

Esth 9:7-11, " And Parshandatha, and Dalphon, and Aspatha, And Poratha, and Adalia, and Aridatha, And Parmashta, and Arisai, and Aridai, and Vajezatha, the ten sons of Haman the son of Hammedatha, the enemy of the Jews, slew they; but on the spoil laid they not their hand."

On that day the number of those that (see pg 4)

Prophecy from Esther

were slain in Shushan the palace was brought before the king.

So they killed the 10 sons of Haman and they named them one by one, and they went to the King and they said, "this is who died." Then the king went to Esther and Said to her:

Esth 9:12, "And the king said unto Esther the queen, The Jews have slain and destroyed five hundred men in Shushan the palace, and the ten sons of Haman;" Did you get that? He said and here is who they've killed, they've killed 500 men right here in the palace and they've killed the 10 sons of Haman.

"What have they done in the rest of the king's provinces?" Here he is saying that throughout all the provinces there's no telling how many they have killed.

12 c, "Now what is thy petition? and it shall be granted thee: or what is thy request further? and it shall be done. Now get this in your mind: the king went to his beautiful wife, Esther, and he said they had killed 500 in the palace. They had hung the 10 sons of Haman. There is no telling how many they had killed out there in the provinces. Now what is your further request? Just tell me and I will do it. Now look at what Esther's further request is:

Esth 9:13, "Then said Esther, If it please the king, let it be granted to the Jews which are in Shushan to do to morrow also according unto this day's decree, and let Haman's ten sons be hanged upon the gallows."

Now he told her the 10 sons of Haman have been killed now what more do you want? Then she said, let the Jews do tomorrow what we have done today. And that the 10 sons of Haman be hanged. Well, they have already been hanged. What further do you want? Hang them in the future.

You see here, this is my green Bible. This is just the Tanakh, the Hebrew Bible, and I am going to show you a picture of one page out of that Bible. Now the Jews, the scribes, they really do not go so much by the printed Bible, although they do print their Bibles. What they really go by is those Torah scrolls that they keep at the front and the profits that they keep up in the area at the front. Those are done by scribes, and those scribes have to carefully write down each Hebrew letter from an older copy.

Every one of those Hebrew letters is a number. They come to the end of a line, they have a title and they have to put that number in and see that it mathematically matches. When God gave them the responsibility of keeping his word they kept it. Those scribes are very watchful. They have to do it exactly like it is done in the copy. Now here is a page out of the green Bible.

From the green Bible

This green Bible has it exactly like the Hebrews did it. As you see here, I want to tell you something about Hebrew letters. Hebrew letters are square and they take up a certain space on the line. Look here for instance. You can see here these all take about the same space. Each one of those is in individual letter. Yet they take about the same space on the line. These are the list of Haman's 10 sons that were hanged. These are their names. Over here on what you see on the left side it says and, then it gives their names. Now, those scribes that had been doing this for years and years, and they had to copy it exactly the right way, and Hebrew letters have to take up the right space on the page. There were some little letters. Some little letters that were not as large as the other letters. They had to write them down with their pen. They had to make them smaller. For instance, here at the top there is a siyn (pron seen). It looks like a tooth. That is in fact what it means, tooth.

So you see that letter here at the top, on the top row. But then we went down that row and we circle for you and put a red arrow, a little siyn. That little siyn is not as big as the other one. There are some other letters that are smaller. And we circle them for you. Scribes ever since the time of Esther have had to make those little letters smaller. They did not know why. Down here there is a little sheen, little I. They do not know what this means until it happens. So then, you have all heard of the Bible code, Dr. Eliyahu Rips is his name. I have this article that I got years and years ago, voice behind the word. It tells how the computer is used to trace Bible's divine source. Now you know that through repetition, counting certain letters, it has shown some secrets. Here is a secret. They finally found out what these letters mean. Actually they found that out some time ago.

She said I want the 10 sons of Haman, in the future, to be killed. You have heard of after World War II the Nuremberg trials. In the Nuremberg trials there were 11 Nazi criminals that were to be executed. But one of them took a cyanide tablet and killed himself. So 10 were left. When those 10 that were left were hanged, it was October 16, 1946. These little letters in the Hebrew dating system they spell out October 1946. Of course it is not going to be October, is going to be whatever their name of the month is. So year after year she said let those be killed in the future, and right there where their names are in the Bible, just exactly like this, it gives the date in these little letters, when the 10 sons of Haman are going to be hanged in the future. It was October of 1946 that they were hanged after the Nuremberg trials. So those 10 are considered to be the 10 sons of Haman in the time of Hitler, and the very dates.

Another strange thing that happened. When one of them went to the gallows, his name was Julius striker, he shouted out, "Purim." Purim is the day that years ago Haman was going to kill all of the Jews, but the Jews ended up killing Haman. Then the king said to Esther, what do you want in the future. Then Esther said that the 10 sons of Haman will be killed as they were today. In 1946 those 10 sons of Haman were killed, and the date was spelled out in the original Hebrew of the Bible. Even he thought that he was associated with Purim. That just tells you that the Bible is absolutely true. It has a divine source - the Lord. It is really something to know. The Bible in all of its depths, right on its surface are great truths, and we will find out lots more of these in the future. Esther had the exact date in the future, and she knew to ask for it. Remember, she put on the Holy Spirit. And the Holy Spirit told her, when she asked him what more do you want she asked for the 10 sons of Haman to be killed in the future. God, who sits on the hub of eternity, and looks down all the spokes of time, knew when those 10 sons were going to be hanged, and he put the date right in the Bible here for men to see. The Bible is the divine source. It is the word of God. Holy men of old wrote as they were moved by the Holy Spirit.

Eddie Cook of Unity on a Mission

Baptists stay over there and don't mix with the Holiness or the Pentecostals. The devil comes in and you have division. I found out that they believe in the same Jesus I do. Why am I afraid of that way of worship? I started backsliding and God told me to get back to church. Someone moved in next door to me. It was Robert Everett, who invited me to Unity on a Mission and the Lord started pulling me back to Him. I started going to the tent revival, the 7-day revivals, and Unity on a Mission and bringing people from other churches and other races. God said, 'Let's get them to these things and there will be a fire lit.'

Herman Parks of Grace Glory School of Ministry

"Rom 3:21-22, there was impartation of sin, then impartation of righteousness, and now impartation of faith - the faith of Jesus Christ. Everything he did, he did by his faith. And so we have his faith. Because you have his faith, you can do what he did."

Marty Starcher of Least of These Ministries

"Every 8 minutes someone commits suicide. It is usually alcohol or drug related. We have been cooking for the guys at Project Adam every month for 13 years. They come out of prison and month-by-month you see the light of Jesus come into their faces. Your testimony is so vital. Rev 12:11 says, 'And they overcame him by the blood of the Lamb and by the word of their testimony.' We have to share our lives, the time is short."

Daniel Gilstrap of D Earl Ministries

"I have missed y'all so much. I am here with my brothers and sisters tonight. I'm not speaking on unity tonight, so I'll just sing about it. The love of Jesus is so great that he doesn't have to say anything, he already did it all. He still wants to speak to us. He came at one of the toughest times. There was no air conditioning, no trucks, not Krispy Kremes. What a love. (see pg 6) have to start over and start our days over."

Occasionally, Mary Tate has a teaching class for the ladies in House of Hope to help them along their journey in life. Pastor Yvonne Dawson was the speaker for the class on one such night. The class was Recovering from Loss. All the ladies gathered around the table ready to learn.

"We have to learn how to command our day with prayer in the morning. Sometime we wonder if our day is ever going to turn around.

“Joel 2:25 says, “And I will restore to you the years that the locust hath eaten, the cankerworm, and the caterpillar, and the palmerworm, my great army which I sent among you.” God had to allow things to happen to the Israelite’s because of their sins. God sent a famine. Restoration is the act of renewal, of reestablishment. Restoration comes with repentance. Repentance means you’re sorrowful enough to quit what you are doing. Some of us are broken because we feel life has never given us a fair chance. If relationships aren’t right, we hurt each other. There has to be peace. If it takes your peace it will take your mind.

The director and administrator Mary Tate

“You have to allow God to come in and build you up. We, as women, cannot find fulfillment in things. We need God. It is so important to pray and command our morning. Matthew 6:14-15 says, ““For if ye forgive men their trespasses, your heavenly Father will also forgive you. But if ye forgive not men their trespasses, neither will your Father forgive your trespasses.” Forgiveness is very important in restoration and recovering from loss. You also have to forgive yourself as well as others.”

The ladies enjoyed the teaching class and learned much. Pastor Yvonne Dawson takes a lot of time with the ladies at Ms Mary’s House of Hope and she wants the best for them and Mary. Thank you, Pastor Yvonne Dawson.

Wisdom Missed (from pg 5)

First Lady of Living Hope Wanda Stevens

What does unity give us, give you? What do we gain by walking in unity? Dwelling in a state of unity we gain joy, peace, love, and contentment. This reminds me of Gal 5:22-23, the fruit of the spirit. God tells us to have unity in mind and in spirit, in love, in song, in sufferings, and unity in his death. Why unity in his death? It is because he died for each of us and we need his blood for our salvation. When we all said the pledge of allegiance, what feelings were released in you? Joy? Gladness? Feeling of unity? We, in unity, said the pledge. How about you? For one another? For God? On nation, under God, indivisible? At the count of three, shout the name of your church. Get anything? No, it was garbled. Now on three, shout the name of your savior. Get it? Yes.

“John 15:4, over and over in his word, the Lord tells us he wants us in unity with our brothers and sisters and with him. He wants us to produce much fruit. What do we gain? If we are in unity, together we can do great things in Christ, and reach more people for Christ.”

Dr Lorrie O'Neal of Anointed Hands

“If something is not birthed in prayer, it exists in the kingdom illegally. We have to ask what to pray. Why do we see no manifestation? It is because we are not praying his will. When we do, we will see manifestation. When you write, is the pencil glorified?

Rock Shunk of Unity on a Mission

“The Holy Spirit told me to tell the story of why we are all here. Most of you don’t know this, so I can tell you how I came to be in the Whole Body of Christ Alliance. I met Rick at a tent revival in Maysville. He said, ‘I’m Rick with the Battlefield News.’ I said, ‘I’m Rock with Unity on a Mission.’ He talked me into meeting with him in Winder. I don’t like Winder, but the Holy Spirit told me to go. I met with Rick, Missy Iler, and Ms Ellie. Ms Ellie spoke to me with her eyes. She told me that Rick had a lot doors slammed in his face, but he kept going. It is like a giant jig saw puzzle and God is putting it together. What I see is that we have all become friends because of working for unity. The Battlefield News is moving across continents because of one movement in obedience. Did I think my daughter Jody would get involved? No. She is all about business and production. There are very key people in this room and God has given us a big mission.

“At Unity on a Mission, the Holy Spirit told me to teach a Bible study. I found out that those who came were musicians and they were under attack. When we come under attack, we come together. Good leaders don’t whine, and don’t listen to whining. If we don’t stay in unity, we can’t make it. What is unity? It is one body with one head. If you speak the word of God, it is powerful.”

Tommy Jones of Unity on a Mission

“The Lord is good. He ministers to us love, life, peace, joy. He knows exactly what we need, when to shake, us and when to hold us close. This kind of presence makes me feel valued by the Lord. It also makes me feel this unquenchable desire to praise him. All that I am is because of all that he is. The Lord wants you to know who you are in him. He is saying to each of us tonight, ‘You are my son. You are my daughter.’ He wants to use us to be those who show his love. He has bound us together in unity – one heart, one mind, one spirit, one love – Jesus Christ. Is the Jesus you knew before your trials the same as the Jesus after the trials? He does not change; only your perspective of him changes. If you stay focused on him, everything around you will pale in significance.”

Kelli McCord

“The revival began on 7/17/17 – seven days to give us victory over the enemy. In unity we can do it, being in one mind, in one accord. Phil 2:1-3 tells us to be in one accord. In Act 1:13-14, They were in one mind, one accord, with their minds on the Lord. We must have our minds on our Lord, not on our differences. He said if we lift up his name, he will draw all men to him. Each one of us is made in his image, regardless of what we look like. He is trying to bring us together, regardless of denomination. We are in the last days; we must come together. Heaven is not divided into sections for the Baptists, the Presbyterians, the Pentecostals and the like. If God did not want us in unity, he would not have made so many scriptures about it, for instance Ps 133. Gangs get things accomplished because they are united. I love you tonight. 7/17/17 – complete victory in unity. Let’s turn up that power and focus on Jesus.

Pastor Bobby Jolley

“Ez 37, each one of us is a bone. We must be joined together into one body. God asked Ezekiel, ‘Can these bones live?’ Tonight we had a bone of music, then a bone of prayer, we had a poetic bone; Pastor Yvonne said this bone does not go over here and that one does not go over there. The driest bone of all stands before you. I don’t need your opinion, but God’s that I am doing the right thing. The only thing not a bone is communion; that is life. The bones can be joined together and still have no life. If we reject this unity, there is no life in us.”

Jeff Ortiz of NGR School of Ministry

“Unity is what Jesus prayed for, John 17:20-23. He did not want to go to heaven without us so he died for us. Jude says in V<sub>23</sub> to save some by fear. Unity is so important because God’s plan is to unite everything in Christ, a reflection of the very nature of God. The new birth is the basis of our unity in Christ. A body cannot be in disunity with itself. The secret of unity is in how we view ourselves.

Who Jesus says I am is who I am. How can we view others? Phil 2:3, selfish ambition is characteristic of unbelievers, not Christians. I Cor 3:3, 'For you are still carnal. For where there are envy, strife, and division among you, are you not carnal and behaving like mere men?' Eph 4:2, a humble man sees his faults in the light of Christ. He sees his own heart and the depravity. We are to see one another in the light of the cross."

Kareem Handfield of Kareem4Christ and his powerful & poignant testimony

"I grew up in the Nation of Islam. I needed a loving church to show me the way. I tried many things, but only Jesus filled that spot. My mom hooked up with the Nation of Islam n Chicago. We moved to Florida and things went down hill from there. My mom got into drugs and my step dad was a dealer. She is saved now. As a teen, I wanted to commit suicide, but I went to church and asked Jesus to save me and he did. He is my Lord. If you want to see a Muslim saved, you have to show him the love of Christ. After I was saved, I stopped rapping for about a year, but then I started writing Rap only for the Lord."

Pastor Joyce Heard of Athens Unity Fellowship

"In Ezekiel, God said, 'Can these bones live?' He told Ezekiel he just wanted him to prophesy. I prophesy there will be unity in the body of Christ. The lack of unity is the devil's scheme to destroy the church. If the devil keeps us fighting against each other, we are useless. We fall right into his scheme. If you are fighting me, the devil is out running free. The Devil is a liar; we will have unity. Your church will never move forward without unity.

"Over the years the body of Christ has not held hands very well. In 1865, the Baltimore American reported that the church was the 'fastest growing religious group in America, with 2.5 million Christians standing together.' At present, people don't want to go to church. About 1.5 million people claim to attend church regularly. Why? I believe it is because, over the years, the church had not maintained unity.

"Unity is U-N-I-T-Y, U N I Totally Yoked. John 17! I have five fingers, but only one hand. The five fingers can do much for the kingdom of God. The body splits over issues like worship style, communion style, the kitchen in the church building, whether to say 'Holy Spirit' or 'Holy Ghost,' When the division stop? The lack of unity is destroying the church. We must have unity for the Holy Ghost to come in so we can do the work.

"Eph 4:1-6, It is not about unity at Christ the King, or Athens Unity Fellowship, or Living Hope, but unity of the Spirit. How do we unify? Unity means oneness, of the same mind. It is not uniformity, but unity. We don't have to be like each other to be together.

"We are not even trusting the body of Christ. I have been going to an all-white church, but I am Pentecostal and emotional, but these folks do not even say amen. How can I visit there? I must come away from me. I must come away from my intellectualism and be filled with the Holy Spirit. How can I advance the Kingdom of God in this church? God has used me there. Unity is the will of God. I Cor 1:10, 'I plead with you, brethren, by the name of our Lord Jesus Christ, that you all speak the same thing, and there be no divisions among you.'

"We can't be in unity without the Holy Ghost. It's God's agenda; not mine. We are not supposed to be the Lone Ranger, doing our own thing.

"Work for unity, people; don't just be okay with it. There are seven keys: First, exemplify the righteousness and holiness of God. Walk in the Spirit and you will not be able to walk in the flesh. Second, walk in humility. Thirdly, be patient with one another. The fourth key is build one another up. The fifth key is live peacefully with one another. Sixth, submit to authority, and seventh, we must be connected or we can never fulfill the word of God."

Pastor Parker James of Hill Chapel Missionary Baptist Church

"There is an application that is critical to see the manifestation in the kingdom on earth as it is in heaven, Rom 14:1-15. I have been thinking much lately on this passage because I am from an all-white Presbyterian background, but I am now at a traditionally all-black Missionary Baptist church – Hill Chapel Missionary Baptist. When I came, the pastor asked me if I had a home church. I told I had been the pastor for 7 years at University Church. He said, 'But do you have a home church?' He was reminding me that I too needed pastoral care and inviting me. I told him we were looking for a place to fellowship while we get ready to open a new church. He said, 'Welcome home.'

"Paul was working toward this application through the entire letter. You claim to know Christ, yet you don't eat the same as your brother and you talk bad about him for it. He is one that Christ died for. Paul kept going to both Jews and Gentiles. He would talk to the Jews and say, 'oh by the way, I was also sent to the Goyim. They listened about Jesus before that, but at this point, they were ready to kill Paul. Jesus touched on something in Nazareth. There were many widows, but God helped the Goy widow. There were many lepers, but God only healed Naaman the Goy.

"Not only are we saved, but now we all belong to each other. God is building a cross-cultural kingdom manifested in love.

"The pastor told me, 'We are not about Hill Chapel; we are about the kingdom of God. I have a new spiritual father in Pastor Benjamin Lay. Jesus said anyone who does the will of my father is my father, my mother, my brother and sister. To find unity, we must be able to say no to the culture of the world and say yes to that of the church. These are not easy things to apply – easy to say, not easy to live. We have to find ways to not have monocultural churches but cross-cultural churches. Thank you Father that you have forged unity despite us."

"The Battlefield News tells people about unity when they are not in Church," Jody Bennett told the people at Smith Memorial AME Zion church. "I never heard anything about unity in my whole life in church. Then I met Herman and Rick and they showed me the scriptures. The Battlefield News goes where we cannot go to show unity. The importance is we are spreading the word. For instance, Jojo is a street preacher. (see pg 8) is a body of believers from many Christian congregations, denominations, and ministries that work together for unity in the body of Christ; not all under one pastor, but as individual organ systems in a single body. We seek unity in the body of Christ, not one world religion. As the Bible instructs us, we are to work together synergistically, not against each other, nor are we to be independent of one another. No organ functioning on its own will survive very long.

The Whole Body of Christ Alliance

If you wish to have an article published in the BATTLEFIELD NEWS or have a comment on anything you read in it, contact us. Your article may be published. Be sure to keep a copy of it since it will not be returned to you. Nor will you receive any financial compensation for it.

"Are you striving for people to see Jesus in you? Only God can give you that. Mary Tate told us not to lose our focus on the Lord. Pastor Parker James told us what unity is and said we are all family now. Are we seeing this unity? Rom 14:17, the kingdom is not what we eat or drink, but righteousness. We each need the harmony of the Holy Spirit. We are in a war that has a lot of casualties. We need that unity. We can win this war. We can't have it if we're not in the Holy Spirit. Self is the only thing that keeps us from living as brothers and sisters. God must be first, not somewhere down the list. This must not just be in church, but in everything. You want more love? You have to love more. You want more money? You have to give more money. We all need that closer walk. We all need to surrender totally, a little more every day. Political correctness? It is time to be biblically correct. If God said it, and I did it, deal with it. We need to be about the Father's business."

think, 'I know with 89 to 99% certainty that I am saved.' I Believe if you aren't one hundred percent certain that you have eternal life, if you aren't 100%. Don't let the devil steal that seed when you leave. If you don't know Christ, or whether you're going to heaven or hell, Jesus preached about this. Make sure! Tonight! Body of Christ, look up. That's where your hope is.

Encourage one another. God wants the church to love one another. 'Draw nigh (near) to me, and I will draw nigh to you,' as the scripture says. You have to make the first move and God will meet you. But it is you that has to make the first move.

God has been expelled from our schools and our homes. We need to set the guidelines under this umbrella. Sons and daughters, I see you're running the home. The truth is expelled from our churches. The devil does not belong in the church. Do what I do - stop at the doors and say, 'Devil, this is as far as you go.' If the devil is sitting next to you, turn and there say, 'You are not allowed in God's house.' You need the Freedom to hear the word of God, not worried about the food, so that you forget the word soon as you leave. People, the enemy is stealing your time. My ammunition is to follow Jesus, don't go with the crowd. God has been expelled from our personal lives.

Clarke Kesler & Friends sing from the Love Truck

There are 4 basics that we need to live by to restore God in our lives:

- 1: The word of God, the Bible
- 2: Prayer
- 3: Attending church or small group
- 4: Soul winning

I don't have much time to stay in the house of God these the last days. In my opinion, the Lord is near. I feel it coming, and in my 30-plus years of soul winning, I believe that, if you are not reaching out, then you need to put an evangelist in the forefront of your church or Ministry so that it won't die."

A luau, authentic as if in Hawaii, was held on 19 August. Authentic Hawaiian dishes were served along with chicken kabobs, rice, and pork smoked by Butch Magarian. It was hosted by many of Brother Pineapple's closest friends and family. The Love Truck was present, along with Clarke Kesler and Friends, who sang gospel music. Brother Pineapple, of course, also preached the Word. A special appearance by Moses (Jim) himself came at the end of the evening to thank everyone who attended and pray over them.

the instruction is up to us. Anytime a leader gives us instruction, if it lines up with the word of God, we need to follow those instructions. When we follow the instructions of our leaders and become submissive, God will always promote us. Faith without works is dead."

Skeeter Hindman was the first singer

The first singer was Skeeter Hindman he opened with I Am A Nobody Who Came To Tell Somebody About Jesus. Two of the singers had cancelled for the night due to sickness, and God sent Skeeter to fill in. He was truly the ram in the bush. He shared his testimony, how he was cleaning a swimming pool and a furnace blew up. It burnt him such that all the skin fell off his arms. They took him to the emergency room, and as he was being rolled down the hall, he saw a bright light. It was God, who said, "It is not your time to go yet." He was burned over 60% of his body. The doctor stated that it was one of the worst burns he had ever seen, and that Skeeter would probably be in the hospital for eight months. He spent a total of 21 days, and had no skin grafts. God healed him. He wasn't saved at the time, but God saved him and gave him a song, I Faced a Mountain, Sometime It Takes a Mountain.

“People say, ‘I found the Lord last night,’” Jerry said. “He was never lost. God saves people because he has something for them to do. Sometimes we take people for granted and we don’t miss them until they are gone. One of our jobs on earth is to act like Christians. Try to have a little compassion. We don’t know what they have been through. God didn’t put you in a job to allow you to let your habits keep you from being your best. If I have a habit, it is going to be Jesus. If I have a hang-up, it will be him. If I want to get high, I will leave that up to God’s Spirit; he takes me to heights. He will never let me down.”

It was an incredible night.

one whose sandal strap I am not worthy to stoop down and loose. I baptize you with water, but he will baptize you with you with the Holy Spirit.

Greg Brockman and the food

Brother Dexter sang a capella

“Jesus was baptized by John, who saw heaven open and the Holy Spirit come from heaven and the voice of the Father said, ‘You are my son. With you I am well pleased.’ For 40 days he fasted and was tempted by Satan. Angels attended him. Our example, which is Christ, why would he need to be baptized? Why was it necessary for him and us?

Prayer over people

“First, John the Baptist in the river of Jordan was immersing them in the river, not sprinkling them. If it was good enough for Christ, then it’s good enough for me. Secondly, the very thing Jesus did before he began his ministry was get baptized. He gave three years of real ministry. He knew no sin, but still he recognized the need for the symbolism of washing away the old man – death, and new life - resurrection. Thirdly, the spirit descended upon him, heaven will open and angels will be watching in pure joy. These are the moments believers live for. We can’t make this journey without the Holy Spirit. I can’t emphasize enough that water baptism and the Holy Spirit we need on this Earth. We are in the wilderness. We need the power of God to help keep us going. Acts 2:38- 39 repent and be baptized and you will receive the gift of the Holy Spirit - you and your children. In the name of the Father, the Son, and the Holy Spirit, assuredly I will be with you till the end.”

Sam, Jody & the girls

Three people made one of the most important decisions of their lives to seal their commitment with the Lord. Pastor Billy Angel and Pastor Greg Brockman tread through the cool water to baptize Dash Adrianna Brockman-Moore, Jeremiah Jackson Ladon Brockman and Braxton Fricke. After the demonstration of their faith, both pastors baptized one another. Everyone enjoyed yummy grilled hamburgers and hotdogs and ice cold watermelon. It was a glorious day.

pruning - to reduce something by removing things that are not necessary. Jesus is the great physician; with precision he cuts out the resentment, bitterness, anger, selfishness, self-centeredness, arrogance, pride. Anything that is not of the Spirit he will cut out of our lives.

“‘Abide in me and I in you.’ To abide means to remain in union, maintain a living communion, unbroken fellowship. Have we ever thought about how much trust and reliance we place in our cell phones and computers?

‘I am the vine; you are the branches, whoever abides in me and I in him, bears much fruit, for apart from me you can do nothing.’ We tend to rely on devices more than on our creator. What if we stayed plugged in and connected to our creator with the same enthusiasm, the same dedication, reliance, and trust that we give these small plugged-in know-it-alls? Would we not have the most amazing life if we started our days supercharged in the Lord?

“I’m talking about the connection that is always reliable, the one that is never subject to error, that never breaks down, or loses it’s power. I’m talking about the highly functional, trustworthy, super intelligent, miraculous kind of connection that can never fail.

“God is the power source, and with us as the branches stemming from the vine, we are plugging into God and becoming fully functional as a result. Stay fully connected to the divine love and wisdom of our heavenly Father by wholeheartedly trusting in him. By praying, reading his word and by following his deep and divine purposes for our lives, we stay connected to him, worship him, and surrender our days to him. For truly without him we can do nothing, we are nothing. Like a branch pruned from the vine, it will surely die. Stay connected to God and live.”

Ashley Bonds provided the music. "The kingdom of life is here. We can do this anywhere. We should shake the foundation of our God. Praise him. We are to be the salt and the light, let your light shine so that it glorifies God!"

Pastor Bobby Jolley prayed over the offering. "We have a savior he has a plan for our lives, to bring them back to victory, a plan to succeed. Let us not give sparingly. Lord, help us this day to pursue the ones you love, help those that are sent, those that are going: to be about their Father's business."

hiding your testimony, and that blockage causes you to hide from helping somebody heal. There are blockages that we have in our heart, and in order for all the parts to have oxygen, we must let the blood flow. The blood of Jesus is trying to get through our heart. The enemy keeps us bound. The woman at the well had secrets. They were not known or seen. All of them are not meant for us to know. We hide what we have blocked out, maybe all the way from our childhood. It's okay to go back to find the root. John 4:29 is a familiar story. Jesus is not a respecter of persons. Don't let people dictate your actions or sway you. He offered her a drink, but she had no idea who Jesus was. He stopped by to heal her. Jesus knew so much about her. We have all kept secrets and he still loves us. The woman at the well was amazed the drink he was offering her was going to heal her. We get that same drink. I want to see it heal you. Water can permeate. I feel like somebody needs to get rid of a deep-rooted problem deep down inside that nobody knows but Jesus. Jesus broke tradition because if a man came across a woman without her husband, he was not to speak to her. And in John 4:7, he asked for the water. It was intentional. Tonight is intentional. I entitled this sermon No More Secrets. He wants to bring it back. The well has to have maintenance. He is ready to let this stuff go, he wants more than a body on Sunday. The devil might've told you that you have no use, but you are probably packed with power. The enemy is trying to stop the blood from flowing. We have to understand that Jesus still loves us. He knows all the things you've been through. He understands. He wants to heal you. He has a mighty work to do."

More personalized prophecy

September 6th 2017 Yvonne Dawson was the main speaker at the Kingdom Life Refuge Revival which was originally going to be a Tent Revival, but due to unforeseen circumstances, was moved to the sanctuary in Commerce Georgia.

Pastor Dawson gave a prophetic word to many of the congregation individually. She prayed for healing and restoration, as well as prayed off the spirit of pride and rejection from two ladies. Dustin Bonds also gave Pastor Dawson a prophetic word, "the Harvest has come and it's going to shock you and you aren't about the numbers. You've been faithful with little and you will move in signs and wonders."

Pastor Billy Angel closed with, "He who sows and he who reaps shall rejoice together in supernatural harvest. The fields are ripe, it's up to us to love and break the chains. But if we don't go out there and tell somebody, then what good are we doing? God is still God! He still wants to heal us, take that anger from us and the wrath away. If you ain't healed, you might need to look for another church, because we're supposed to be helping people and healing people and that's what our mission is here.

Pastor David Foster of Living Free Ministry closed the service in prayer with a final word, "The Harvest is plentiful but the laborers are few."

You have been selected as a contributor for Leaving Our Legacy

A Snippet of my chapter in Leaving Our Legacy
 I am the 4th generation of my mother's bloodline and this line has been cursed until now. God has been faithful and true to His word in Exodus 20:5-6. My journey, However, began before I was formed in my mother's womb. God said he knew me and he had a good plan for my life. He had a plan for my family, and on 18 Feb 1980, he began allowing the external environment around me to shape, make, and mold me into the leader he had chosen me to be. He caused my bad to work together for my good. Generational curses are real! In my chapter in this anthology it is entitled From Pain 2 Purpose, and I take you on a journey of self discovery through one of the darkest seasons of my life. It was full of suffering, but through my pain I discovered my purpose.

Colossians 3:15, NLT

By: Marty Starcher

Marty Starcher

The Greek word translated rule in this verse means "to umpire." The apostle Paul says that we should let the peace of Christ be the umpire in our lives. An umpire keeps the peace. He makes sure the game is played in a smooth and orderly fashion. God wants to give us an internal umpire who will keep us at peace even when everything seems chaotic. Only as we submit to Christ's control and authority can we experience spiritual peace. We may think all we need to do is to get away, but that is not true. We can't run away to get peace. It won't come from divorcing our spouse, giving our kids up for adoption, changing jobs, or living as a hermit on the backside of nowhere. Only when we submit our internal world to the lordship of Christ will we experience peace. If we really want God's peace, we should ask for it. A psychiatrist was quoted in the newspaper as saying that he could not improve upon the apostle Paul's prescription for human worry. Paul wrote, "Don't worry about anything; instead, pray about everything. Tell God what you need, and thank him for all he has done. Then you will experience God's peace, which exceeds anything we can understand. His peace will guard your hearts and minds as you live in Christ Jesus" (Phil. 4:6-7). Notice the order: first prayer and then peace. A cause-and-effect relationship exists in this prescription. Prayer is the cause; peace is the effect. If you and I are not praying, we're likely to be worrying. And worry is such a useless emotion and activity. Worry is the opposite of peace; they cannot coexist. Worry, like a pressure cooker, builds up our internal pressure with negative emotions and concerns. Prayer, on the other hand, functions like a safety valve. When life's stresses become too great and we feel like we are about to explode, prayer releases the stress and frustration. Everyone needs an unconditional listener to unload on and a fair umpire to call the game. In God we have the perfect embodiment of both roles. We can dump on him and know that he will not get stressed out by what we tell him. We can be confident that he will bring order and calm to our daily lives.
