On Prayer 71 Intervention by Angels (Part Three)

By: Mozelle Davis-Weeks

The third concept is that angels are unemployed. They are waiting to be called into action. In Emporia, Kansas, a sign in a church says, "Unemployed angels; please pray." The angels are waiting for us to pray. Much more is going on in the heavenly realm than we realize.

For example, in the garden of Gethsemane, Yeshua said, "Put your sword back in its place... Do you think that I could not call on my Father and he will provide me with more than 12 legions of angels?" (Mat 26:52-53).

In the time of Yeshua, each Roman legion contained over 6000 men. Twelve legions would, therefore, be well over 72,000 angels. He could've called them to prevent his crucifixion. Jesus died for one reason: he chose to. He loves you.

Between the Old Testament and the New Testament, there are almost 600 passages about angels. We will now consider seven of those passages.

Heb1:14 is a pivotal example: "Aren't all angels ministering spirits sent forth to minister for those who will inherit salvation?"

Angels are servants to the body of Christ. Think about that for a moment. They are to serve us. The Greek word here for "minister" is diakonia. It is the same word used in other places in the New Testament to mean "deacon" or "servant." Angels are deacons that are there to serve you and me.

This verse says that all angels are ministering spirits. I believe that there are trillions of angels – "innumerable angels" – existing to serve us.

Many people do not like to think of angels as "spirits," lest they confuse them with the Holy Spirit or Ruakh Hakodesh. Since angels are created beings, they are on a lesser level than the Holy Spirit. They are referred to as spirits because they do not always exist in a bodily form. Do not stumble at the phrase "ministering spirits." Instead, meditate on the fact that there are trillions of angels waiting to attend to your prayers.

Notice the future tense: "Those who will inherit salvation." I want to emphasize this. Each one of the innumerable angels are ministers to come to the assistance and aid of every Christian. Angels are the servants of the heirs of salvation.

We do a lot of talking about binding demons, but what do we loose? We loose angels. We loose angelic help.

I had a vision during a worship service. While looking at a family that was having marital problems, I saw an angel of God wrapping the husband and wife up in his wing – like someone would roll a cigarette. He rolled them together so tightly that nothing else could get into their relationship and they could have no affections for anyone else. Then I saw the angel take his other wing and hold off demonic principalities, powers, and forces.

I stepped to the microphone and began to prophesy the vision. The family did not go through a divorce! Then I began to pray in this manner for marriages. I prayed for eight marriages in this way. In every instance these marriages were revitalized.

I have seen miracle after miracle when angels are loosed and intervene in people's lives. Remember, since angels are not independently sovereign, they will only do God's will and enforce his purposes. But we can pray and ask God to send an angel to intervene.

Do you know someone who is backslidden? Pray specifically that God will put an angel's wing between that person and his sin, depression, or discouragement. Prayer puts angels in action to intervene in people's lives – at home, in church, on the job, and in school.

Garage and Shed

"Mind if I join you on your walk?" Jerry asked Henry from his open garage. Henry had just landed on the sidewalk, heading toward Memorial Drive. "It's a little chilly out," Jerry continued, but I can really use some exercise tonight."

"You bet," Henry said, sporting a red jogging suit and a knit cap, ready for his two-mile walk. "I'm glad you caught me before I really got going."

"Me too. I'm also glad we have that gorgeous sun setting behind us right now. It should keep things lit rather nicely."

"That's actually chose this time to go walking. "Good deal."

"You know what?" Henry said. "Now that I'm thinking about it, right after our walk, why don't you join us tonight for our traditional Irish Dinner? I'm sure that Helen and Megan would love to have you over on this chilly St. Patrick's Day."

"Sounds good to me!"

"I do hope you like bangers and mash. That's what we're having."

"Who doesn't like sausages and mashed potatoes?" Jerry asked, walking up his inclined driveway. He joined Henry on the sidewalk.

"Also Megan made some green cupcakes for dessert – our annual practice on this holiday. It has actually turned into a nice family tradition that started way back when she was a little girl."

"That's interesting. Why green cupcakes?"

"Oh she bakes colored cakes and whatnot to line up with the various holidays. I'm glad she still likes our little tradition."

"Green cupcakes it is!" Jerry exclaimed. "Oh, and before we get going, you should know this: It's time!"

They both started walking up the hill, towards Memorial Drive.

"It's been a whole month and a half, Jerry. I was beginning to think you had forgotten about our little deal."

"Of course not. After discussing evil and sin for the first two months, I wanted to let that sink in a little; you know, before we went any further. Those are some pretty heavy topics, you know."

"I can't argue with that. I've been giving all of it a lot of thought."

"Good. Can I assume, then, that you've been doing some independent study on these subjects?"

"Actually, I have," Henry said, exhaling regularly as they walked. The amount of information on the internet makes it easy to check-out and research spiritual things as they come to mind."

"I think the internet is a wonderful resource," Jerry agreed. "But of course, you always need to examine both the source and the intentions of whomever it is that's doing the posting."

"What do you mean?"

"Unfortunately, the internet has allowed every whacko to have a voice. Also unfortunately, those voices are not from God. In fact, I'm afraid that many times, they're from God's opponent."

"Who – Satan?"

"Yes, the Evil One and his army of demonic evil spirits."

Mammon or Revival

By: Greg Brockman

During the seven-day revival of January 2019, Greg Brockman was scheduled to be the key note speaker one night. He was so sick with the Flu that he could not even get out of bed. I could understand that since I had been in the same situation only weeks before. Of the important speakers of the January revival, the flu claimed seven people.

Fortunately, however, Greg Brockman sent his sermon so we could at least read it.

Rick

Greg Brockman of North Ga Revival Outreach

Early on a Saturday morning in 2018 I was on my knees before the Lord. What seemed to continually come out of my mouth was "Lord I know I'm not worthy but ..." Then I would make a request for my children, for revival, for our nation, for my family or whatever was coming to my spirit at that moment. As I continued to pray, the focus of my prayer became the Holy Spirit. "Lord, I desire your Spirit!" "Lord you said to ask for your Holy Spirit and I'm asking for your Holy Spirit!" After I had poured out my heart and quietly waited, I heard this: "A son does not ask his father for bread because he is worthy; A son asks his father for bread because he is hungry."

I have studied revival for over 20 years, and when the Lord quickened that to my spirit, I immediately recognized that common trait: hunger. Great revivals have come and emblazoned men and women of God who were in no way qualified. They weren't great preachers; they weren't great teachers, but they did have this one trait: hunger. One of the greatest revivals in modern history came to Wales in the early 1900's. It came through a 26-year-old coal miner named Evan Roberts. Why? Was it because he was a great orator? No, he had never preached a sermon. Was it because he owned a successful business? Not hardly, he worked in the filthy coal mines. There were great men and women of God in those days that God could have used. There were Pastors with large successful churches and large congregations, but in less than three weeks time Evan Roberts went from being an unknown parishioner to being the most famous man in Wales. Suddenly, this man, who was unknown and unqualified, was seeing crowds gather and was preaching to some of the most famous preachers of his day. I submit to you that the main qualification this man had was that he was hungry. You ask what evidence I have. Only this: Evan Roberts did not miss a prayer meeting in his local area for 13 years. He was only 26 when the Welsh Revival began, so for half of his life he was faithful to attend every single prayer meeting in the area where he lived.

The problem we have is not hunger; we are hungry enough; we're just hungry for all the wrong things. We're hungry for more and more earthly treasure! We are not desiring the treasure that Jesus mentioned in Mathew 6:20, "...where moth and rust does not corrupt..." We are consumed with earthly treasure! We in the church continually judge one another on how we are dressed, on what we drive, on the kind of house we live in or on our latest technology. We have come so far from the truth that, in the church, we actually believe that to have money means that we are the blessed by God. Commonly, we tout that we are "tithers" and that we give, and therefore, God blesses us. All the while, we do not realize that even the ungodly give away money and there are many ungodly who are blessed with great financial wealth.

In Matthew 6:24 Jesus warned that no man can serve two masters. Jesus warned that it is impossible to serve God and mammon. Mammon means not just money, but the deification of wealth – worshipping money as a god. In the case I am speaking of, it is the earthly economical system. Yet, Christians commonly chase after money as if it were their god. "Tithers" commonly brag about their tithing and do not realize that we are called to a higher standard. In I Cor 16:2 the standard is set forth for us to give as God has prospered us. Why then do we only give 10%? I submit to you that the vast majority of the church in America has become a covetous people that only give out of our abundance. We gladly tithe and believe for God's blessing but we know nothing of real sacrifice. Jesus warned the rich man. Repeatedly, the rich are warned throughout the scriptures. Mat 6:19, Lay not up for yourselves treasures upon earth. When we become truly hungry for the things of God it is then that we will see that mighty outpouring we have been praying for. We must, however, desire the true riches, the true manna from Heaven. We must not settle for worldly wealth, worldly esteem, worldly status, which only shows our own lack of spiritual understanding! God give us the grace to become a people that are hungry – hungry for you. Give us the grace to become a generation of spiritual Levites, whose inheritance is not in the world, but is the Lord!

Children of Tender Love

By Jody Bennett

In Jinja, Uganda is the Tender Love Orphanage administered by Mr Dominic Mugagga. There are a precious few people in the alliance who help support these children. The Battlefield News brings you closer to some of those children and urges you to call the Battlefield News if you will do even the smallest thing to help them – (706)499-7976.

Lubanga Jimmy

Jimmy's father died when Jimmy was an infant and he was left in the care of his mother Noame, who ran mad a few years down the road. She is currently undergoing therapy in a mental rehabilitation center. Jimmy came to our home asking for something to eat because he was hungry and living on the street. He shared his story, which we verified. We also visited his mother in the rehabilitation center. He is now in our care. We provide his shelter and education.

Jimmy

Jimmy's birthday is 9 April 2002 and he enjoys physicals, and gymnastics; he is in the senior one class, and aspires to be an engineer.

Mukasa Edrine

Edrine was born on 12 May 2007. His father passed away when he was still a tiny baby. He and his brother Trevor were abandoned by their mother, who remarried. Edrine and Trevor were raised by their grand mother, who could not afford to feed them. We met Edrine during our Resurrection Day Community Celebration, where we learned the story of Edrine and Trevor and were compelled to intervene in their situation. Edrine and Trevor have been with us since 2015 and are enrolled in school. Edrine is in primary four, enjoys dancing and football. He aspires to be a mechanic.

human nature to separate into groups of people that are like ourselves.

A man once had a vision, and in this vision, he was in a prison yard. He saw everyone in the yard separated into groups. All the older white men were in a single group. All the middle-aged white men were in another group. All the younger white men were in a third group. The black men were separated in much the same way, as well as the Hispanics and other groups of men. The women were separated into racial and age-related groups as well. Within each of these groups, the people searched diligently within their own groups to find the slightest difference in some one. Then they would attack that person physically. This describes the body of Christ the way we are now. This must stop immediately!

We must be aware of the fact that not all the Lord's people believe exactly the same things we do. If you sat any two people in a given church down at a table to talk about doctrine, sooner or later, they will disagree. We disagree often. So what? I don't have to agree with everything my brother says or believes about scripture for him to be my brother. In the WBCA, what can we do about this?

On the WBCA website, Battlefieldnews.net, we see eight tenets that everyone in the alliance agrees upon. These are the only things we need to agree on:

1: Humans are born with a sin nature. All have sinned and are deserving of eternal damnation, unfit for heaven. (see pg 4)

Evil gods in Athens and in Georgia cannot stop you. This time it will work. Do the thing God has placed in you. This time it will work. We must not allow our past failures to keep us from it. Paul said, 'Old things have passed away; all things are new. As for this time, it will work.'

"In Gen 26, Isaac decided to dig the wells of his father. He did not give up. There is greatness inside you crying for expression. Let it out. The Philistines covered up all the wells Isaac uncovered. They were demonic assassins like those

"Welcome. We came from Dunwoody in 2013 and God led us to Athens. We had no anointing oil, so we stopped at Publix to get some. We went where the GPS took us and we poured oil right here at this place. Much later my wife got a job close by and she reminded me that this was the place I poured the oil in 2013. Starting a church is not easy, but if you trust in the Lord, he will make a way where there is no way.

"How is it that the homosexuals have so much control in this country? They are only 2% of the population. If you don't have money, you have no voice. You are still a renter. The government only listens to property owners.

"Pastor Isaac and Triumphant Life: as for this time, it will work. Pastor Isaac will not give up; he will press on. He will not pray prayers of fear, but of faith. Faith is the form of praise. Without faith it is impossible to please God because he is a rewarder of those who diligently seek him (Heb 11:6). Mat 10:41, sow a seed in the prophet and your life will be blessed. This time it will work. This year you will not bury anyone and they will not bury you. Triumphant Life will bear fruit. Angels will tell people to go to Triumphant Life and strangers will walk into this place. By this time next year this place will be too small. All the years you thought you were wasted God will give you. This time it will work."

Valentine Poem

In 1991 thirteen-year-old Manuel wrote this poem for his mother on Valentines Day. Manny was a wonderful son. He was gifted, precocious, witty with a wonderful sense of humor, loving and giving. He was saved at eight-years-old, loved the Lord with all his heart, and knew the Bible better than most teenagers. When he was seventeen, he went home to be with the Lord. His mother shared this poem with BFN. We present it to you now for Valentines Day.

You ask me how much I love you.
 That's something you shouldn't ask.
 I would perform a thousand miracles.
 I'd take on any task.
 I'd make all time run backward.
 I'd take on the world with a spoon.
 I'd hijack a ship and go into space
 And bring you a piece of the moon.
 I can build you a forest with half of a seed.
 I'd give you the world in a box.
 I'd conquer the stars,
 Bring them all home in jars,
 And squeeze honey out of the rocks.
 I'd go to each country and grab all their bombs
 And tie them in a really big net.
 I'd throw them all into the sea
 Because bombs won't work when they're wet.
 When finally I can take a rest
 And all of this is done
 I'll kidnap some birds,
 Fly way up high,
 And bring you a ray of the sun.
 I'm afraid I must be honest
 But do not tell this please.
 I could not take a half of a seed
 And grow you a forest of trees.
 Even though it pains me to say
 All these things I cannot do.
 But it does not take away
 From how much I love you.
 I hope you didn't expect me
 To do all the things that I said.
 Why then, I should lift up buildings
 Using the top of my head.
 Now, let's be realistic, Mom.
 Moving mountains is pretty hard.
 So I'm afraid on Valentines Day
 I got a pretty card.

Grasping Unity in Diversity

2: Yeshua Jesus is the Messiah, the spotless Lamb of God and is in fact, God.

3: Messiah was conceived by the Holy Spirit and born of a virgin (Miryam or Mary).

4: Messiah died on the cross for your sins and mine.

5: Almighty God the Father raised him from the dead on the third day.

6: Messiah will return for his bride, the church, at the appointed time of the Heavenly Father.

7: The Holy Bible is completely trustworthy, for it is inspired by the Holy Spirit Himself.

8: Blatant sin is intolerable and the church must never tolerate it among its own.

These we all agree on, and as long as a believer agrees with these tenets, whether we worship the same way, baptize the same way, pray the same way, whether he speaks in tongues or not, whether or not he understands about the five-fold ministry or not, he is my brother in Christ, and I will give my life for him if need be.

I will not quibble with any of my brothers and sisters in Christ over doctrinal issues. They do not believe exactly as I do – almost none of them, but my God is their God and he loves them the same way he loves me.

People, it is time to do the work. It is time to stop talking about it and do it. It is time to get up and show up. It is time to pray as we have never prayed before. The prince of this world is coming. Let us all be able to say as Jesus said in John 14:30, 'He has nothing in me.' Do not let the enemy look at you and see anything of himself, but only of the Lord."

"Can God trust you to deliver the goods? God said in Genesis, 'Let there be light.' Jesus said in John 8:12, 'I am the light of the world. Who ever follows me will never walk in darkness, but will have the light of life.' He is the light. What are you looking for? If there was a light bulb inspection, would you pass? Rev 21:23, the Bible begins with light and ends in Revelation with light.

"How do you keep the light shining? I recommend you read God's word and pray. Prayer is a conversation. If it's only you speaking, it's not a conversation. Be sensitive to the Lord's leading, his guidance. When you fast, you're telling God he is important to you. Wherever God sends you, he expects you to tell them about him."

The Whole Body of Christ Alliance is a body of believers from many Christian congregations, denominations, and ministries that work together for unity in the body of Christ; not all under one pastor, but as individual organ systems in a single body. We seek unity in the body of Christ, not one world religion. As the Bible instructs us, we are to work together synergistically, not against each other, nor are we to be independent of one another. No organ functioning on its own will survive very long.

If you wish to have an article published in the BATTLEFIELD NEWS or have a comment on anything you read in it, contact us. Your article may be published. Be sure to keep a copy of it since it will not be returned to you. Nor will you receive any financial compensation for it.

Most things in this 97th edition are not copyrighted material. All ministries are encouraged to reproduce all or any part of it for God's purposes.

If the WBCA has not contacted your church or pastor, and your body of believers would be included, we will get to your church eventually, but don't wait until next year. The Lord may come for his bride before that. Contact us.

Government Shutdown

though we come to church every day. God cannot move in doubt. We suffer with the demon of double-mindedness and wonder why we are suffering.

“Over the last 29 or 30 days, there has been a shut-down. Everyone placed their trust in a wicked government. Is 9:6 says, ‘and the government’ - the government, not a government – ‘will be on his shoulders.’ You are not part of this wicked government. Know that ideas do not die. This is what formed the government of today. If your skin is lighter than mine, you are better than me. Right? That is a doctrine of demons. Don’t think that making America great again is the same thing. The wicked government of the world is not where you belong.

“Jer 29:4, we think that because we are part of this country, we have to accept the evil. The same ideology took people and hung them from trees a few years back. It’s not bad; it’s evil. The same sin will do it today if we allow the ideology of the evil government to come in. You are carried away captive if you are a blood-bought Christian. The world hated Jesus; they will hate you. This government has taken prayer out of schools, you cannot say Jesus there and you are gonna ‘make America great again?’ I tell you this because I love you. What can the world give the body of Christ when we have everything? You are in exile because you are in this world, not of it. Go ahead, have children, plant gardens, have success, but do not come under the wickedness of the government system.

“The kingdom of Heaven is a government. Jesus came with an invisible government to give to an invisible people. The kingdom of Heaven is at hand. Repent! I have never seen the church as divided as I have in the past two years. A white bishop said the blacks don’t like him because he supports Trump. I say no, it’s because you’re not like Jesus.

“These so-called churches have no power. What do you call a government that does not work? It is in shut-down. That is what we have in the church – a government shut-down.

“Acts 1:4 says not to leave Jerusalem. We are leaving Jerusalem too soon. We cannot unite the kingdom of God if we don’t understand the kingdom of God.

“It rained today; yet there are still people here. You are the primary candidates for the movement of the kingdom. You defy the very government that was placed in your baby bottles. Father, what can we do to become a part of this invisible kingdom you are setting up? Acts 1:5-8, the only thing you have to worry about is receiving power.

“Being nice and cozy – comfortable is great if you are going to sleep, but the world comes and tells you that you can’t say the name of Jesus, or wear a T-shirt with his name, it is no longer comfortable. You will not teach my child about Steve and Sam. It is the invisible kingdom. A DNA test may tell you that I am white. This happened to my daughter.

There’s a black Adam and Eve and a white Adam and Eve. Right? What a lying government that put that there. They say, ‘Mr. Church, you’re not supposed to judge.’ The devil is a liar. That is one of those stupid thing the world says because they think they understand the Bible when they do not. There is a book in the Bible called, ‘Judges.’ The world is no longer afraid of the church. They force the pastor to marry two men together. They say the people can pray to Allah, but you cannot say the name of Jesus. We need to go back to Jerusalem – go back to the upper room and seek the holy Spirit until we receive power.”

(Just then the lights went out in the sanctuary).

“We are not hearing about the kingdom of God, so we have to wing it. We hear preaching on all kinds of things, but the Lord gave us Mat 6:33.

“We have unity here, on this level, on the surface – the feel-good level. But if I say something wrong, it’s all over because we are on the feel-good level. We live in a democracy. We actually think we should vote on everything. Guess what? In the kingdom of God, you don’t get to vote; it’s gonna be God’s way – he is king. God told Samuel, ‘Give them their king. They’re not rejecting you; they’re rejecting me.’ Give their Obama, their Trump.

They reject me, and when they call on me, I won’t be there. I have never heard of a ‘white evangelical’ until this administration. You uncircumcised Philistine, You deny yourself access to the kingdom. The witness is in the miracles, the healing. We must acknowledge and fix it.

“I’ve seen the alliance change – become more holy. We talk about going to heaven, but God wants us to develop here. Let’s live for him so we can get the Hitlers of the world saved.”

Jody Bennett of the Battlefield News directed and prayed over the love offering for the speaker.

Rabbi Rick Sipe closed the service.

other verbally, emotionally and spiritually. The Bible says we are the body of Christ. Take heed that you are not consumed by one another. We see that this is not just in our time; it was in Paul’s time as well.

“Satan is the accuser. Why would we want to join forces with him? We are leaving a bad taste in the mouths of unbelievers. That’s why they say things home and listen to that.’ There are those in my family that I disagree with. It gives me an opportunity to witness to them. We are family, even if we don’t live in the same house. I love my wife. There is nothing I would not do for her. We disagree on things, but that does not mean that I want to kill her, or foster bitterness or strife against her, or get on social media and say bad things about her. So why would we want to get on social media and do that to one another? The Bible says, 'Love

"I have witnessed these things. Verbal attacks are cannibalism. If you have a problem with your brother, go to him, like it says in Mat 18:15. Don't get on Face Book. Be careful. You cannot confide in everybody. Satan comes to church too. He can sit on the front pew.

"Creation is groaning for the real body of Messiah to come forth in unity. Don't tell me about your brother or sister; get on your knees and pray about it. N these things, the unbelievers are reminded of why they don't come to church. Even the news media is picking up on this. When one part of your body attacks another part, as in an autoimmune disorder, you become very sick. Is what's coming out of your mouth causing division and disunity? Thumper told Bambi, 'If you can't say nothing good, don't say nothing.' Mat 7:5, 'First take the plank out of your own eye.' It is easy to point a finger at someone else. Look to see what of that thing you have. It will usually be at least part of it if you are able to be honest with yourself.

"Jesus did not come to brutally murdered so that some could sit on their high judgment seats. We need to be showing our young people Agape. There is no better love. Jesus was moved with compassion (splanknidzomahee). You need different kinds of bait to catch different kinds of fish. Different is not always wrong. If God us all to be the same as each other, he wouldn't have made us different. We are a body; we are all different, but we need each other.

"There are those sent to the church to destroy it. They may get on social media and blast somebody. People do not want confrontation, but is you are a leader, you must confront. Proverbs says, 'A gentle answer turneth away wrath.' Stop the gossip and preach the gospel. The enemy will take every opportunity to take what you say and twist it. Most people in the world, and unfortunately, some in the body, will criticize what they cannot control or what makes them envious or jealous. Instead of nit-picking and cannibalizing, keep running your own race and building the kingdom of God."

The altar was opened for prayer.

before Living Hope Christian Fellowship moved from their previous location into the church building on Jefferson Street. Pastor Allen asked him to get behind the podium and speak at one of the coffee houses. When he stepped up onto the pulpit, he realized that it was where he was supposed to be. He realized that God was calling him to preach the gospel.

Jesus is Lord

Chaplain Cody preaching at Living Hope

Heaven's Saints

Cody explained that Barry Mason was a man who belonged to the Hell's Angels, rejected that, asked Christ to be his Lord, and started Heaven's Saints Motorcycle Ministry.

One does not have to have a motorcycle to join the Heaven's Saints (but it certainly helps).

Cody and his wife are helping build the youth ministry at Living Hope and in whatever areas that Pastor Allen needs help with. On 13 January, Cody preached for the first time. He began by singing a song (He also helps in the music ministry). Healing began to take place as he sang I Have Got More to Go to Heaven For. He gave his testimony, explaining that he lost a son after the boy was brought into the world. As he spoke, the Holy Spirit was moving, imparting more strength and healing into him.

"When you have blinders on," Chaplain Cody said, "you pull away. You need to allow the Holy Spirit to use you. The devil will build a cage around your heart. He will hold you there until you don't even want to go to church. One Sunday I was playing my guitar at church, the cage around my heart broke down, and I escaped.

"It is time for the church to get out of the weekly routines because the Holy Spirit is moving. It is time to humble ourselves. It is time to balance ourselves in the word."

All those in the church humbled themselves and came to the altar. The Holy Spirit truly was moving in that place.

Cody is able to reach those in the gangs, in the world, where the unwritten motto is blood-in, blood-out. That is to say, if you want in, it will cost some of your blood and if you want back out, it may cost you your life. Cody is right for this kind of ministry because he has been down that road and he has the wisdom to help those people know the power of the blood of Christ and the transformation. Where some cannot go, he can go. He can snatch the souls from the pits of hell.

Increase in Abortion Prices

organizations that perform abortions. Many protested, claiming their reproductive rights were being violated.

"Using the term 'reproductive rights' when speaking about abortion is like saying 'freedom rights' when speaking about slavery," Johnny Uspect of Living Word Church told BFN. "All those women have the right to 'reproduce.' In China women don't have that right; they are only allowed two children. The right of those women to reproduce has not been interfered with; only their right to have their unborn children murdered using federal funds. This term is just another one of the euphemisms spewed out by the left – a politically correct term like 'termination of pregnancy' instead of 'abortion.'

"We had a good president, who represented the people." Elizabeth Graves of Winder, Georgia told BFN. This man has not represented the people since he was elected. He has already taken away more of our rights than any other president I can remember."

"I am pro-choice," stated the reverend Janine Wilton of Freedom in Christ Ministries, "the time for a woman to make that choice, however, is before she has sex, not after. Abortion was never intended to be a form of birth control; it is murder no matter how you look at it. Murdering babies so that a woman can have sex without having to be concerned with pregnancy is not only unbelievably irresponsible, it is one of the most callous things I know of in the US. And as for the president representing the people: that is the job of congress, not the job of the president. The president is supposed to lead the people, not represent them."

"Trump thinks he can stop abortion," an anonymous woman said, "but it won't work. There are too many women who want it. When is he going to start doing what the people want? He is causing the price at the clinic to go up though. I hate Trump. He is the most hated president there has ever been. He doesn't care who he _____ off (makes angry).

"Mr. Trump is one of the most hated presidents," Carl Kofrinic of Winder told BFN. "If I was president, I would do most of the same things he is doing. I did not vote for him because he is so obnoxious, but now I am glad he was elected. People hate him because he is not just like all the other politicians. No, he doesn't care who he ticks off because he is there to do a job. If you don't like him, he doesn't care; he is going to get it done. People hate him because he is not a career politician. I am sick to death of career politicians. They say whatever they think you want to hear, but carry out very little of it. I am sick of business as usual. Business as usual does not work.

"One fat cat Congressman in Washington said, reportedly, 'We can't live on $174,000.00 a year.' What?

"Everybody says they want change with respect to the government. They want change as long as they don't have to change, or give up anything, or lose anything. Mr. Trump is so hated because he is not a career politician."

Love and Do the Work (from pg 5) the bond of peace, one body, one spirit, one Lord, one faith, one baptism.

"A key word is love. We need to love our enemies too. We figure out what our gift is and go to work.

There are people with gifts that do not want to do the work. Don't let the distractions of the world get between you and the word – between you and ministering to others.

"Mat 24:4-14, The gospel has just about been preached all over the world. California tried to ban the Bible recently. We are building this unity and very soon we will not be able to live without one another.

my home town, Hoschton. At the other end of this shopping center is Tavern 53. They have organized a Lady's Night Out with male strippers. This is against town ordinances, since there are two churches in this shopping center and a day care right across the street. We must come together as one body."

First Lady Kim Otero of Tzur Yisrael & Ralph Evans of Living Hope

Sharon was instrumental in organizing the WBCA meeting to address the issue in Hoschton. On this subject, there is a meeting scheduled at the Hoschton Town Hall on Hwy 53 in Hoschton on 7 March at 1900 (7pm). Just go to Hoschton on Hwy 53. You will see the water tower. Go to it.

Dr Kenneth O'Neal was MC of the program

"The purpose of the shofar," Dr Kenneth O'Neal of Anointed Hands began, speaking of the Shofars blown at beginning of the service, "was to call the people to worship or the soldiers to battle. Thank God for the women here tonight. During war, the praise came first. The church is instrumental on earth. We are the body of Christ."

Dr Lorrie O'Neal opened in prayer

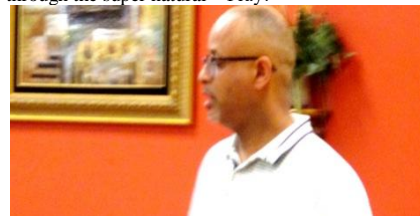

Dustin Bonds the apostle of Real Identity

"You don't have to be an apostle or a prophet to get heaven to move, just a son of God. Eph 6:12, the forces of darkness are structured and real. When you release the word of God, it does not return void. Jezebel is raising her head in this area. There is witchcraft and drugs, not just alcohol. Let the devil know he is on notice.

"Neh 4:16-17, half of the men worked on the wall while the other half were equipped with spears, shields, bows, and armor to support those working on the wall. There is a heartbeat of revival in Georgia. The only way it comes is through the church. God starts in the Spirit. To see it manifested in the natural, it must be birthed through the super natural – Pray!"

Dr Kenneth O'Neal

"We have come this far in faith. God said continue in faith. We perish for lack of knowledge. Luke 7:1-10, when the centurion heard about Jesus, he sent a request that Jesus come and heal his servant, but then said he was not worthy that Jesus come to his house. He asked that Jesus just speak the words. Jesus was amazed at this level of faith.

"In Luke 18:1-8 is the parable of the woman and the unjust judge. The woman kept coming. She was persistent, so the judge granted her request. Jesus said, 'Will not God bring about justice for his chosen ones, who cry out to him day and night?' Always pray. Be persistent. Call on the Lord. James 5:16 says, 'the effective, fervent prayer of a righteous man avails much.

"Tell the devil, 'Hell no!' He comes into our town, into our community and says, I will do what I want.' We say, 'Hell no!' Gal 6:9, Satan tries to wear the saints down. He does not want the saints to pray because he knows the power of prayer. If you pray, God will show you the secrets of the kingdom. Sunday morning the church may be filled up, but the Wednesday night prayer meeting only has about 20 people. Prayer is the power: tonight it is a pole down the street; tomorrow it could be some one in your family. How will you know the shepherd's voice without prayer?"

Dr Lorrie O'Neal

"When Sharon told me about Tavern 53 bringing strippers in, I was ready to go down there and beat on the devil, but we have a responsibility to witness to them and to pray against the spirit of perversion. Deut 32:5 says, 'They have acted corruptly toward him, to their shame, they are no longer his children, but a warped and crooked generation.' Prov 28:18, 'He whose walk is blameless is kept safe, but he whose ways are perverse will suddenly fall.' We must come against the spirit of perversion."

Glenda Labun prayed against the spirit of Pharmakeia (drugs and sorcery – witchcraft)

First Lady Wanda Stevens of Living Hope spoke and prayed.

"We have to show up," said Wanda Stevens, "at the city meeting on 7 March at 1900 (7pm) and we have to write letters. Theresa Kinnerly said we must make an appointment to come to that committee meeting, so we did."

In 2014 the Whole Body of Christ Alliance was involved in a struggle with Jackson County to get an unjust, ungodly law changed. Greg Brockman, the professor and head master of North Georgia Revival College of Ministry, led that successful struggle.

Greg Brockman of North Georgia Revival Outreach

"Everybody is saying, 'Greg, tell us the truth.' The truth is that, if we don't nip this in the bud, it will be a perpetual problem. Men, there is a problem with us. Men of God are looking at things we are not supposed to be looking at, watching movies we are not supposed to be watching. God sees your heart. This is coming because the men of God have let their guard down. We must stand up and say, 'You are coming no further. You cannot have my son or my daughter.'

"It is absolutely essential that we have prayer meetings on a regular basis. We cannot just do it one time and think that's gonna make a difference. Some years ago there was a really bad place filled with drugs and prostitution. We met and prayed for four hours every Saturday night. That place was shut down, within two years it was a church, and at least ten people that were in that place now serve Jesus. We cannot exercise power if Satan has something in us.

Gathered in the front to pray

Pastor Carol Patman of Miracle Deliverance Church in Commerce leads an effort to give toys to area children each year. This year, the eighth year she has done it, 1,000 children received toys, along with personal items, clothes and fruit.

Pastor Carol Patman

Pastor Carol Patman presented toys to area children during the holidays for the eighth year. "A strong-willed woman on a mission put a smile on every child's face that she could reach," said leaders with Miracle Deliverance Church and Miracle Deliverance House of Prayer.

"She has been doing this for eight years now and everywhere she goes is always touching and reaching someone with her big heart. The Miracle Deliverance Church and Miracle Deliverance House of Prayer are always behind her and that's always a recipe for success."

An event is held each year in late December to distribute the toys to area children. Pastor Patman hands out more than 1,000 toys, along with personal items, clothes, fruit, and prayer, counseling and encouragement.

"We would like to invite everyone to join us next year and we would love to thank the ones who helped us out this year," Patman said.

"Thanks to both Dollar General stores in Commerce, family and friends and a special thanks to Cynthia Veasley."

My Brother

By: Greg Brockman

In my life time I have never seen such division in our nation. The following poem is not aimed or fired, but rather written in lamentation for the times we are in.

Why does my brother look at me

With such disdain

All eyes can see?

What does my brother hope to gain?

He thinks of my hurt,

Hopes for my pain.

Where is my brother that could be my friend?

His heart sees without,

But doesn't see within.

Who is this my brother who judges me -

Crimes committed from past

That had no part I see?

Will my dear brother ever know

I have for him no hate,

No calloused soul?

Can my brother know that I wish him well,

To prosper and great health

Not just outer shell?

Where is my brother I long to see?

He reaches out,

But not to me.

Why does my brother curse to rend
And judges me only
By color of skin?

The Hacker

By: Wade Carey

Since the season is changing, let's delve into some basics of spiritual warfare. This subject is something we can all relate to - both believers and non-believers. Why? It is because the enemy is obviously quite real. Just look around you. Only the most foolish denials can attempt to wipe away the evil that exists in this world. The enemy is destructive. As I see it, the enemy is primarily a hacker.

Let's start off with what C.S. Lewis once said about the world of the demonic: "There are two equal and opposite errors into which our race can fall about the devils. One is to disbelieve in their existence. The other is to believe, and to feel an excessive and unhealthy interest in them. They themselves are equally pleased by both errors and hail a materialist or a magician with the same delight."

Now, then, What do I mean by Satan and his demons being hackers? Let me point out an incredibly powerful passage which affirms that God is more powerful than our enemies in the dark realm: 1 John 4:4, "You, dear children, are from God and have overcome them, because the one who is in you is greater than the one who is in the world."

The truth is that the battle for power between God and Satan isn't even close. When you examine perhaps the most under-discussed element of the bible, which is the power of its numerous fulfilled prophecies, Christians can stand with enormous confidence that the prophecies of Revelation will come true one day and evil will be defeated for good. After all, the Bible has a one-thousand batting average. With that in mind, we can see Satan's final defeat and humanity's return to an Eden-like existence on the new earth (see Revelation 21:1-4).

Back to the hacker thing - It appears to me that Satan has his efforts divided into two primary specialties:

(1) Attack those who haven't surrendered their life to Jesus Christ and keep them from everlasting life with God; and

(2) Attempt to mitigate the effectiveness of those who have Jesus as their savior. In both cases, this is where the hacking comes in.

Think about what a hacker does. They generally try to wreak havoc by attacking databases and websites, etc. They are a cowardly enemy who appear to have great power, but they really don't. Yes, hackers can cause enormous harm, but they do this largely with information, not power. A hacker knows precisely how, when, and where to hit its enemy's vulnerabilities. A hacker may appear to be more powerful than they actually are, but that's because they know abundantly well how to use laser, pinpoint attacks against the target. In the same sense, demonic hackers do everything they can to throw a smoke screen between the target (humans) and their Lord. Demons can and will do this whether someone is a believer or not. Demons are good at it. They've been at it for a long time now. However, we can defeat them. In fact, we must defeat them through the power of Jesus Christ, not our own.

We must always remind our self that God has the power. Never, ever forget that. We'll start to dig into the details of the devil's specific hacking tactics in several areas as we move forward. In the meantime, Pray for God's protection over everything you have and do. The hackers are watching.

The enemy is real!

Watch Night Did Not Originate with American Slaves

By: Greg Brockman

Watch Night services are actually believed to have originated with the Moravians in the 18th century. Here is an article from the internet about it:

As strongly as Watch Night is now linked to the black community, its observance did not originate with that group, nor did it begin on 31 December 1862, the night before the Emancipation Proclamation came into effect.

Watch Night began with the Moravians, a small Christian denomination whose roots lie in what is the present-day Czech Republic. The first such service is believed to have been held in 1733 on the estates of Count Nicholas von Zinzendorf in Hernhut, Saxony.

John Wesley, founder of the Methodist movement, picked it up from the Moravians, incorporating a Watch Night vigil into the practices of his denomination beginning in 1740. Methodist Watch Nights were held once a month and on full moons, with the first such service in the United States reportedly taking place in 1770 at Old St. George's Church in Philadelphia. These services survive to the present day in that denomination's worship manuals as "Covenant Renewal Services."

What was being "watched over" in those earlier services was one's covenant with God. Those gatherings were a time for congregants to meditate on their state of grace: were they spiritually ready to meet their maker if the call were suddenly to come? As the 13th chapter of Mark instructs, the faithful need to be ever vigilant, because the hour of the Lord's coming is not known. (Watch ye therefore: for ye know not when the master of the house cometh.)

The end-of-year Watch Night of 1862 took on special significance attaching to the impending 1 January 1863 enactment of the Emancipation Proclamation, and that night has come to be known as "Freedom's Eve." On 22 September 1862, President Lincoln issued his preliminary Emancipation Proclamation, which stated: "[O]n the first day of January ... all persons held as slaves within any State, or designated part of a State, the people whereof shall then be in rebellion against the United States shall be then, thenceforward, and forever free." Lincoln subsequently issued the Emancipation Proclamation itself on 1 January 1863.

While that proclamation did not end slavery the moment it was issued, it did at least proclaim some slaves free. Knowing that this was going into effect the next day must certainly have influenced the nature of that year's Watch Night within the African-American and abolitionist communities, adding a second symbolic layer of what was being watched for (the coming of freedom at the stroke of midnight) to the more usual fare (the coming of the Christ at an unspecified future date and therefore the need to maintain a constant personal state of spiritual preparation). Among African-American congregations, that second layer of meaning has since become permanently woven into the fabric of the original, making New Year's Eve Watch Night services as much now about remembering the end of slavery as it is upon personal reflection on the state of one's soul.

One additional bit of legend has attached to the origin of Watch Night, the dubious claim that slaves would gather on the final night of the year to shiver in fear as they awaited news about which of them would be sold the next day to satisfy outstanding debts. By the lights of that theory, while those so assembled were also watching for the coming of the master, the one they were keeping an eye out for was going to sell off some of them (as opposed to redeeming their souls and transporting them to life everlasting).

While the practice of entering the New Year free of financial obligation is a very old one (superstition dictates all debts must be retired prior to the beginning of the year), the idea that accounts would be settled on 1 January is unlikely. The first day of the year was a time for paying social calls on one's neighbors, and only the exceedingly gauche would have thought to sully such interactions with so much as a mention of anything business-related, let alone attempt to transact the buying and selling of slaves on that day. Moreover, anyone acting out of desire to enter the New Year clear of debt would fail in that effort if he put off selling or transferring property until the first of January. We, therefore, suggest taking with a large grain of salt Watch Day origins that feature huddled slaves assembled for their one last night together before some of them were sold off.

Misunderstood

By: R. D. Hempton

The Battlefield News is reprinting a very controversial article from December 2015 because, even though we now have a different president, some things must still change. I have actually heard people make the statement, 'Islam is a peaceful religion.' Anyone who says that is deluded. They have never actually read any of the Quran. The truth is that Islam is an extremely violent religion.

Muslims are not misunderstood in this country; Christians are. Non-Christians in this country act as if they think they know the God we serve. Unfortunately, they get this knowledge from the stupidest place – other non-Christians, the media, worldly books and movies, etc. This is evidenced by the things they say. "You can't judge me." Mat 7:1 is one of the most misquoted, inappropriately used scriptures. Most English translations say, 'Judge not lest you be judged. Remember, the book was not written if English; it was written in Greek. The Greek word for Judge here is krino. It also means "condemn." If I cannot use my brain and make some sort of judgment call, if I cannot call something what it is, how can I carry out what Mat 7:6 says? "do not give what is holy to dogs. Do not throw your pearls to the pigs."

Being a Christian, in the eyes of many non-Christians, seems to mean being a door mat. We are not called to be pacifists. Jesus was not a pacifist – "I come not to bring peace, but a sword" (Mat 10:34). "I thought you Christians were supposed to turn the other cheek." Because Christians do not blow things up (even though some who claim Yeshua do sometimes blow something up), we are singled out by worldly people and organization to be discriminated against. Our children are told they cannot wear a t-shirt that says, "Jesus." But Muslims teach their religion in some of those same public schools.

Christians are misunderstood. With this we bring you the reprinted article, including the introduction.

Too Controversial

By: Greg Brockman

Greg Brockman

Editor's Note: Greg Brockman sent us this article with the warning: This may be too controversial to publish. It is our view that, while it is controversial, most Followers of Christ far too often find themselves in the situation where they are seemingly placed in an impossible situation and told, "You're supposed to turn the other cheek I thought." The world does not understand Christ, but act as if they think they do. Christians are not told to be pacifists. Jesus was not a pacifist. We do not love violence, but we do not shrink back from it if it is indicated. Jesus himself said, I do not come to bring peace but a sword." We present here this controversial article for the reader to take to heart. It seems that church folks/ Christians are in quite a spot. Muslims kill innocent people and someone says we gotta love them. While Islam attacks Paris, our President continues to have Islamic Syrians shipped to the United States. He even has the nerve to ask, "Do you think a Christian's life is more important than a Muslim's?"

Here's the deal: Love does not mean door mat. To truly love does not mean to allow evil people to take innocent life. If someone breaks into my home I am not going to "love him unconditionally." I am not even going to pray for him right then. I will protect the lives of my wife and children, and if that means that the perpetrator of evil has to face God immediately, then so be it. He should have considered that before he did the evil.

Islam is evil –period! There is no in-between. Their so-called "holy" Quran tells them over 160 times to maim and kill, and to make war with those who are not Muslims. They follow an evil book that has been inspired by Beelzebub himself.

Remember awhile back when over a hundred school girls were kidnapped in Africa by Muslims? Those little girls were raped, then "converted" to Islam (First raped, then "converted"). They were forcibly taken, forced to have sex with much older men, and "converted" to Islam. What did the world do? What did our President do? Nothing!

If you had been at that school, would you love those rapists? Would you run and shout, "Praise the Lord. Jesus loves you?" Or would true love pick up a gun and risk its own life to defend those innocent children?

We have become so "feminized" as men, that we no longer feel that violence is ever the solution. Can I tell you that it took violence to end the goals of Hitler? Do you know that in 2001 on flight 93, those heroes didn't shout, "Jesus loves you," but instead, they used violence and rushed the cockpit. Why? Was it because they hated Muslims? Of course not! Their noble charge was to protect innocent lives!

In the early days of the American Revolution, there was a regiment known as the "Black Robe Regiment." These were men of God. History tells the story of one such pastor, who, after preaching on "A Time for All Things" from Ecc chapter 3, said to his congregation, "There is a time for peace and there is a time for war. The British are killing our brothers across the river; now is a time for war." Upon saying this, he took off his black robe to reveal the uniform of a colonel in the Continental Army. That day, he and 300 men from his parish, joined George Washington to fight for the freedom that you and I are quickly losing in our generation.

What the president of this nation has done is bring the Middle East inside our borders. I do not hate Muslims, nor do I hate the refugees. But I do see a very real threat because of the demonically-inspired book that the Muslims follow.

I am not advocating that we begin committing violent acts, but violence is coming. The leadership of this nation has made sure that we are going to suffer more and more attacks at the hands of Islam. While, as Christians, we need never be the instigators of violent acts, we must, as Christian men, be ready to act violently, if need be, to defend innocent life, to defend our families, to defend our neighbors, to defend innocent life wherever it comes under attack, whatever that entails. So be it.

Happy Birthday Unity

One of the most unique and incredible ministries in the Whole body of Christ Alliance is not a church; it is basically a street ministry, a church without walls, which is what we are all called to be part of – a church without walls. As long as all we do is go to a building, sing songs, hear sermons, hang out only with each other, the enemy is quite content. We are not worth much to the kingdom of god if that is all we do; we are supposed to get out there and witness, to bring people to Messiah.

Unity on a Mission has been doing that for quite some time now – six years to be exact. We all need to go there and celebrate that birthday with them on 2 March at 1500 (3pm) at Unity on a mission headquarters at 1205 Hwy 60, Hoschton 30548. Last year was really good. Don't miss it. Call us (BFN – info pg 7) with questions.

Appreciation Celebration

Ms Mary's House of Hope will be holding an appreciation for Ms Mary Tate for all she does for the ladies in her house and for the alliance. It will be at 208 C North Broad Street in Winder 30680 at 1500 (3 pm) on 9 March 2019.

Christian Counseling**

The reverend Jeff Carr Cross of Christ Ministries has 30 years of counseling experience. If you have gone for any counseling with a worldly counseling center, which most counseling centers are, and really needed to be helped, and got tired of worldly people telling you that you should do something that you knew was against the word of God, or telling you not to do something you know the Lord wants you to do, going to a Christian Counselor is indicated. Jeff has helped save marriages that worldly counselors said were not savable. He counsels pastors that are at the end of their rope, and all sorts of situations that many other counselors would never have accepted. If you find yourself in this kind of need, you must call Cross of Christ and Marriage Menders at (770)979-2301 and (770)985-1235. Also you can go to Marriagemenders.com.

Keeping Your Distance from Jesus

By: James Walker

Bishop James Walker

The night before Jesus was crucified, He took the time to tell Peter and the other disciples what to expect—that he, Jesus, would die, would be raised from the grave, and would meet them later in the Galil (Galilee - see Matthew 26:31–32). He was arrested that same night by armed men –temple guards (not Roman soldiers contrary to many older movies),and taken before the high priest.

The other disciples scattered, but Peter followed behind Jesus—at a distance. When they got to the high priest’s courtyard, Peter settled down a little ways away and waited to “see the end.” But Jesus had already told Peter and the others what was going to happen and what the end would be.

The Bible says, “Peter followed him at a distance to the high priest’s courtyard. And he went in and sat with the servants to see the end” (Matthew 26:58, NKJV).

Many Christians in America today want to follow Jesus at a distance. They want to give themselves a little room; they want to watch which way the wind will blow and see what the end will be.

When Jesus is portrayed in a good light or when it’s comfortable, they will stand up there next to him. But if Jesus is going to be mocked or cursed or insulted, they want to stay back until they know how things will go.

But we already know what the end will be. You and I have the word of God, and we know there will be wars and famines and earthquakes. We know that one day the Lord Jesus Christ will come back to get his church and that we will be with him in Heaven for eternity because we have put our faith and trust in him. We know what happens in the end to the devil and his demons, and we know what the end is for every person who rejects God’s offer of salvation through Jesus Christ. So why would we want to follow Jesus at a distance? We have entered a New Year, it is a good time for each of us to examine the ways in which we may be trying to maintain a little space between our selves and our Lord. In whatever area of life it may be, don’t keep your distance.

Bible Knowledge

By: Mateo Raza

We begin, of course, with the answers to the January questions:

Battles Won Supernaturally

- 1: Israel. II Chron 13:15-16
- 2: Jehoshaphat. II Chron 20:22

A Book of Covenants

- 3: A rainbow. Gen 9:13
- 4: Circumcision. Gen 17:9-14
- 5: They built a graven image and worshiped it – that stupid calf. Ex 32

6: On men’s hearts. Jer 31:33

The anointed Ones

7: Ya’akov (Jacob). Gen 28:18
8: Yeshua (Jesus). Luke 7:38

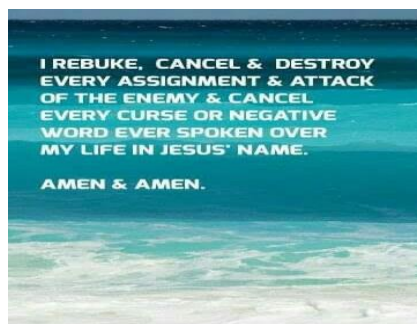

It is time to put some silly things to rest about this story. I have heard people say that this woman was a prostitute. There is no biblical basis for this whatsoever. The Bible says that she was a woman who had “lived a sinful life;” it does not say she was a prostitute. Are we that sexist that we think if a woman led a sinful life that she must be a prostitute? She may have been, but we do not know this and we need to stop saying things like this that

Love Letter From God
My Beloved,
I am your shield of protection.
Many times you wonder where I am in the midst of the battle that rages. Don't be afraid and don't lose faith. I am here, and I am always victorious. I will protect you, but you must trust me. I am truly your shelter and deliverer. I will always protect you.
Love,
Your King and your Protector.

we do not know and look them up for ourselves.

The second misconception I keep hearing is that this woman was Miryam of Magadan (Mary Magdalene). John 11:2 tells us exactly who she was. She was Miryam (Mary) the sister of El Azar or Eleazar & Marta (Lazarus & Martha). We say it was Mary Magdalene because we heard someone else say it. We have to start looking things up for ourselves.

The third misconception, which is kind of related to this, is that Mary Magdalene (Miryam of Magadan) was a prostitute. What? Once again, there is no biblical basis for this whatsoever. She may have been a prostitute, but the Bible does not say that, or even hint of it. Luke 8:2 says seven demons were cast out of her, nothing about her being a prostitute. Sexist? Let’s stop just being “church folks” and actually read the word of God.

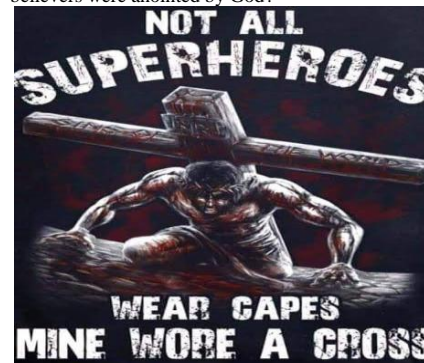

- 9:Olive oil.
10. The church elders. James 5:14
- 11: Aaron and his sons. Lev 8:23
- 12: Samuel. I Sam 9:16
- 13: Zadok. I King 1:39

Now we come to the part where the new questions, the February questions are asked:

The Anointed Ones

- 1: What Persian king was considered to be God’s anointed?

2: What apostle told the early Christians that all believers were anointed by God?

3: Who anointed the tabernacle with oil?

4: What leader anointed David king?

5: Where did the men of Y’hudah (Judah) gather to anoint David as their king?

Houses of Worship

6: What gruesome object did the Philistines fasten in the temple of Dagon?

7: What notorious Greek/Roman Goddess had a temple at Ephesus?

8: Whose temple did Abimelech burn while the people (about 1000) of Shechem were hiding inside?

9: Who received a vision of the temple in Jerusalem while he was in exile in Babylon?

10: According to Paul, whose body is the temple of the Holy Spirit?

11: What Assyrian emperor was assassinated by his sons as he worshiped in his pagan temple?

12: Who, in a vision, was given a measuring device and told to measure the temple in Jerusalem, but not to measure the court yard since it was given to the Gentiles?

13: Who carried away objects and furnishings from the temple in Jerusalem and placed them in a temple in Babylon?

14: What was Yeshua talking about when he spoke of destroying the temple and raising it in three days?

15: What holy object was taken by the Philistines into the temple of Dagon, causing Dagon’s image to fall down?

Have fun with these.

Love in Christ,

Matt
