On Prayer 77 Blessing Others (Part Three)

By: Mozelle Davis-Weeks

We can observe this principle again in Genesis 27, where Ya'akov (Jacob) cheated his brother Esav (Esau) out of his blessing. Yitzchak (Isaac) was old and about to die, and his eyesight was shot in his old age. At his mother's prompting, and with her help, Ya'akov took advantage of his father's condition. He pretended to be Esav in order to obtain his older brother's blessing. Rebekah prepared the kind of meal Esau would've prepared for Yitzchak, his father, and Jacob wore animal skins that his mother had made in order to deceive his father. Esau came in shortly after Isaac blessed Ya'akov: "Yitzchak trembled exceedingly, and said, 'Who? Where is the one who hunted game and brought it to me? I ate all of it before you came, and I have blessed him – and indeed he shall be blessed.' When Esav heard the words of his father, he cried with an exceedingly great and bitter cry, and said to his father, 'Bless me, even me also, O my father!' But he said, 'Your brother came in deceit and has taken away your blessing' – Gen 27:33-35.

This is an amazing passage because even though Ya'akov received the blessing under false pretenses, and Isaac pronounced it under duress, Isaac said, "I can't reverse it. I have blessed him, and indeed, he will be blessed!" This blessing imparted by Yitzchak was so powerful that it changed the course of history, affecting the destiny of the Arabs and the Israelis. Whole nations were affected.

As I read the chapter of Genesis in my quiet time, I closed my Bible in near disbelief that blessings could be that powerful. I shared this discovery with my husband Richard. As it so often happens, we had both read this passage several times and never seen the significance of this blessing. He was so excited that he went into his staff meeting and shared this principle with the whole staff. Then we went into the sanctuary and blessed everyone connected with an area of ministry. The music minister blessed all the people in the music groups, and the youth leader blessed all the youth workers and teenage youth leaders. We blessed home group leaders, secretaries, elders, and deacons. If Christians have this kind of power in blessing (and the above passage proves it), then we have missed something very important. We have missed a specialized way to pray seldom taught to or grasped by the average Christian. We have the power to impart blessings to people that will change them permanently and alter their destiny.

Garden of Life

By: Wade Carey

Wade & Elisa Carey

"No offense," Jerry said. "But that sounds a little bit like a prideful excuse."

"Why is that?"

"Going to church is an important element in your walk with Jesus, but there is much more to it than that. You can't allow bad people to discourage you from the most important thing in the universe – faith and salvation found only through Jesus Christ. Let me give you a verse to illustrate this: Titus 1:16 says, 'They claim to know God, but by their actions they deny him. They are detestable, disobedient and unfit for doing anything good.'"

"Ahhh!" Henry exclaimed. "So you're saying I shouldn't let misguided religious people keep me from the Lord."

"I couldn't have said it better myself."

"Good deal," Henry said. "So what else do you have? My head is about to explode with so many thoughts colliding at once."

Teacher and student continued to make their way around the track for the second time.

"I'd like to close with two major distractions you can't let your garage – or rather, your spiritual garden – be clogged with."

"Oh, what are they?"

"In addition to not allowing misguided religious people to discourage your walk of faith, you also can't allow yourself to be discouraged by naturalistic nonbelievers."

"What – atheists?"

"Essentially, yes. When you peel away all the layers of atheistic denial of God, these folks are, at their very essence, all about hedonism. Of course, that's the premise that self-pleasure is the highest level of human fulfillment they can attain. If that's really true and there's no life after this one, they'd be absolutely correct. Unfortunately, this type of narcissistic thinking has seeped its way deeply into our society. Our only remedy for this is to fight it with the truth of the Gospel of Jesus Christ, which runs in a distinctly opposite direction."

"Of course," Henry began, "we both know that the naturalists disagree with your assertion about the gospel. They seem to claim that science is their guiding light – not some miscellaneous sky daddy."

"Yeah, that's to be expected," Jerry said, shaking his head. "But they're wrong. According to their world view – whether they'll admit it or not – they must seek pleasure in life at all costs. After all, naturalists don't believe they'll be judges for their actions. To these people, life has an unknown beginning and a mysterious nonexistent ending. According to their worldview, ontological uncertainty is something to be revered."

"How would you contrast that with the Christian worldview?"

"There's absolutely zero uncertainty about humanity's origin and ultimate destinations. Why – because the Bible is our guide. We not only know how the story began, we also know how it will end."

Children of Tender Love

By: Jody Bennett

In Jinja, Uganda is the Tender Love Orphanage administered by Mr. Dominic Muggaga. There are

Mr. Dominic Muggaga director of Tender Love a precious few people in the alliance who help support these children. The Battlefield News brings you closer to some of those children and urges you to call the Battlefield News if you will do even the smallest thing to help them – (706)499-7976. There are things that may be junk to you, things you would give to the Goodwill, which, by the way, is not even a nonprofit organization any more, things you might even throw away, that would not be junk to them. There is a container at Unity on a mission where you can bring those things that we may send to these children. It will not be there much long, however, as we must send it. Act now, please.

Safina Tendo

Safina was born in 2002 and is the older sister of the twins Ali & Habibah. Their father, whose presence is still unknown to this day, abandoned their mother with four children. Their mother subsequently remarried and abandoned the children, leaving them with their grandmother. At a community visit in 2014, we discovered the three children we have through their grandmother. They are now receiving food, shelter, and education.

Ping Pong Balls (Part Five)

By: Rick Hempton

Rick Hempton, founder WBCA

Rom 10:17 tells us, "Faith comes by hearing and hearing by the word or God." It is easy to misunderstand this statement, as one can see – aside from the fact that it is written in Middle English. Literally, it sounds like it is based on the fact that many people in the first century, the time of the apostle Paul, were illiterate and had to have the word read to them. It also sounds in the literal sense that our sense of hearing comes from the word of God ("...and hearing by the word of God."). Although in the first century, when Paul dictated the book of Romans to Tertius to write down, a great many of the people did have to have the word of God read to them, don't forget that the New Testament, as we know it, did not exist. A better explanation of this is that faith comes from hearing the word of God preached, and that the preaching must come from the word of God. This explanation causes it to make more sense, but many people have a difficult time seeing how their faith can come from hearing some one preach. I had a problem seeing that myself for quite some time. Then I did a little research and discovered that it was simply a matter of not understanding what the apostle Paul meant. I looked in Strong's concordance to make sure of the word "word." I found that the actual Greek word is not “logos,” the written word of God – in other words, the Bible – but “rhema,” the spoken word of God. Now I can see it. If God speaks to me, - I’m not talking about something I read in the Bible; but if he actually speaks to me – then I have to believe and my faith quickly climbs to new heights.

There are quite a few of my Christian Brothers, whom I love very much, who do not believe that God actually speaks to us in any way except through his written word. One even implied that the Bible says otherwise. I love him very much and I will not get into a debate about this difference in beliefs, but not only does the Bible not say otherwise, but there are numerous examples in the Bible that say exactly that. Making a convincing case for this principle is beyond the scope of this article, which is to explain faith, but I will simply give one example: Jer 33:3, “Call to me and I will answer you, and show you great and mighty things that you do not know.”

God does speak to us. That is why good prayer is communication, not just me speaking to God. I really would like to go into this more deeply, and I may do that in the future, but for now, suffice it to say that when God does actually speak to you, your faith will increase.

To illustrate this, let’s look at what was already said: that reason, logic, and faith are on one side, while emotions and imagination are on the other side. Now that we know this, we can see what goes on with Christianity.

Learning to be a Soul Winner

Step-by-step training

(Part Four)

By: Les Vinluan

The Right Approach to Soul Winning

Les (Brother Pineapple) Vinluan the evangelist
Get them lost (let them see that they are lost)

You do this by asking the right questions:

“Where do you go to church?”

Help them realize they need the Lord:

“Are you a Christian?”

The best question is,

Do you know if you died today that you would go to Heaven?”

Draw them a map in your New Testament

Rom 3:10, “As it is written, ‘There is none righteous, no, not one.’” (KJV)

Rom 3:23, “For all have sinned and come short of the glory of God.” (KJV)

Rom 6:23, “The wages of sin is death, but the gift of God is eternal life in Jesus Christ our Lord.” (NIV)

Rom 5:8, “But God demonstrates his own love for us in this: while we were still sinners, Christ died for us.” (NIV)

Rom 10:9-10, “If you acknowledge publicly with your mouth that Yeshua is Lord and trust in your heart that God raised him from the dead, you will be delivered. For with the heart one goes on trusting and thus continues toward righteousness, while with the mouth one keeps on making public acknowledgment and thus continues toward deliverance.” (JNT)

Rom 10:13, “for whosoever shall call upon the name of the Lord shall be saved.” (KJV)

John 5:24, “Verily, verily, I say unto you, he that heareth my word and believeth on him that sent me, hath everlasting life, and shall not come into condemnation, but is passed from death unto life.” (KJV)

Ask the person, “If you died now, do you know for sure you would go to Heaven?”

“Would you like to know?”

“If I showed you in the Bible how you could know, would you be willing to do what the Bible says?”

Show him he is a sinner. Rom 3:10 & 3:23.

Show him the price of sin. Rom 6:23

Review it all to be sure he understands.

If you see that he is ready, ask him if he would be willing to ask God to save him.

If he is not ready, just ask him if you can have a word of prayer for him.

Ask him to pray.

Say, “If you mean it in your heart and you are right now receiving Jesus Christ as your personal Lord & savior, would you take my hand?” This helps seal it in his mind.

Pray once more and thank God for saving him.

Show him John 5:24

Ask him again, “Where, according to the Bible, would you go if you died?”

Talk to him about baptism and get a commitment. You can explain that there is more to it than just claiming it; he must take certain actions if he wants to keep what he has just received. Pick him up Sunday (or whatever day is the soonest that you can get him to a church). Bring him forward in the service. Get him to commit to Sunday school or a weekly Bible study. It is so important that you do not lead him through “the Sinner’s Prayer” and just leave him there, telling him he is now saved. You must follow up or you have accomplished nothing.

Good, Good, Question

By: Karen Sipe

Somebody once asked me why I do this. Good question. Good, good question.

Was it for me or is it for him? Good question. Good, good question.

So I sat down and thought about it. I came to the conclusion that I am nothing. I sat humbled at the fact that I am nothing and even more humbled at the fact that he, he is something.

So why do I speak such things? Good question. Good, good question.

You see, there is something more. There is something more than bowing down to a culture, and walking robotically through routines when the Lord says, “I want to mold her. I want to mold him. I want to mold them.”

I want to tell you a story about a particular morning where the words take me back. They swam around throughout my head. I considered them lightly, but like a fool, avoided them.

Eight months later I was on my knees weeping, saying, “Take me back. Take me back to when I knew you. My faith is so dead, far from anything new and when I pray, I feel as though my four walls can’t even hear me. I turn on my lights and still darkness is what I see. Where did you go? Or rather, where did I go?”

“God, you woke me from my sleep, whispered my name, called me back home.” So I sat in a very erring place where I once prayed. I tried to soften my heart of stone. Convicted by the very words I spoke, convicted by the fact that I can’t do this on my own, I pleaded with God, “Are you with me? Are you here? Is it all just an imaginary battle? God, don’t leave me in my doubt. God, don’t leave me in my struggle. And I hope it’s not too much to ask, but would you take me back?”

“Child, my child, can you see I’ve never left you? Your faith is weak, but here, look – look at what I’ve called you to do. You can sit there faithless, stay like this, or you can move.” (see pg 4)

Trust that is Unshakeable

By: Jody Bennett

Jody Bennett of the Battlefield News

One of the definitions for trust is: firm belief in the reliability, truth, ability, or strength of someone or something. Firm belief, in my opinion, is firm faith, which equals trust. Learning to trust can come to us instinctively. However, most of us are taught to trust through trials. Trusting is probably one of the hardest things that we do sometimes. Other times it’s the easiest thing. For example, we easily trust that the chair we are sitting in will hold us up and that the air is available for us to breathe every day.

When it comes to trusting a person it’s a lot harder for us because we get our feelings, emotions, and our logical minds involved. One thing that I have learned over my lifetime is that all of our trust should be in God. I’ve learned that trusting in all of the other things like the air we breathe and the chair we sit in, is impossible without God, because without him, we have nothing and we can do nothing. In Christ we can do all things.

Recently, so many of my personal circumstances and life experiences were re-evaluated and analyzed. It made me think about my own life and how I have learned to trust throughout the years.

My own testimony is one of trusting through trials. It’s not until we finally are willing to give in, trust God, and give him a try that we begin to have peace. I believe that trusting God is one of the ways that we show honor to him. It shows respect, and declares that we believe his word and trust his character. Since I have completely put my trust in him I feel the favor on my life like never before.

We serve such a mighty God while we think we could do anything on our own is absolutely crazy. Pride is one of the reasons that we do not rely on God and we rely on ourselves sometimes. I was a selfish person. Growing up with several brothers and sisters I really struggled with selfishness because I didn't want anyone messing with my stuff. I always had to share and it made me become territorial. I did not like that part of myself and God revealed to me the depth of my selfishness. There was also and my wanting to be right and how many problems it was causing in my life. It took a long time to admit, but as I've grown in Christ, it has become easier and easier. I learned that in order to enjoy peace I had to adapt myself to people and things, instead of always expecting them to adapt to me. "Be not wise in your own conceits" (Rom 12:16 KJV). It took years for me to fully realize that having peace was actually better than getting my own way all the time. Peace is one of the most precious things we have and we would be wise to prize it highly.

My full trust in the Lord has only really matured in recent years. It's not that I didn't trust him before, but before I never considered how mighty he is. You hear people say I am trusting God, but we wear ourselves out trying to take care of it ourselves, and that often unsuccessfully. He is in charge of every single aspect of our lives - from the sun rising, to the flowers opening, to the car driving by, to the phone call, or your alarm going off late, to getting stuck in traffic, or taking a wrong turn; all of these things have something to do with God's ultimate plan. We should trust in the Master and the Creator who so strategically lines up every move of every day. We may frustrate and confuse ourselves trying to gain understanding regarding things that are hidden in the knowledge of God alone or we can search the minds of other people, asking for their insight on what is taking place in our lives. While that may help sometimes it may also increase our confusion. We know who the author of confusion is. Therefore, when we get confused we are operating in our own flesh and we are not listening to the Spirit. The learning process is never ending; we continue learning all throughout life in many areas. Learning to trust is also one of these processes we cannot change ourselves by ourselves and real change requires trusting God to do the work in us that needs to be done.

Specifically, when we know that we can do nothing to change a situation or a problem or even a person, we should trust God to work it out. Cast the whole of your care, all your anxieties, all your worries and all your concerns, once and for all on him for he cares for you affectionately and cares about you watchfully (based on 1 Peter 5:7). I now have "peace and trust" or better said, "peace with trust". I can look back, he brought me through every single situation and many, many times I stressed and cried and worried all unnecessarily because it all worked out anyway. Our feelings are ever changing, so we should never trust how we feel. "Blessed is the man who trusts in the Lord, whose confidence is in him (Jer 17:7 NIV). We can trust God at all times, in every way, with ourselves and with everything. Nothing that we commit to him is outside of his control. No matter how people treated Jesus he did not try to take care of himself, but instead, he continually trusted his father in heaven to do that. "But he knows the way that I take; [he has concern for it, appreciates and pays attention to it] when he has tested me, I shall come forth as gold [pure and luminous]" (Job 23:10 NKJV).

Thankfully, we can pray and put our trust and confidence in him to do what needs to be done in us. We will have to trade our independence for dependence on Jesus if we want to have true success. The success that the world gives is what I thought I wanted in life I did not realize what I was jeopardizing through trying to obtain this so-called success. Now, I know that my success is stored in heaven and not here on earth. Our faith and our trust are released through prayer and our confession. Prayer opens the doors for God to work. God has taught me that prayer is my greatest friend and that it is my first resort instead of my last resort. Trusting in him brings peace in my life, and we all have this opportunity through the love of Jesus Christ if we will just let go and let God do it.

Since that morning, I felt my heart stirring gracefully and mercifully, pulling me apart and I had some thoughts. You and I are just flesh and bone, but you and I have souls. Yet we tend to submit ourselves to this place that is not our home. Listen, listen here for a minute. He desires for our lives to be full, but we are all too busy grasping these handfuls - handfuls of material things that are worth nothing. When you and I stand before our Creator someday, I guarantee our material things will not have a thing to say on behalf of me or of you.

Karen Sipe of Ruach Adonai Alai

I mean it when I say, 'We can make our lives whatever we want, regardless of this living we actually do.' What is life if we walk through it as numb, faithless zombies, walking around in this world faceless? As harsh as it seems, you and I need to face this. The times I feel God the most are the times when I am leas. The times I walk with an unwavering faith are the times I actually feel at rest.

Think with me for just a moment. I am asking for just a moment of your time. Where are you? Where is your life? I ask because I know that for the longest time, I called my existence mine. Are you clinging to, grasping, worshipping, praising things that one day will not even be? And if there is one person in this place that is guilty of that, that one person is me. God does not ask for a perfect person; he calls us to work faithfully.

We always have some excuse - some means of diversion. Have you ever just felt weak? It seems as if you can't travel any further from you. What do we say or what do we do? We need to focus on God, follow him daily, faithfully. As boring as some people believe the word of God to be, we need to read it religiously.

Why do I have to do this? Good question. Good, good question. It is because I am a human being - wicked by nature and the word of God, his truth, his peace are not a means to just stand on the religious ladder; they are simply things someone like me (wicked and sinful by nature) needs.

I seek him not for the eyes of mockers, but because I need him. Drugs, alcohol, pornography or social popularity: Let us release our grasp on these and walk faithfully.

So why do I do this? Good question. Good, good question. It is because life on this earth, isn't it only a microscopic speck in eternity? So how can we have this faith if we cannot surrender and walk faithfully? Because faith is more than being a victim to the world; it is being a victor in his word. It is because, faith is more than being blown by the wind and walking blindly through this life. Faith is saying, "I'm blind to what comes next, Lord, but I trust in you alone because this life is not my own."

Being like Jesus

come together with black churches, Hispanic churches with other Hispanic churches, whites with whites, Baptist churches, Methodist, Presbyterian, Pentecostal churches all coming together with churches like themselves. This is not unity in the body of Christ. It is this same sort of mindset that makes us want to make Jesus be like us. Many white people say he's white, but he is not. Many blacks say he is black, but he is not. When the Lord was here on earth, he was not a Baptist, nor an Anglican, not Methodist. In fact, he was not even a Christian; he was a Jew.

"People, we have to stop trying to make Jesus be like us and focus on becoming like him - wanting what he wants, working for what he did, weeping over what he wept over.

"What I have seen in the body of Christ, mostly among denominations, is never a preacher from one denomination preaching on the pulpit of another denomination - never, that is, until the Whole Body of Christ Alliance. What I have seen in the body of Christ, regardless of denomination, is a pessimistic paranoia that makes pastors act terrified that, if they allow someone to speak in their church who says something that they are not saying, God is going to get them. Pastors, Unity in the body is far more important to the Lord (see John 17) than some piece of misplaced doctrine.

In addition, your 'sheep' are not as stupid as you might think; if you disagree with a speaker's doctrine, just tell your people.

"I have seen this pessimistic Paranoia stand in the way of real unity time and time again. Think about it, Presbyterians: Do you really believe that Presbyterians are the only ones that will be in the kingdom of God? Baptists, do you think there is a Baptist section of heaven? AME Zion people, do you think the Lord is going to segregate the AME Zion folks over here and the Nazarenes over there, the Church of God in Christ on that block and the Fire Baptized Holiness on the next block?

The body of Christ has many pastors, or churches, or people that act as if they believe that they are the only ones who have the truth, and no one else does. If you believe that, whoever you are, you are deceived by the forces of darkness. If you are at a church that professes they have the truth and no one else does, be very wary, and do not drink the kool-aid.

"The truth of the matter is that no denomination, no church, no pastor, no one person has the whole truth, and we are not going to get it until we come together as the Lord prayed about in John 17. Folks, lets throw that pessimistic paranoia down right now before it becomes an appendage that can only be removed through surgery. I will repeat something I have already said: The Lord holds unity with each other far more important than anyone's pet doctrine. Yes, pastors, you will be held accountable, but it is far better to err on the side of working to achieve unity in love than erring on the side of isolating from the rest of the body because you are afraid someone is going to tell your people something you don't agree with, or because you or your denomination have the truth and no one else does.

I have heard some of the pastors who seem to espouse the pessimistic paranoia tell their people to "Come out from among them," speaking about others in the body of Christ that are not part of their church or denomination. They are quoting from Is 52:11 ('Go out from the midst of her'). The problem with this is that the word of God does not tell us to come out from among others in the body of Christ, but from the world.

"Most people don't fit into this extreme. So many are just indifferent.

"You do not have to be a pastor or elder, or apostle, prophet or evangelist. You don't have to be anything in particular, except a lover of God, to work to build his kingdom. All a person has to do is visit another church once a month or so. If you are part of a WBCA church, tell your pastor what you saw at the church you visited. Some one will take it from there. There now, was that difficult? Stay with us, folks. We will not stop building the kingdom of God."

service. "Eph 6:1, the devil and all his tactics are exposed. I am gonna preach on taters. What kind of tater are you? There are all kinds of taters: you have spectators, imitators, commentators, agitators, dictators, facilitators, and participators.

"A lady told me that she was fired from a university because the school brought in a Satanic church to speak to the students and she objected. It is real important that we be imitators. Because God tells us what to do. Who are you imitating? Jesus? The world? Your pastor? Your parents? Whomever influences you, that's who you will be like. "A woman I know asked her pastor if it would be

"III John 1:11, 'he that does evil has not seen God.' Eph 5:1, 'Be followers of God, as dear children.' Mat 16:24, deny himself, pick up his cross and follow me. This is what will make an impact on the world today. You must know Jesus because you cannot imitate someone you don't know. I know Theo. He's laidback. I can imitate him. Luke 6:35, love your enemies, do good, lend not expecting to be paid back and your reward will be great as a child of the Most High, for he is kind to the unthankful and to the evil.

"Eph 4:32, to imitate Christ you must forgive. Mat 9:36, we have to also have compassion – that deep compassion (splankhnidzomahee). II Tim 2:24, a servant of the Lord must not fight, but be gentle and kind to everyone, a good teacher, and patient. This building was made to be an auto restoration business. A man started it as a church, then left. I was supposed to carry it out. It is still a place of restoration. (see pg 6)

Take the Limits off God

not normal is about to happen. God is able, Eph 3:20. John 14:12, even greater things – take the limits off God. Ps 78:40-41, they vexed God. How can you test a god who spoke creation into existence? Take the limits off him! You can get the desires of your heart. If God only met your needs, you would have nothing to help anyone. Open up the can and say, 'God can.'

Sarah sang We are Standing on Holy Ground

People in worship

"Do not lean on the arm of flesh; Jesus never fails. The reason many people don't make it is because, when things get bad, they give up. Ps 30:5 says weeping may endure for a night, but joy will come in the morning. Does President Bush have the answer? No! Is Mr Obama the way? No! DL Moody? No! Jesus is the way. He says, 'I can still split the Red Sea because I am God. I know the number of hairs on your head. I hear your prayers and feel your pain.' You can get nothing from God unless you take the limits off him. Just because it ain't happened yet doesn't mean it ain't gonna happen.

The littlest singer

Pastor Michael Smith of Victory Deliverance Center delivers the word.

Pastor Linda Smith prayed

People at the altar

Pastor Johnny Pucket spoke.

After it had not rained in Israel for 3½ years, the prophet Elijah prayed for rain. He had to pray seven times, but it rained. If God got something for you, you gotta believe it – trust him. Tell somebody, 'It's mine because I'm taking the limits off God.' Ps 78:37, they were not steadfast, so they limited God.

The book of Ecclesiastes says there is a time for everything. When a preacher is preaching, you need to be taking notes so you will have something to live by. What you want to keep is not how much the preacher runs, dances, shouts, or speaks in tongues, but what comes from this word.

"I'm taking the limits off God. He can do exceedingly, abundantly beyond all we ask or even think because of the power he works in me. The Holy Ghost will lead you, guide you into all truth. How do you know you have the Holy Ghost? You know because he bears witness to Jesus. God can and I'm fixin' to open the can and get the goodies. "The Bible says, 'where the Spirit of the Lord is, there is liberty.' Take the limits off God. God says I can have more than enough, so I will have more than enough. Ps 91 says a thousand may fall at my side and 10,000 at my right hand, but it shall not come near me. Pray for the peace of Israel. "Anyone who needs prayer, come forward."

him you must revere. There is far too little reverence in the church today; people don't mind yacking right in the sanctuary during the service. They will play and text on their cell phone. II Cor 13:5, examine yourselves. Heb 6:10, God is not unjust; he's not gonna forget all that you've done for his people and the love you've shown him. Jesus was a servant. In John 13, he washed the feet of his talmidim (disciples)."

Pastor Donna washed the feet of Ms Gail Shipman and Ms Dawn Ali to imitate Jesus.

Walk out the Wholeness

If we worship God when things are going wrong – worship him for who he is – he will show up.

People stood as Pastor Linda opened in prayer.

"We use the word 'saved.' In Greek the word is sozo (pron sode zoe). In Rom 10:1, & 9 -13, the apostle Paul uses the word 'saved' three times, but the Greek words there are different. In Rom 10:9 & 13, the word is sosthenes (pron sose-then-ace), it means safe & strength. In 10:1 it is soteria (pron so-tay-ree-ah), which means to save, rescue, deliver, safety, health, salvation, saving. This is the meaning we are usually concerned with.

"It means whole, healed, restored, delivered. Every sickness and disease has to go because that is part of what Jesus accomplished on that cross. Scripture says he made us whole. But we have to we have to walk out the wholeness. When God the Father looks at us, it is through his son. Therefore, he sees us as his son. We are the righteousness of Christ.

Beverly sang Touch Me again, Lord

Cecil sang I'm gonna Take a Trip.

Pastor Tony brought the word.

"In life we get damaged, but part of our soteria is restoration. Is 53:5-10, Jesus took everything we deserved. Therefore, we shall have soteria. We broke the law and deserved the curse, but he took that for us. When Adam and Khawwah (Eve) sinned, the fellowship with God was broken. Jesus restored that relationship with the Father. He saved us to put that relationship back.

"Before the foundation of the world, God knew man would sin. When he saved us, he said, 'don't worry; I got ya.' He restored that relationship. We do not have to go to a priest to confess anything; Jesus is our Cohen Gadol – our High Priest. He wants us to praise him. The Bible says we're commanded to. If you want to see him move, raise him. The Father wanted to have that relationship back. That's why Jesus went to the cross.

The Father is only a prayer away. He wants us to thank him, to praise him. I don't want some rocks crying out for me; I will praise him.

"If we want the full benefit of that wholeness, we have to walk out the wholeness.

"In I Sam 30: 6, David first found strength in the Lord his God. Then he asked God what to do and everything was recovered.

"Jesus did the work on Golgotha and he deserves every ounce of the praise. No matter what battle you face, he will be there with you. God will move in our circumstances when we praise him. After all he did, the least you can do is praise him.

"When people make me angry, I think, 'What did Jesus do?' He did all that for me; the least I could do is praise him. He wakes me up at 0200 and I praise him, talk to him. If we are not praising him, praying, and reading his word, we are missing it. That is why the church in America is in such bad shape. Nothing I am going through compares to what he went through. He rose victorious on the third day, and we will be victorious as long as we lift our hands and praise him.

Knowing the Hebrew and Greek is so important to understanding his word. If you don't know it, learn how to find it and you will understand better than you ever have."

Pastors Tony & Linda pray over Courtney. Trip Wire, Watch Out!

"Phil 2:1-5, the Holy Ghost is the preacher. V<sub>2</sub> says, 'fulfill my joy that you be like-minded, having the same love, being of one accord, of one mind.' We must be unified, but God knows everyone here. Do you need to be revived, renewed, resuscitated? Then you will be.

"This is Paul speaking and he is coming from Phil 1:27. In Phil 2:1-2, he says, 'If there be any consolation, fulfill my joy.' In 1:27 we see that he is addressing them because of external conflict, which is causing disunity. We see this today – murmuring, complaining, back biting. People do not want you to tell them to come out of their sin – smoking, sleeping around. If you are in sin, you are wrong. It must change.

The Whole Body of Christ Alliance

is a body of believers from many Christian congregations, denominations, and ministries that work together for unity in the body of Christ; not all under one pastor, but as individual organ systems in a single body. We seek unity in the body of Christ, not one world religion. As the Bible instructs us, we are to work together synergistically, not against each other, nor are we to be independent of one another. No organ functioning on its own will survive very long.

If you wish to have an article published in the BATTLEFIELD NEWS or have a comment on anything you read in it, contact us. Your article may be published. Be sure to keep a copy of it since it will not be returned to you. Nor will you receive any financial compensation for it.

Most things in this 104th edition are not copyrighted materials. All ministries are encouraged to reproduce all or any part of it for God's purposes.

If the WBCA has not contacted your church or pastor, and your body of believers would be included, we will get to your church eventually, but don't wait until next year. The Lord may come for his bride before that. Contact us.

of Christ Alliance. Let us never allow it to be changed. We are named what we have been for good reason. Don't allow anyone to change your name. My name is Joseph, not Joe. Pastor Angel – I love it. Pastor Rick has done a good work; he has brought together over fifty churches. What can I contribute to make it better? Where would we meet like this without the alliance? God brought this man and a lot of blessings to this alliance. "When Jesus prayed in John 17 for unity, he gave us a map to work toward in one accord. Carry your Bible into church, not your cell phone. The first text book in America was the Bible. When any school or university was built, the first room made was the chapel. Now our children are going to schools and universities with wicked professors and wicked teachers. I meet people who treat the Bible like any ordinary book, or even like rubbish because of going to one of those schools. Our children have been influenced by these wicked institutions now for some years and now it is reflected in their very physical appearance. Lev 19:28 says do not get tattoos, 'You shall not make any cuttings on your flesh for the dead, nor print any marks upon you.' Yet it is almost impossible in America to find a person under forty with tattoos.

"Why do nearly all young people have them? It is because most of the preachers are afraid to tell them. They will tell you, 'Everybody does it.' They will tell you, 'That's Old Testament.' Well, II Tim is New Testament and it says 'all scripture is God-breathed and is valuable for teaching the truth...' Paul wrote this when there was no New Testament, only the Old.

"In August of 2020, we will celebrate ten years of the WBCA. We must not celebrate in one day, but over a week.

"Any Christian that says that speaking in tongues is evil or unacceptable is a wicked Christian. Read I Cor 12, 13 and 14. These three chapters are meant to be read together. Try it.

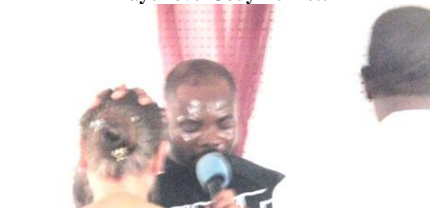

"Who is not a racist? Raise your hand. We are all racists. The only ones who have ever called me a nigger are blacks. If a white man says it to you, you call him a racist. We are all racists. I am black and I have a right to vote for a black man, but if a white man says he will vote for a white man, he is a racist? We are all racists.

"The alliance is good. It unites us all. But if we go against the word of God, then he will disallow it, as he did with those at Babel. They were in wicked unity. We need to work for unity, but it must be based on the word of God. If not, God will make sure we become confused, just like at Babel. If my message offends you, it's okay; when you see me, just love me and say you're not going to listen to anything I say. Any unity we are building outside the word of God, he will stop it."

change that happened on the inside. If you get mad at God and start to act out, you are still a man or woman of God and the devil knows it. I found myself in jail, where I met these guys. "A man, I don't remember who, once said that the number of those who were saved and remained Christians after 20 years was 11% (These were of people saved at a Billy Graham crusade). What God said to me to do was to clean people's shoes (foot washing serves no practical purpose today, since people don't wear sandals and walk everywhere they go), clean toilets, and preach. So that is what I do. What God has impressed upon me is an awakening. That is why I am so interested in history. If we would see an awakening, there are things that must be addressed. The Whole Body of Christ Alliance is doing that.

The reverend Greg Brockman of NGR Outreach was the main speaker.

Rabbi Rick Sipe conducted the love offering & introduced Jody Bennett.

Jody Bennett of the Battlefield News provided the closing remarks and opened the altar for those who desired prayer.

"The Azusa street revival began before there was a Pentecostal awakening because the Baptists and the Methodists were praying for revival. Often the very people who pray for revival are the same people who reject it when it comes. The P'rushim (Pharisees) prayed for Messiah to come, but then rejected Jesus. The same thing happened with the Brownsville revival. It was the same way at Azusa Street.

"You can preach, but if someone's baby is sick, you need God's power. For there to be an awakening, there must be an awakening, in other words, a light must come on. I can get a revelation and share it with you, but I cannot give you a revelation. Only God does that. Praise God for that 11%. We all (Baptists, Presbyterians, Methodists, Messianics, Pentecostals, Nazarenes) have been taught to use the 'Sinner's Prayer.' I'm not saying it is wrong, but if all you are getting is 11% something is wrong. Where it ends up all too often is just being something they're saying because there is no revelation. 'Where there is no revelation, the people perish. They don't know they have to repent, or much of anything else because we almost never follow up like Jesus said to do and make them into disciples; they're just being told to 'repeat after me.'

"That's what we do, go forward with what everybody else does, but there is no revelation and, therefore, no power. I will never tell someone that they are saved. Look back in history in the days of the first great awakening. George Whitfield was asked how many were saved and he answered, 'I will tell you in a few years when I come back from England.' Look for the fruit!

"I won't say that I will never use the sinner's prayer; I'm just saying it is not my M.O. I did not get saved in church. I got saved in my bedroom with 1/16 ounce of dope in my pocket. That was the time Jesus showed up. Why don't I try to have people be saved as I was saved? I do tell them about it, and the story causes many to weep because they do want to meet the King of kings.

"I want to see God show up and do things. In Brownsville, God showed up and a man's severed hand grew back. For this kind of thing, we must give up some things.

Jason Pardue prayed over Sandra Dixon

Dana Pardue prayed over Sunseegray (Sunny) VanZant of the Gathering Church in Hoboken, New Jersey.

"if you use the sinner's prayer with 15 people and five stay saved, great, but that is not the way it was done years ago in churches. We have to slay some of the golden calves. II Peter says if the righteous scarcely saved, what about the unrighteous? We need to pray, 'God, show me that golden calf and I will slay it.' I was doing meth and God saved me. That is when my forever wife left me saying, 'You are not the man I married.' Later on, however, she did get saved. When I got saved, I was in my bedroom calling out to Jesus. I told my friend about it and he said, 'You got saved.' I used to read my Bible smoking a joint and the Lord said, 'You gonna smoke that and go to church?' I looked through the Bible to see where it said it was a sin to smoke pot. At the time I did not now about witchcraft and Pharmakeia and all, so I questioned the Lord about it. I said, 'If something is wrong with smoking it, I wanna know. I don't care what religious people think, but I do care what you think.'

"I was reading Romans smoking a joint and I read where Paul said in 14:14, 'I know, and am persuaded by the Lord Jesus, that there is nothing unclean of itself.' I got really happy. Then I read, and received the revelation, 'but to him that esteemeth any thing to be unclean, to him it is unclean.' Woops! There it was!

"With the 'Lord's Prayer,' Jesus was trying to get us to dialogue with the Father because we just use his words without engaging him. Don't forget Witches and warlocks use the things written in the Bible more than any other book because those things are powerful. If we are doing the same thing and we are his people, what does that mean for us? In the 'prayer of Jabez,' it says Jabez was more honorable. Why? He was more honorable because he spoke directly to God; He engaged him. That is what David did. He did not wait to go to temple for it. Jesus told us that when the sheep are separated from the goats, some will say, 'I healed and Cast out devils in your name,' but he will say, 'I never knew you.'

"How can we announce thousands were saved when there is no fruit? For unity we must lay down some of these things, slay these golden calves. There is a lost world out there. Jesus was willing to be rejected. I don't like it; it hurts my feelings.

If we are gonna reach a dying world, we have to be rejected.

"People reject revival because they do not want to change. At Azusa street, people who claimed to be the people of God worked to bring that incredible revival to a halt because they did not want blacks and whites worshiping together. In the 60s and 70s the church prayed for revival and the Jesus Hippy movement came. Those 'Jesus Freaks' were told to get out of the church. They rejected revival that they had prayed for because they refused to change. At one of the most incredible revivals of the 20th century in Brownsville, Florida, the mainstream denominations rejected the revival that they had prayed for because they could not come together, inasmuch as they did not want a Messianic Rabbi preaching to 'their sheep.' That is what stopped that revival. What will you do if homosexuals come into your church? We must be careful how we treat those Jesus died for."

concert and the purpose of the WBCA, "We are presently 55 churches that have come together to do the work that it takes to bring the whole body of Christ together into one body."

Rick Hempton of Victory Deliverance Center opened the service.

The Mitchells, Shirley & Jerry opened with I saw the Light

"I thought," said Jerry Mitchell, host of the concert, MC, and performer with the Mitchells, "when Brother Rick was talking, about a time 25 years ago: five churches came together for a tent revival and that is where I got saved." Jerry and Shirley Mitchell began with I Saw the Light. Shirley Mitchell sang One More Valley. Jerry Mitchell introduced Jon Bryant with Going Higher.

Sandra Rides Again

On Saturday 7 September there was another great coffee house. As always at Sandra’s, there was coffee at no charge as well as enough food to go there and eat supper.

Pastor Larry Percifield of Leap of Faith was MC of Sandra’s

The shofar was sounded as a call to assemble just before Rabbi Rick Sipe opened the service in prayer. He also read prayers from Ma’ariv evening prayers, specifically Kedushat Hashem (the holiness of God’s name) and the Kedushah (holiness). The shofar was blown again to consummate God’s plan on Earth. In other words, “Your will be done on Earth as it is in Heaven.”

Rabbi Rick Sipe of Ruach Adonai Alai

Wayne Heath provided the musical portion of the coffee house.

Wayne Heath sang several songs for the people, then he gave his testimony on what God brought him through. He was involved in a terrible car accident. “I told the EMT (Emergency Medical Technician) on the way to the hospital,” Wayne explained to the people at Sandra’s, “that I was saved from death by the passenger in my car.” ““The young man told me, ‘Sir, you were the only one in the vehicle.’ That’s when I knew that the passenger was Jesus.”

Baby John Paul watches the food being prepared.

Mmmm mmmm!

John Paul & Breanna watch Sandra

The people at Sandra’s corporately anointed and prayed over Ms Ellie Cooper and she stood in proxy for Sharon Bryant of Everything Under the Sun in Hoschton. Sharon was still in the hospital. With this, Pastor Larry Percifield of Leap of Faith Ministries gave a testimony about having stood in proxy for someone else once. Later it was discovered that God had healed the man at the exact time that Larry stood in for him.

Rabbi Rick Sipe read a composition of his from 2007 entitled I Walk with an Awesome God: I walk with an awesome God. He walks with me. He has 187 Hebrew names. Here are just a few: Yehovah, Elohim, Adonai, and Yahweh. I chose Yehovah because it means “The God who reveals.” I walk with Yehoveh. He walks with me. He is my peace. There is nothing missing, nothing broken and nothing lacking. He reveals “I will keep those in perfect peace who keep their minds stayed upon me” I walk with Yehovah Yireh. He walks with me. He is my provision. He reveals that "He will meet all my needs according to his riches in glory" I walk with Yehovah Ropheka He walks with me. He reveals to me that he is the "The God that Healeth me." I walk with Yehovah Tsidkenu He walks with me. He reveals to me that he is my righteousness. "I have obtained my righteousness by my faith in Yeshua Ha Maschiach." I walk with Yehovah Rohi. He walks with me. He reveals to me that "He is the Lord my shepherd." I walk with Yehovah Nissi He walks with me. He reveals to me "He is my victory, my banner, and my miracle." I walk with Yehovah Shammah He walks with me. He is omnipresent. He reveals "I will never leave you nor forsake you" I walk with the God of my redemption. In him I have my peace, my provision, my healing, my righteousness. He leads me and guides me. I have his victory and he is always with me. I walk with Him by the pillar of cloud by day and the pillar of fire by night, that never leaves me. We walk by day. We walk by night. I walk with him he walks with me. We keep walking. I walk with the King of Kings and the Lord of Lords, and as long as I walk with him, and not contrary to him, I am complete and have all things. I walk with an awesome God. He walks with me.

Ms Helen Jackson

Ms Helen Jackson of Braselton Tabernacle of Praise summarized the evening with scripture to wrap up the coffee house like a present.

Benefit Miracle (from pg 1) something about it. Pastor Carol Patman has been trying since last year to get the church fixed back up so that the doors can be reopened and church can be held there again. The WBCA has sent inspectors in to assess the damage and it appears that it will be expensive, but not impossible to fix. That was the first step. Other steps will be taken. One of those other steps is the benefit concert that was done to raise money for the repairs.

The King Family opened the benefit

Deena King plays guitar & does vocals.

Grail King plays Keyboard & Bass

Pastor Joseph Essiful-Ansah opened Christ the King to hold the benefit in. People from the WBCA came to support Pastor Carol and the people at Miracle Deliverance Commerce.

The King Family volunteered their time and considerable talent for the event. Grail & Deena King were at Christ the King on Saturday 14 September to open the concert. Deena and Grail opened with Walking Miracle, which they were requested to perform a second time. "Aren't you glad he knows your name?" Deena asked the people. They then performed He Knows My Name. "There's only one perfect," Deena said, "and his name is Jesus Christ."

Dr Rick initiated the offering for Miracle Deliverance

Herman Parks prayed over the offering

Eric Johnson of War Hill South was the second performer.

Eric Johnson played Blessed be the Name of the Lord, followed by original tunes Jesus take hold of me and Saved by the Blood of Jesus.

The reverend James Mays of Sons Under the Light prayed for Pastor Carol Patman and her people.

The musicians layed hands on Dr Mary and prayed that she would have anointed music when she plays at Carnegie Hall.

Dr Mary Neal of One People Ministries closed in prayer.

On the Horizon (from pg 1) and once again in October (21-27 October) the seven-day revival will return. It is always in January, April, July, and October, and came in February of 2011 from a vision God gave to Pastor Russell Page of Kingdom Realm. God showed Pastor Russell a revival that lasted seven days and each night was at a different church in the alliance, which had been growing since August of 2010. The first seven-day revival occurred in April of 2011 and has been going once a quarter since then. That means there have been 34 seven-day revivals as of this month.

Dr Joseph Essiful-Ansah Pastor of Christ the King and Member board of directors WBCA

As of May of 2013, Pastor Joseph Essiful-Ansah demanded at a board meeting that the schedule for the seven-day revival be placed on the front page of the Battlefield News. The entire schedule will not fit there, but since that time, it has begun on the front page.

The reverend Jeff Carr Cross of Christ Ministries has 30 years of counseling experience. If you have gone for any counseling with a worldly counseling center, which most counseling centers are, and really needed to be helped, and got tired of worldly people telling you that you should do something that you knew was against the word of God, or telling you not to do something you know the Lord wants you to do, going to a Christian Counselor is indicated. Jeff has helped save marriages that worldly counselors said were not savable. He counsels pastors that are at the end of their rope, and all sorts of situations that many other counselors would never have accepted. If you find yourself in this kind of need, you must call Cross of Christ and Marriage Menders at (770)979-2301 and (770)985-1235. I've learned so much. She gets no help from the government. She needs your help. We are all broken vessels.

Ms Mary does need our help. ### Bible Knowledge

By: Mateo Raza

There are two car shows coming up in October, one on the 12th at Kingdom Life Refuge at 1200 and one on the 19th at 1000. That's fantastic. Now let's get to the answers to the August questions:

A Bevy of Priests

1: Jehoiada. II King 12:9

2: Josiah. II King 23:5

3: Ezra & Ezekiel

4: Luke (he actually wrote the book of Acts as well)

5: Leviticus

<https://www.facebook.com/bestofchristianpage> www.christianworld.info

I DECLARE A BLESSING OVER YOU AND YOUR FAMILY, IN THE NAME OF JESUS!

6: Nadab & Abihu. Num 3:4

7: El Azar (Eliazar), Aaron's son. Num 3:32

8: Malkitzedek (pron Mal-ki-tze-dek) (Melchizedek) Heb 7:2

9: Jethro, also called Reuel. Ex 18:13-27

10: Malkitzedek. Gen 14:18

11: Malkitzedek (Melchizedek)

12: The question was, "where in the Bible does one find, 'the seven deadly sins?'"

The answer is that the "seven deadly sins" is not a biblical term, but rather a term from English literature. The term "seven deadly sins" is not found in the Bible. Nevertheless, they are Pride, covetousness, Lust, Anger, Gluttony, Envy and Sloth (laziness). These are often confused with the "works of the flesh" that Paul the apostle enumerates in Gal 5:19-21, but as one quickly sees, there are 17 of these, not seven. These are adultery fornication, uncleanness (impurity, for instance a nasty mouth), lasciviousness (lewdness, debauchery), idolatry, witchcraft (Greek: Pharmakeia – sorcery/drugs), hatred, variance (contentiousness or discord), emulations (jealousy), wrath (outbursts & fits of rage; anger of itself is not a sin), strife (selfish ambition), sedition (dissentions), heresies, envy, murder, drunkenness, reveling (revelry, orgies) and there are 18 if you count "And the like."

I have seen that some folks get Prov 6:16-19 mixed up with the seven deadly sins because there are seven of them: "There are six things, yes, seven are an abomination (anything hateful or disgusting) to him: A proud look (or haughty eyes, ie pride), a lying tongue, hands that shed innocent blood, a heart that devises wicked plans, feet quick to rush into evil, a false witness, whoever sows discord between brothers.

Because there are seven of them, people confuse them with the seven deadly sins, but as you can see, only pride is on both lists.

CHANGE WHAT YOU'RE SOWING TO CHANGE WHAT YOU'RE REAPING

Now for the September questions:

A Bevy of Priests

1: Who was priest during Joshua's conquest of Canaan?

2: What priest had the boy Jehoash proclaimed king, and brought about the death of wicked queen Athaliah?

3: What priest scolded a distressed woman because he thought she had been drinking before she came to the tabernacle?

4: The cohen gadol (high priest) of Israel wore a breastplate with 12 stones upon it. What was engraved upon the stones?

5: What two priests whom the Bible call "sons of Belial," would take the meat to be sacrificed to God for themselves?

6: What reformer priest was murdered by order of King Joash, who was a pupil of the priest's father?

7: What priest had a son named I-chabod, a name meaning the glory has departed?

Goze estos hasta la proxima vez (enjoy until next time)
