NETANYAHU WANTS TRUMP'S HELP WITH PEACE AGREEMENT

During a speech at Bar Ilan University in 2009, Israeli Prime Minister Benjamin Netanyahu called for a two-state solution between Israelis and Palestinians. Since then, many people have accused Netanyahu of claiming he is for two states for two people while actually pushing to create one state under Israeli control.

In a recent interview with Lesley Stahl of 60 Minutes, Netanyahu said, "I haven't reversed my position. I've said, 'Look, we will solve this because we want two nation-states at peace and with the proper security arrangements.' Two states for two peoples...that is where I'm focused."

He then went on to say, "I'd like to have President Trump, when he gets into the White House, help me work on that. I'd like to see if the Arab states can help me achieve that. It's a new reality. A new possibility."

President-Elect Donald Trump has stated that he wants to try to broker a peace agreement between Israel and the Palestinians. He said that arranging peace in the Middle East would be the biggest deal anyone could ever achieve.

The Bible prophesies there is going to be a peace agreement between Israelis and Palestinians. Furthermore, when this peace agreement is achieved, it will mark the beginning of the Final Seven Years to the Battle of Armageddon and the Second Coming of Jesus to the earth.

We have to ask the question, "Could the Final Seven Years to Armageddon begin during the presidency of Donald Trump?" It certainly is a strong possibility! 📌

U.S. Embassy Moved to Jerusalem?

President-elect Donald Trump boldly promised to move the American Embassy in Israel to Jerusalem. Congress passed a law in 1995 mandating this move. However, they left a loop-hole. They said the president could ask for a waiver from this law if he felt it would endanger national security. It is required that this waiver be renewed every 6 months. Since the law was passed in 1995 every president has enacted the waiver in order to avoid moving the embassy to Jerusalem. If President Trump does what he has said he will do, this will produce a major shift in the Middle East equation.

Trump has stated that he will attempt to negotiate a peace agreement between the Israelis and the Palestinians. He says this would be the deal of all deals, and, of course, he's the person that wrote the book "The Art of the Deal." He may well attempt to move quickly to achieve a Middle East peace agreement so that he can move our embassy to Jerusalem as part of that agreement.

America will Turn Away from Globalism

The world has been moving rapidly away from the nation-state structure to a system of global governance ever since the fall of the Berlin Wall. The process has been called globalization or globalism. World leaders have encouraged open borders and free immigration policies. The number one issue in the recent presidential campaign was globalism vs. national sovereignty. Hillary Clinton unequivocally endorsed open borders while Donald Trump championed building a wall so that we could enforce our borders.

The Bible prophesies a system of world government for the times just ahead. Revelation 13:1-2 describes the world government of the end time. It prophesies that the end time kingdom of the Antichrist will be made up of Germany (the leopard), Russia (the bear), Great Britain (the lion) and a ten-nation alliance out of Europe symbolized by the ten horns. The one major world power absent from this end time world government prophecy is the United States (the eagle). However, the eagle is depicted in Revelation 12:14 as protecting Israel from the Antichrist and Satan in the end times. From these two passages, we can conclude that America is going to turn away from globalism, as Donald Trump has promised, and will remain Israel's best friend. It appears that Trump's victory in the recent election will move America toward the fulfillment of these prophecies.

Protestants and Catholics Move Toward Global Religion

The clearest prophecy describing the world government of the end time is given in Revelation chapter 17. It shows the seven-headed, ten-horned world government beast of Revelation thirteen with a woman riding on its back. Who is this woman?

We are given six specific clues as to the identity of the woman of Revelation 17.

REVELATION 17
FORETELLS AN ALLIANCE
BETWEEN THE POLITICAL POWERS OF EUROPE AND
THE RELIGIOUS POWER
OF ROMAN CATHOLICISM
AND HER PROTESTANT DAUGHTERS.

The woman is a city.

REVELATION 17:18

The city sits on seven hills.

REVELATION 17:9

The city presides over a vast international system.

REVELATION 17:15

The woman is dressed in purple and red.

REVELATION 17:4

The woman was drunken with the blood of the saints.

REVELATION 17:6

The woman has daughters.

REVELATION 17:5

There's only one city on earth that fulfills all six of these clues.

1. Rome is a city.
2. Rome is known as the "City of Seven Hills."
3. The church believes the pope should be ruler of the world. When the pope is crowned, he is declared to be the father of princes and kings of the earth, the ruler of the world, the vicar of our Savior Jesus Christ on earth.
4. There are two ruling bodies of the Roman Catholic Church: the College of Cardinals and the College of Bishops and Archbishops. It is the official policy of the church that Cardinals wear red while Bishops and non-Cardinal Archbishops wear purple.
5. The dam broke on the Reformation in the 16th century. Attempting to stem the hemorrhage from the church, Catholicism moved against its enemies by force. Millions were killed by burning at the stake and by many other forms of torture. During that time, the woman was indeed “drunken with the blood of the saints.”

6. When the Protestants broke away from the Catholic Church, the Council of Trent was held condemning many practices of the Protestants. The feud between Catholicism and Protestantism continued unabated for the next 400 years. However, in the 20th century the Roman Church switched its tactics. In 1962-1965, Vatican Council II was held. Out of that ecumenical council, the church issued the following statement: “We the Mother Church our opening our arms for all of our daughters to return home.” Since that time, the Roman Church has referred to Protestants as her daughters.

Beyond all doubt, the woman on the back of the beast is apostate Roman Catholicism!

The prophecy of the woman riding the 7-headed, 10-horned beast in Revelation 17 foretells an alliance between the political powers of Europe and the religious power of Roman Catholicism and her Protestant daughters. It will be nothing short of the alliance between the Antichrist and his religious partner, the False Prophet.

It is hoped by many that the planned return of Protestants to the Catholic fold will be completed in the year 2017. Martin Luther nailed his 95 Theses to the door of the church at Wittenberg, Germany in 1517. Consequently, the 500th anniversary of the Protestant Reformation will be commemorated in the coming year. It is the goal of many Catholic and Protestant leaders to declare the end of the “protest” and the healing of the divisions in Christianity. Many prominent Christian leaders plan to travel to Rome during the coming year for the purpose of signing a statement of unity, of faith and purpose with the Vatican.

This unification of Catholicism and Protestantism through compromise is clearly prophesied in Revelation 17:5.

Fortunately, another thing is prophesied as well. In the very next chapter, Revelation 18:4, Jesus issued the warning: “...Come out of her, my people, that ye be not partakers of her sins, and that ye receive not of her plagues.” While apostate Christianity is moving toward an alliance with the world government of the Antichrist, true Christians will be separating from this unholy alliance and will be moving back to Biblical Christianity.

WWIII?

Revelation 9:13-16 prophesies a war that will kill one-third of mankind. The prophecy states that this war will begin from the Euphrates River. The Euphrates begins in Turkey, flows down through Syria, then all the way through Iraq, and finally empties into the Persian Gulf along the Iraq-Iran border. This is the area from which an unprecedented war will begin, wiping out one-third of the world’s population. Turkey, Syria, Iraq and Iran are all Islamic nations. It is obvious that Islam will be heavily involved in the greatest war the world has ever known.

ISIS captured approximately 40% of the Euphrates in 2014. Battles have raged up and down the Euphrates River since that time. In December 2015 Russia and the United States entered into a secret agreement. They agreed that Russian forces would fight ISIS on the west side of the Euphrates while U.S. forces would fight ISIS on the east side of the Euphrates. This has resulted in Russia and America, the world’s two greatest nuclear powers, fighting up and down the Euphrates River at this present time.

In order for the present conflict to expand into WWIII something will have to spark the broadening of the conflict. None of us want this to happen, but it is going to happen. The only question is: “When?” Will it be in the coming year of 2017?

World Continues Toward Cashless Society

Revelation 13:16-18 prophesies that, in the end time, a system will be set up requiring a person to have a mark or number without which they will be unable to buy or sell. This prophecy could only come to pass since the invention of the computer and the Internet.

Our world is moving rapidly toward conducting purchases electronically instead of using cash. For example, Sweden has 1,600 banks. Nine hundred of them will not receive cash deposits nor can you get any cash from them. As a result, the number of bank robberies in Sweden plunged from 110 in 2008 to 16 in 2011. Furthermore, many of Sweden’s businesses now are refusing to deal in cash at all. Cash transactions are down to just three percent of the national economy.

In Canada, as of January 1, 2013 no more new Canadian currency is being printed. Why? 56% of Canadians would prefer to use a digital wallet than cash. Also, Canada is a world leader in plastic payment, where payment by credit, debit and bankcards is almost 70 percent.

Starting out as a very cash dependent society, the South Korean government has successfully put into place policies to encourage cashless behavior. For example, South Korea introduced a preferential VAT treatment for consumers who pay with cards, moving the share of cash from 40 percent to 25 percent within four years from 2002 to 2006. The Bank of Korea is now planning for a “cashless society” in South Korea by 2020.

This trend is sweeping through most other countries as well. A huge percentage of people in our world now receive their paychecks by direct deposit and many more pay their bills electronically.

However, the cashless society is not without side effects. If cash disappears from our hands, all of the monetary transactions will be done on the Internet. Just as freedom is accompanied by responsibility, convenience is followed by a cost called surveillance. The end of cash means the start of the ‘Big Brother’ era.

There’s no doubt about it. The world is preparing for the prophesied Mark of the Beast and will continue to do so during 2017! E

PROOFS THE END TIME IS NOW!

We are presently at the end of the time of human government and near the time of the establishment of the Kingdom of God upon earth. BY DAVE ROBBINS

Here are nine specific things prophesied for the end time that are in the process of happening right now!

A war will begin from the vicinity of the Euphrates River that will kill one-third of the human race.

(Revelation 9:13-16)

1 The Euphrates River is located in Turkey, Syria, Iraq and Iran—all states dominated by Islam. ISIS has captured approximately forty percent of the Euphrates River in the last two years. Meanwhile, the world's two nuclear superpowers, Russia and the United States, have forces fighting against ISIS on either side of the Euphrates. Russia is attacking ISIS on the west side of the Euphrates while the U.S. is fighting against ISIS on the east side. With the world's two leading superpowers encamped on either side of the Euphrates River, the stage is certainly set for the Euphrates River War prophesied in Revelation 9.

Although ISIS originated in this Euphrates River region, it now appears to have spread globally.

According to the prophecies, this war is coming. It's only a matter of "When". Some believe it has already begun!

A Palestinian-Israeli peace agreement will signal the beginning of the Final Seven Years to Armageddon and the Second Coming of Jesus.

2 The Final Seven Years will begin when the Antichrist and the International Community give their support to Israel's right to exist in the land promised to Abraham by God. (Genesis 15:18) This is called the confirmation of the covenant. (Daniel 9:27)

Israel's Prime Minister Benjamin Netanyahu has openly stated that the number one goal of his administration is to obtain the support of the International Community for Israel's final borders. He openly embraced the "two-state solution" in his famous "Bar Ilan" speech of 2009.

There is a belief in the International Community that if Israel and the Palestinians cannot reach a settlement, the World Community should formulate a peace plan and insist that both sides accept it.

A peace agreement is coming. When it happens, the Final Seven Years to the Battle of Armageddon will begin.

The West Bank (Judea), in Israel, will become a place of great tribulation.

(Matthew 24:15-21)

3 In 1948, when the Jordanians invaded the West Bank in an attempt to destroy the new nation of Israel as soon as it was born, they drove out every Jewish person living there. Consequently, there were zero Jews living in the West Bank when Israel reclaimed the territory in 1967.

When the Jordanians were driven back into their own country, Jews began to return to their homes. Many other Jews built homes on unoccupied ground. Those homes multiplied into settlements and then ultimately became towns that are referred to as settlements. As a result, there are around 800,000 Jews living in Judea-Samaria today.

It is this West Bank territory where Palestinians want to establish their Palestinian state. But, what do they do with the Jews who live there?

In a speech to a Joint Meeting of the U.S. Congress in 2011, Netanyahu stated, "In any peace agreement that ends the conflict, some settlements will end up beyond Israel's borders."

Former Palestinian Prime Minister Salaam Fayyad offered a solution to the problem. He said the Jews could remain in the new Palestinian state just like there are Arabs living in the Israeli state.

Israeli Prime Minister Benjamin Netanyahu has stated that, as a result of a future peace agreement, he would be willing to allow Israelis to remain in the West Bank under Palestinian rule.

When the prophesied peace agreement is finally concluded, this is the solution to the settlement problem that will be implemented. The arrangement will work for three and one-half years. Jesus prophesied that at that time the Palestinians would turn on the Jews living among them and would begin to slaughter them. This will trigger the time known as the Great Tribulation. The peace plans presently under consideration will set the stage for this prophecy to be fulfilled.

The Temple Mount in Jerusalem will be placed under a sharing arrangement between Jew and Gentile.

(Revelation 11:1-2)

4 On November 1, 2013, Bayit Yehudi (Jewish Home Party) introduced a bill to the Israeli Knesset that would place the Temple Mount under a sharing arrangement. If enacted, this bill would allow Jews and Muslims to worship and pray on the Temple Mount equally. This potentially explosive bill is still under consideration.

The Jewish temple will be built on the Temple Mount. (Revelation 11:1-2; II Thessalonians 2:3-4)

5 In March 2016, the Temple Institute initiated a plan to identify, select and register kohanim-priests who would be eligible to take part in the process of preparing the Red Heifer, which is used in the ritual of purification of those who would perform Torah-based commandments.

“For the first time in 2,000 years,” said Rabbi Chaim Richman, “after miraculously returning to the Land of Israel, we are beginning the process of reinstating the Biblical purity of the Jewish priesthood.”

Furthermore, all the furniture for Israel’s Third Temple is now complete.

The Temple Mount will be placed under the supervision of the World Community and the leader of the World Community, which will at that time be the Antichrist. The Antichrist will stand on the Temple Mount claiming to be God.

(II Thessalonians 2:3-4)

6 When President Bill Clinton was leading negotiations between Yasser Arafat and Israeli Prime Minister Ehud Barak at Camp David in July 2000, the talks stalled on the issue of the Temple Mount. Arafat said the Muslims just couldn’t give it up. Barak said that the Muslims had their first holy site in Mecca and their second holy site in Medina. He argued that the Jews didn’t even have their first holy site.

However, Arafat was adamant. We can’t give it up, he contended. Finally, President Clinton said, “You can just share it.”

Arafat said, “It won’t work. You can’t put Jews and Arabs on the same 35 acres without them killing each other.”

Barak replied that it could work. He said, “We could simply put the Temple Mount under the supervision of an international authority – possibly the United Nations.”

When the UN takes control of the Temple Mount, the leader of the world government will feel justified in claiming ultimate authority there.

A world government will dominate the world for three and one-half years prior to Armageddon. (Daniel 7:23; Revelation 13:7) 7 The nations of the world are increasingly recognizing the authority of international law. We now have the World Bank, the World Trade Organization, the World Health Organization and the World Court, just to name a few. We have a World Court to adjudicate the international laws of the emerging world government.

Globalization, sustainable development, International Community, global governance, New World Order, global political authority, and United Nations are all modern terms used to describe the world government.

Each person on earth will be required to have a mark or a number in order to buy or sell. (Revelation 13:16-18)

8 First, such a system has never been possible until right now. Only with the invention of the computer and the birth of the Internet could this prophecy be fulfilled. I wonder how the writer of Revelation knew to predict such a system way back in 96 AD?

Secondly, just such a system is being implemented in the United States and in most other countries on earth right now.

On May 11, 2005, President Bush signed the Real ID Act. The law requires that every American must have a national ID card. The final deadline for enforcement of a national ID card in America is October 1, 2020.

Without this card, a person will not be able to fly on a plane, hold a job or open a bank account. Without a job or a bank account, how much buying and selling will an individual be able to do? Oh, by the way, you can’t get your card without giving your number...your social security number.

Most of the world’s nations have a national ID card required for employment. It is considered the best way to control illegal immigration. If people can’t get jobs, the basic reason for illegally entering your country is eliminated.

The World Community, led by Russia and Iran, will invade the nation of Israel. (Zechariah 14:2-4; Ezekiel 38 & 39)

9 Iran (Persia) and Russia (Meshech —root word for Moscovi or Moscow) are now in alliance. Both Iran and Russia have military forces in Syria, just north of Israel’s border.

Iran is the leading advocate of “wiping Israel off the map.” Iran recently test-fired two ballistic missiles, which had the phrase, “Israel must be wiped out” written on them in Hebrew and also claimed that it had 100,000 missiles ready to hit Israel.

Could the fact that all these things prophesied for the end time are happening right now be mere coincidence? I don’t hardly think so! **!

PROPHETIC FULFILLMENTS OF 2016

By Rick Brinegar

PART 2

Gay Agenda 2016

Likewise also as it was in the days of Lot; they did eat, they drank, they bought, they sold, they planted, they builded; But the same day that Lot went out of Sodom it rained fire and brimstone from heaven, and destroyed them all. Even thus shall it be in the day when the Son of man is revealed. (Luke 17:28-30)

The Fulfillment

Same-sex marriage has been legal in the United States since June 26, 2015. It was on that day that the Supreme Court decided that same-sex marriage is protected under the Due Process and Equal Protection Clauses of the Constitution. That decision has continued to impact governmental processes, religious practices and workplace policy throughout 2016. The decision has been called, "the largest conferral of rights on LGBT

Court of Appeals agreed to vacate a lower court's injunctions against Kentucky County Clerk Kim Davis and dismiss her pending appeals, giving her a clear victory in the fight over Gay Marriage Licenses in Kentucky. U.S. District Judge David Bunning had ruled that Davis could believe what she chooses privately, but she could not exercise her "freedom of religion" publicly. Kim Davis had been jailed for refusing to issue marriage licenses to both gay and straight couples. She had proclaimed, "...to issue a marriage license which conflicts with God's definition of marriage, with my name affixed to the certificate, would violate my conscience."

Bakers Threatened

Kern's Bake Shop in Longview, Texas, became one of many LGBT rights battlegrounds in 2016. After the last quarter and second quarter sales were down $1.2 billion compared to the same time last year. Target then announced in August that it will spend $20 million to add single-stall, lockable restrooms to every Target store in the nation.

North Carolina Restroom Privacy Law

North Carolina had challenged the Obama administration's government overreach when it passed the privacy-protecting HB2 law titled the "Public Facilities Privacy & Security Act." The law is best known for requiring transgender people to use the bathroom in public buildings that match the gender on their birth certificate. In September, the Atlantic Coast Conference (ACC) pulled its football championship events from North Carolina to protest the controversial bathroom privacy people in the history of our country." The idea that same-sex marriage has been legalized tends to leave the impression, with at least half of the non-LGBT Americans surveyed in a recent Harris Poll, that Lesbian-Gay-Bisexual-Transgender people currently enjoy the same rights as everyone else. However, in 2016 LGBT activists all over the world continued to aggressively push for implementation of their sexual revolution morality through special rights protections, bans on counseling for same-sex attraction, and gender identity protections. As activists mounted a massive campaign to mock, ridicule, and shame opponents of "marriage equality", bakeries, schools, churches and even bathrooms became battlegrounds for civil rights conflicts.

Victory in Same-Sex "Marriage" Licenses Fight

In April, the Sixth U.S. Circuit

they declined to bake a wedding cake for a gay couple, Edie and David Delorme were bombarded with threats and hate mail.

Retail Giant's Bathroom Policy Ignites Outrage

Target announced on April 19, a new policy welcoming "transgender team members and guests to use the restroom or fitting room facility that corresponds with their gender identity. The American Family Association began a petition to boycott Target until the policy is changed. More than a million people joined the boycott. Rev. Franklin Graham noted in late May that "stock value has fallen 20 percent and shareholder value has lost $10 billion since they began promoting this dangerous policy." After Target had claimed that their transgender bathroom policy was not having a large impact on sales, it was announced that Target stock had fallen 9.7 percent in law. North Carolina Governor Pat McCrory responded, "...I strongly encourage all public and private institutions to both respect and allow our nation's judicial system to proceed without economic threats or political retaliation toward the 22 states that are currently challenging government overreach." Police officers have no idea how to enforce the new North Carolina transgender bathroom law. North Carolina has not had even one legal case of discrimination against transgenders using bathroom or locker-room facilities. It is a "problem" that has never existed before, and it still doesn't exist to this day.

Taking Transgenderism to the Schools

In a letter sent to every public school district in May, the Education Department of the Obama administration has issued new guidelines to allow students to use the bathroom and other facilities based on their “gender identity”, not their biological sex. Although this directive did not have the force of law, it seemed to imply that schools that do not go along with the edict could face lawsuits and/or the loss of federal aid.

Forcing LGBT on Churches

Iowa's non-discrimination requirements could block an Iowa church from the freedom to preach the gospel. The nondiscrimination requirements specify that any “public accommodation” can be ordered not to say anything that might make a homosexual or a transgender feel “unwelcome”, such as reading something which sounds condemning from the Bible.

Biblical Marriage View may Get Judge Fired

Possible dismissal and disbarment may await a Wyoming municipal judge because of her Biblical beliefs about marriage. The Wyoming Commission on Judicial Conduct and Ethics wants to remove her from her job and disqualify her for service anywhere in the Wyoming judiciary.

President Appoints Transgender to Advisory Faith Council

In May, President Obama named Barbara Satin, Assistant Faith Work Director for the National LGBTQ Task Force, to President’s Advisory Council on Faith-Based and Neighborhood Partnerships. Satin retired early at the age of 54 and began to explore his “transgender identity”. He adopted the name “Barbara Satin” full-time, explaining, “Barbara was the name of the first girl that I felt attracted to, and Satin is the fabric of my life.”

Celebrating the Same-Sex Agenda

In an article posted by the Christian Research Institute Journal, That Which is Unnatural, Joseph P. Gudel observed that the homosexual movement, “has been militantly demanding not just the homosexuals’ right to do whatever they wish to do behind closed doors, but, more importantly, that society fully accept their lifestyle as both healthy and normal, even demanding special rights and legislation as an ‘oppressed minority’.” LGBT activists want us to accept, affirm and celebrate that which we may have previously ignored or simply tolerated.

One-World Government

The Prophecy

Thus he said, The fourth beast shall be the fourth kingdom upon earth, which shall be diverse from all kingdoms, and shall devour the whole earth, and shall tread it down, and break it in pieces. (Daniel 7:23)

And I saw one of his heads as it were wounded to death; and his deadly wound was healed: and all the world wondered after the beast...And all that dwell upon the earth shall worship him, whose names are not written in the book of life of the Lamb slain from the foundation of the world. (Revelation 13:3, 8)

The Fulfillment

A small group of prominent “multinationals”, “global merchant banks” and “political power brokers”, otherwise known as the “elites”, have been working for decades behind the scenes, to set up a world government. Ultimately, they envision bringing all of Earth's inhabitants under the control of a single, global state. Generally, globalists tend to reject the role of nations in protecting values and encouraging productivity.

“We shall have world government whether or not you like it – by conquest or consent,” said James Warburg, the son of one of the founders of the Council on Foreign Relations.

“Some even believe we are part of a secret cabal, working against the best interests of the United States, characterizing my family and me as 'internationalists' and of conspiring with others around the world to build a more integrated global political and economic structure - one world, if you will. If that's the charge, I stand guilty, and I am proud of it.”
David Rockefeller.

James Warburg and David Rockefeller are just two of the many leaders who promote one-world government as the answer to global peace and security. Since mankind now has the ability to destroy itself, globalists reason, war must be eliminated. The answer, they say, is to establish a world government, eliminate nations, and place all arms under a single global authority. The world-wide realm of the Antichrist will be just such a global authority.

UN Agenda 2030 Global Socialism

The United Nations General Assembly went to the next level of implementing a communist one-world dictatorship in September 2015, by replacing the Millennium Development Goals with a new 15-year plan called, “Transforming our World: the 2030 Agenda for Sustainable Development.” It is designed to re-engineer civilization and impose global socialism on humanity. The new goals and targets of UN Agenda 2030, as it is called, came into force on January 1, 2016. Many commentators see this “new universal agenda” for humanity as the first public declaration of the long-feared “New World Order”, or the beginnings of a Absolute Proof We are Living in the Endtime!

UNDERSTANDING THE ENDTIME

LESSON 1

United States Discovered in the Bible

This lesson gives absolute proof that 2,600 years ago the U.S. was foretold in the Bible, and that it would come out of Great Britain. It includes specific prophecies about Russia, Germany, the European Union, and Great Britain. Modern nations are so clearly depicted in scripture that it will shock you! This lesson is essential to understanding all other prophecies being fulfilled.

New World Order is World Government

Have you heard of the World Court? How about the World Bank? International law? Did you know that the Bible specifically states that there will be a world government set up on earth just prior to the Second Coming of Jesus Christ? This lesson proves the New World Order is that world government, that we are subject to its laws right now, and that it is the government over which the Antichrist himself will soon rule.

Islam in Bible Prophecy - The Four Horsemen

Conversions to Islam have increased since the terrorist attacks of 9/11. Our leaders have bent over backwards to call Islam a religion of peace, even while suicide bombings continue on a regular basis. In this lesson we reveal the identities of the four horsemen of the apocalypse; the white horse, the red horse, the black horse and the pale horse, and how they are moving in our world right now. You will discover that God Himself foretold the force called Islam over 2,000 years ago.

WWIII - Entrance Ramp for the Antichrist

According to the Bible, one out of three people on the earth will die in this war of all wars! After this global holocaust people will beg for a strong man to lead the way out of the chaos and destruction and into peace and security. Such a man already exists, and at the right moment he will step onto the world scene. He will offer leadership and direction, but his price will be absolute obedience.

LESSON 5

Israel's God-Given Destiny

Why is the whole world focused on one small area of land with less than one-tenth of one percent of the world's population? In this lesson you will learn the history of Israel from its birth to its final 1,878-year exile. It was foretold in the Bible that Israel would live again and you will see its miraculous rebirth. Scripture clearly explains Israel's destiny and why the Temple Mount is the most important place on earth!

LESSON 6

Israel - God's Prophetic Time Clock

Twenty-five hundred years ago God gave a prophecy whose fulfillment will be completed in the very near future. This prophecy foretells the beginning of a seven-year period that will end at the Battle of Armageddon. The beginning of this final seven years is just ahead. That's the reason this prophecy is called, "a prophecy with a date on it." This lesson gives you a clear understanding of God's destiny for Israel!

LESSON 7

Holy Roman Empire Reborn

Most people completely missed one of the five greatest prophetic fulfillments in the last 2,000 years, which took place on November 3, 2009. The Holy Roman Empire was declared dead in 1806, but this lesson gives absolute proof that it was reborn on November 3, 2009. The prophecy also reveals where the Antichrist and his religious partner, the False Prophet, will come from.

LESSON 8

The Antichrist and the False Prophet

The Bible prophesies that two individuals will rule over a system of world government just before the Battle of Armageddon and the Second Coming of Jesus Christ. One will be a political leader, the other a religious leader. The prophecy lets us know that these two personages will come out of the reborn Holy Roman Empire. This lesson gives proof that the power-base of the Antichrist is now established and awaiting his arrival.

UNDERSTANDING THE ENDTIME

LESSON 9 666 – Mark of the Beast

This prophecy has lurked ominously for over 2,000 years, warning us that a day will come when every person on earth will be forced to worship Satan through his agent, the Antichrist. Every person will have to worship the Antichrist in order to receive their personal number, and without the number no one will be able to buy or sell. The time for the Mark of the Beast has arrived!

LESSON 10 The Coming One-World Religion, Part 1 The Secret Pact Between Gorbachev and the Vatican

The Bible prophesies a one-world religion in the endtime. With the fall of the Berlin Wall in 1989, the march toward one-world religion accelerated dramatically. This was not a spontaneous event; it was carefully planned far in advance. You will learn how the world's foremost political leader and most powerful religious leader worked together to bring down the Berlin Wall; the greatest story never told.

LESSON 11 The Coming One-World Religion, Part 2 When All Religions Become One

Do Muslims, Jews, and Christians all worship the same God? The belief that all religions are equally true and valid is called Interfaithism. The Bible prophesies such a belief system during the time of the Antichrist and the False Prophet. This lesson explains how religious unification will evolve and the form of religion that will be enforced during the Great Tribulation.

LESSON 12 The 7 Trumpets

There are seven angels with seven trumpets in the Book of Revelation. When each of the seven angels sounds his trumpet, a major prophetic fulfillment is unleashed upon the human race. These events include World War I, World War II, the Chernobyl nuclear disaster, and the 1991 Gulf War. This lesson gives proof that five of the seven trumpets have already happened and the sixth trumpet could happen at any time.

LESSON 13 The Second Coming

The Second Coming of Jesus to earth will be the capstone of all human history. It is so important in the plan of God that He devoted the entire Book of Revelation to dramatize this event. Since all the prophecies that will occur just before the Second Coming are coming to pass right now, every person on earth should have a clear understanding of what happens at the Second Coming of Jesus Christ.

LESSON 14 Kingdom of God

This lesson reveals what Jesus said a person must do to enter the Kingdom of God, along with what the world will be like when Jesus Christ personally rules on earth. The Bible reveals that there won't be one war on earth during the entire 1,000-year reign of Jesus Christ. Viewing and obeying the instruction in this lesson is the most crucial action you will ever take to understanding how to enter the Kingdom of God.

totalitarian one-world government. As Agenda 2030 impacts virtually all areas of human activity, it can be seen as a blueprint for global governance. The entire planet is going to be committing to work toward seventeen far-reaching goals, yet there has been very little media coverage of Agenda 2030 in the United States.

Environmental Catastrophe Postponed

Goal 13 of UN Agenda 2030 is, "Take urgent action to combat climate change and its impacts." The record-breaking East Coast blizzard of January 2016 seemed to be another reason to be skeptical of global-warming propaganda. However, at the same time, most of eastern Asia was also experiencing its own blizzard, which claimed 80 lives in Taiwan alone. Climate alarmists' predictions have been wrong so often that there are websites dedicated to cataloging failed environmentalist predictions. Among them are The American Enterprise Institute, The Federalist and The Daily Caller. In February, a poll in The Daily Caller documented how 91% of Americans aren't worried about global warming.

Borders will be Irrelevant

Goal 10 of UN Agenda 2030 is, "Reduce inequality within and among countries."

Shadow Chancellor John McDonnell claims that borders will become "irrelevant" by the end of the century. Fear of over-population as part of an open-border immigration policy is actually part of the implementation of UN Agenda 2030. Environmentalists insist that the borders must be open to allow as many to immigrate as possible. Actually, open borders is part of the drive to destroy national sovereignty and eliminate nation states. In August, European Commission Chief Jean-Claude Juncker called national borders "the worst invention ever."

End United States, Build China-Style Regional Government

In May, Parag Khanna, a Council on Foreign Relations globalist, announced that it is time for the United States to reorganize into massive regions with powerful regional governments subject to national or international authorities. The plan is for America to become more like Communist China, and eventually become part of a North American Union.

Turning Children into Global Citizens

Goal 4 of UN Agenda 2030 is, "Ensure inclusive and equitable quality education and promote lifelong learning opportunities for all. Target 16.2 of UN Agenda 2030 is, "End abuse, exploitations, trafficking and all forms of violence against and torture of children." In September, a United Nations "Education Plan to Indoctrinate Children in Globalism" was adopted by the United Nation at a summit in Korea. Children will experience "merged development" of the “whole person” including their beliefs, values, spirituality and lifestyle. They will be trained to understand their responsibilities to “protect the planet”, and promote the UN agenda for the “common good”. Part of the indoctrination involves isolating the children from parental influence which may not support development as “global citizens”. Under the guise of combating “violence against children”, the Obama administration is joining in a “global partnership” to wage war on parental rights.

Beefing Up Law Enforcement

The United Nations brought together more than 100 national police chiefs in June at its first-ever UN “Chiefs of Police Summit”. (UN COPS) Also, the Civil Rights Division of the Department of Justice and the United Nations have called for the federalization of U.S. law enforcement to be “beefed up” all over America. The Human Rights Council of the United Nations is urging the Department of Justice to federalize as many as 18,000 local police jurisdictions.

Communist China Touts “Lead Role” in New World Order

Communist China hosted and led the “Group of 20” G20 Summit for the first time in September. The regime boasted about its “leading role” in “global economic governance” and building up “the international order”. The Chinese Communist Party’s leaders and propaganda organs have been celebrating the emerging New World Order — and their major role within it.

Obama's Final UN Address Promotes Globalism and a Palestinian State

In September, while making his eighth and probably final appearance at the UN, President Obama openly stated that in order to be more secure, Americans need to give up some of their liberties and submit to international governance. He urged countries to embrace liberal democracy and internationalization. He firmly defended globalism, and declared that Israel “cannot permanently occupy and settle Palestinian land.” That statement about “Palestinian land” was extremely ominous to many because it seems to suggest that Obama may decide to support a UN Security Council resolution that establishes the parameters for a Palestinian state during his final months in the White House. President Obama said that he is “convinced that in the long run, giving up some freedom of action... binding ourselves to international rules over the long term — enhances our security.”

Holy Roman Empire Reborn 2016

The Prophecy

And whereas thou sawest the feet and toes, part of potters' clay, and part of iron, the kingdom shall be divided; but there shall be in it of the strength of the iron, forasmuch as thou sawest

the iron mixed with miry clay. And as the toes of the feet were part of iron, and part of clay, so the kingdom shall be partly strong, and partly broken. And whereas thou sawest iron mixed with miry clay, they shall mingle themselves with the seed of men: but they shall not cleave one to another, even as iron is not mixed with clay. And in the days of these kings will the God of heaven set up a kingdom that will never pass away. (Daniel 2:41-44)

After this I saw in the night visions, and behold a fourth beast, dreadful and terrible, and strong exceedingly; and it had great iron teeth: it devoured and brake in pieces, and stamped the residue with the feet of it: and it was diverse from all the beasts that were before it; and it had ten horns. (Daniel 7:7)

The Fulfillment

Europe appears in Daniel's vision of successive world kingdoms as brass thighs (Greece), iron legs (Roman Empire) and iron and clay feet (Reborn Holy Roman Empire). One reason why this prophecy is so important is that the Antichrist and the False Prophet will both come out of this reborn Holy Roman Empire. The Holy Roman Empire was reborn with the signing of the Lisbon Treaty in 2009, and prophecy is being fulfilled as the European Union moves toward more integration and centralization, and toward the formation of a European Superstate, The United States of Europe. The kingdom which rises from this European Superstate will have a one-world apostate religion and a global economy. Globalization will seduce the nations of the world to follow the Antichrist and give up their sovereignty to the global government rising out of the re-born Holy Roman Empire, just before the Second Coming of Jesus.

Brexit Vote: To Leave or Not to Leave the EU

On June 23, British voters had the opportunity to express their opinion on whether to remain in the European Union. The nickname for leaving the EU is "Brexit". Although polls on the eve of the vote showed people tending toward staying in the international organization, the race was expected to go down to the wire. The British have been debating their membership ever since the UK joined the union in the early 1970s. In mid-February, David Cameron made the case for staying in the EU, calling an Out vote a "step into the dark." No nation state has ever left the EU. However, Greenland, one of Denmark's overseas territories, held a referendum in 1982 and eventually left the EU, after a period of negotiation. Cameron believes in "safety in numbers in a dangerous world." Time magazine has called the European Union, "the world's greatest ever experiment in globalization." The free movement of goods, people and capital across borders is under threat in Europe. Many see deeper integration, combining the member states into a unified whole, as the only solution.

Brexit Referendum: Leave the EU

It was decided that Great Britain would leave the European Union when the historic Brexit referendum passed on June 23, 2016. World leaders reacted with concerns about stability, that they were extremely worried about the global economy, and warned against building "walls of political and economic selfishness." Time magazine called the Brexit vote "a stunning victory for the anti-establishment forces that have upended mainstream politics across the Western world." Eurosceptic Members of the European Parliament from Sweden, Germany, Italy and France said a number of governments will now push to hold referendums of their own, and try to renegotiate their own individual deals. French far-right leader Marine Le Pen said, "It's just a matter of time. Britain has set a precedent. Other member states will follow and the whole thing will fall apart. It will happen very soon."

United States of Europe Plan

In April, European ministers had signed just such a plan of deeper integration, a plan to create a federal

United States of Europe. Meeting in Rome, speakers of the national parliaments of Germany, France, Italy and Luxembourg declared that they wanted to integrate a broad spectrum of policies. "It should include all matters pertaining to the European ideal — social and cultural affairs as well as foreign, security and defense policy," they said.

Brussels Wants EU Superstate

Boris Johnson, one of Britain's best-known politicians, claimed in May that the European Union wants to create an EU Superstate, in a similar manner to the way Hitler tried to create a world superpower. Johnson proposed that both the bureaucrats in Brussels and Hitler shared the same goal of unifying Europe under one "authority".

Charlemagne Prize for Pope Francis

Pope Francis was awarded the Charlemagne Prize in May 2016.

Pope Francis received the International Charlemagne Prize of Aachen, Germany as an award for his insistent efforts toward the unification of Europe, the rebirth of the empire of Charlemagne – the Holy Roman Empire.

Transnational EU Military

The European Union wants to have sovereignty over all national militaries within the EU. The transnational EU military will be loyal only to the regime ruling Europe from Brussels. European Commission President Jean-Claude Juncker has proceeded with plans for an EU army and has announced plans for a European military headquarters. Juncker claimed a lack of a "permanent structure" means money is being wasted on duplicate missions.

Creation of European Superstate

Germany and France have devised a plan to create a European Superstate, the United States of Europe. Charisma News reports that the decision by the British people to leave the European Union may actually accelerate the process of creating an EU Superstate, as the UK had usually tended to stand in the way of creating a “United States of Europe.”

One-World Religion 2016

The Prophecy

And he exerciseth all the power of the first beast before him, and causeth the earth and them which dwell therein to worship the first beast, whose deadly wound was healed. (Revelation 13:12)

The Fulfillment

A popular Christian apostasy is the teaching that God has revealed Himself in many different ways to different cultures. Therefore, it would follow that all religions worship the same god, but just use different names. Thus, apostate “Christian” leaders often teach that there are many different paths to God, and that Jesus is only one of them. These false teachers will succeed, temporarily, when the Antichrist rises to power with the help of the one-world religion of the False Prophet. (Revelation 13:12) This kind of one-world thinking continued to gain ground in 2016, with many Christian leaders pleading for tolerance, to the point of embracing apostasy.

Pope Warmly Welcomes Top Islamic Cleric to the Vatican

In May, Pope Francis warmly welcomed Sheikh Ahmed al-Tayeb, the “highest figure in Sunni Islam,” to the Vatican. It was speculated that the Pope embraced the Gran Imam in a bid to bring the Catholic and Muslim religions together.

United Religions Initiative and the Pope

Pope Francis has close ties to the founder and many members of the United Religions Initiative, which was heralded in June 1995 by Bishop Swing at the occult, earth-worshipping interfaith service he was invited to conduct in San Francisco for the UN, honoring the 50th anniversary of the signing of the UN Charter.

Global Conference on the World's Religions

The Third Global Conference on the World's Religions met in Montreal on September 15, 2016. The theme of the event was, “After September 11: From Faith to Interfaith.” The goal was to “bring together the various religions of the world in an ecumenical spirit to address the many issues facing the world today and adopt a Universal Declaration of Human Rights.” More than 500 scholars and others attended the conference, well below the totals of 2,025 in 2006 and over 3,000 in 2011.

2016 False Unity

Thousands of professing Christians gathered at the Washington Mall in July for an event called Together 2016. Attendees were largely unaware that the event, at which they prayed that Jesus would “reset” the country and their lives, was actually set up to reset the Reformation, to unite with our Catholic “brothers and sisters”. Pope Francis added his name to the lineup of prominent guest speakers and musicians by delivering a video message to address the crowd. Together 2016 is a prime example of the false unity which filled 2016 with the kind of pervasive compromise and accommodation which lay the foundation for the final one-world religion. ①

THE ELECTION OF DONALD TRUMP

A FULFILLMENT OF PROPHECY?

By Dave Robbins

Bible prophecy provides us with a clear view of future events in the end time. One of the most recognizable prophecies is the establishment of a world government, which will be ruled by the Antichrist just prior to the Battle of Armageddon and the Second Coming of Jesus Christ.

In many ways, this system is already fully functioning. Ever hear of the International Monetary Fund (IMF), World Bank (WB), World Health Organization (WHO), World Trade Organization (WTO), International Criminal Court (ICC) or United Nations (UN)? These entities are specifically designed to govern the world.

Globalists and Liberal Internationalists are individuals who believe this global governing structure is the answer to all of the major political, religious, environmental, economic and discriminatory conflicts and catastrophe's plaguing the earth.

This explains current efforts to manage the globe, including the (1) International governance of the oceans, (2) China's call for "cyberspace sovereignty" or global governance of the Internet, (3) G20 summits discussing global economic governance, (4) Global governance of the climate through the Paris Climate Agreement, (5) Global governance of migration, (6) Global governance of trade through international Free Trade Agreements such as the Trans Pacific Partnership and the Transatlantic Trade and Investment Partnership, among others, and (7) The ongoing efforts to implement the Sustainable Development Goals to globally govern health, education, gender equality, clean water and all aspects of human production and consumption to name just a few.

The process of eliminating the nation-state and the creation of a global community that answers to this one global governing body is called globalization. It requires the removal of all borders to allow the free movement of money, people and goods throughout the world in an effort to redistribute the wealth and level the playing field of every nation.

Globalization is the goal of all globalists and Liberal Internationalists—every nation answering to one single global governing authority.

Until recently, the globalization of the world was progressing smoothly.

Consider the United Nation's Sustainable Development Goals adopted by every single nation, including the United States of America, in September of 2015. This obligated each nation to implement the United Nation's socialistic global governing program, "Transforming Our World: the 2030 Agenda for Sustainable Development", to govern all aspects of every citizen on earth.

As an American, you might be asking yourself, "Why did President Obama agree to this when our forefathers signed a Declaration of Independence not interdependence?" Because President Obama is a globalist. He believes that world government is the answer to everything. Just listen to this statement from his last speech to the United Nations:

"And we can only realize the promise of this institution's (UN) founding—to replace the ravages of war with cooperation—if powerful nations like my own accept constraints," he said. "Sometimes

I'm criticized in my own country for professing a belief in international norms and multilateral institutions, but I am convinced that in the long run, giving up some freedom of action—not giving up our ability to protect ourselves or pursue our core interests, but binding ourselves to international rules over the long term—enhances our security."

This is globalization! This is world government and with the President of the United States in full cooperation, what can stop it? Well, electing an anti-globalization president might do the trick!

On July 21, during his acceptance speech for the presidency of the United States, Donald Trump, now the president-elect, made this statement, "The most important difference between our plan and that of our opponents is that our plan will put America first. Americanism, not globalism, will be our credo." This statement is the proverbial "slap in the face" to the world government.

Is this the beginning of the separation of the United States from the New World Order? Many would contend that globalization without the U.S. is absurd! Every world leader knows that the United States will have to be involved in their global governing system for it to be successful. It has been generally believed that the United States will always be part of the world government.

Not according to Bible prophecy.

America will not be a Part of the World Government

In Daniel 7, Daniel is given a vision of 4 beasts depicting nations that would be on the earth at the time of the Second Coming of Jesus Christ and the Battle of Armageddon.

The first is a lion with eagle's wings, the second is a bear, the third is a four-headed leopard and the fourth beast is an animal unlike anything Daniel had ever seen. However, its main characteristic is that it had ten horns (ten-horned beast).

The lion is Great Britain, the eagle's wings growing out of the lion were plucked and made to stand on the feet as a man and a man's heart was given to it. The eagle is the United States, Russia is the bear and the four-headed leopard is Germany. The ten-horned beast symbolizes the re-born Holy Roman Empire or the current European Union. The ten horns represent ten nations that will come out of the European Union and form an alliance with the Antichrist in the last days. A key point to remember is that in Daniel 7, these four beasts are separate beasts.

Now jump forward 650 years to the time when John wrote the Book of Revelation. These same beasts are mentioned in Revelation 13. However, something is different. All of the beasts are combined into one big beast with the body of a leopard, the feet of a bear, the mouth of a lion and the ten horns of the ten-horned beast.

This combined beast represents the world government that will be established and in control just before the Battle of Armageddon. All of the beasts from Daniel 7 are included in the world government combo beast except one—the eagle's wings are missing. Who is the eagle back in Daniel 7? It's the United States! This tells us that America will not be involved in the world government system during the end time.

What Happens to the United States?

Space will not allow me to cover the entirety of Revelation 12, so let me give you a brief synopsis of the chapter and focus on one verse that ties it all together.

Revelation 12:1-5 describes a woman with twelve stars around her head. The woman gave birth to a child who would rule the entire earth in the future. This woman is the nation of Israel and the child is Jesus Christ.

Revelation 12:7-13 describes a war in Heaven that would occur three and one-half years before the Second Coming of Jesus. This war will result in Satan being cast out of Heaven and banished to the earth. It is at this time when Satan will persecute the woman, which is Israel.

Revelation 12:14 describes the protection of Israel, "And to the woman were given two wings of a great eagle, that she might fly into the wilderness, into her place, where she is nourished for a time, and times, and half a time, from the face of the serpent.” This woman is Israel and remember, the eagle’s wings represent the United States. Time, times and half a time is the three and one-half years of the Great Tribulation.

This scripture tells us that the United States will protect Israel against the Antichrist and Satan’s world governmental system, all the way until the Second Coming of Jesus Christ and the Battle of Armageddon. If Donald Trump keeps his campaign promises, the above events described in scripture are exactly what will happen during his presidency.

Consider his statement during his AIPAC speech, “Which brings me to my next point, the utter weakness and incompetence of the United Nations. The United Nations is not a friend of democracy, it’s not a friend to freedom, and it’s not a friend even to the United States of America where, as you know, it has its home. And it surely is not a friend to Israel...When I become president, the days of treating Israel like a second-class citizen will end on day one.”

However, those advocates of world government are not favorable at all to this statement and many others that Donald Trump has made. Make no mistake, Donald Trump is seen as a threat to the International Community and all it stands for.

International Community Responds to Trump

If you could sum up Donald Trump’s campaign in one sentence, it would be this. Donald Trump is pro-America, pro-Israel and anti-world government. It is the anti-globalization part that has globalists shocked and bewildered that Trump could be elected the 45th president of the United States.

Many advocates of this world government, including global leaders, politicians, educators and the media worldwide have loudly voiced their common disdain for Donald Trump’s anti-globalization stance.

Mr. Trump’s opposing view on topics such as global warming or climate change, global governance, open borders and trade are seen as a direct threat to the international political order that many of these individuals have devoted their lives to establish.

You have heard the saying, “When you throw a stone among a pack of dogs, the one who yelps loudest is the one who got hit.” Just listen to the fear, confusion and hatred in the voices of the global governance advocates around the world, as they respond to Donald Trump’s ideologies on these issues during the presidential campaign and after his election victory.

Global Warming/Climate Change

“If Trump makes good on his campaign promises and pulls out of the Paris Treaty, it is difficult to see a path forward to keeping warming below dangerous levels,” Michael Mann, director of the Earth System Science Center at Pennsylvania State University.¹

“Pessimists will find abundant support for despair this morning... with Mr. Trump in the Oval Office and Republican majorities in both houses,” Stermann wrote, “there is little hope that the Clean Power Plan will survive in the Supreme Court or for federal action to meet the U.S. commitment under the Paris accord. Worse, other key emitter nations — especially India — now have little reason to follow through on their Paris pledges: If the U.S. won’t, why should developing nations cut their emissions?” John Stermann, a professor of system dynamics at the Massachusetts Institute of Technology

“The consequences of opting out of the global community would be severe and long lasting—for our planet’s climate and for the international credibility of the United States.” Nearly 400 scientists including 30 Nobel laureates wrote an open letter, criticizing Trump’s proposed plans to abandon global climate deals.

Global Governance

“The world’s going to spend a lot of time looking to you, prime minister, as we see more and more challenges to the liberal international order since the end of World War II—you and Angela Merkel.” Joe Biden to Canadian Prime Minister Justin Trudeau⁴

Donald Trump has threatened to pull the U.S. out of the Paris Climate Agreement, ban Muslim refugees from entering the United States and has generally promoted an isolationist platform. No wonder the Secretary-General of the United Nations Ban Ki Moon stated:

“The United Nations will count on the new Administration to strengthen the bonds of international cooperation as we strive together to uphold shared ideals, combat climate change, advance human rights, promote mutual understanding and implement the Sustainable Development Goals to achieve lives of peace, prosperity and dignity for all.”⁵

“If Donald Trump is elected on the basis of what he has said already—and unless that changes—I think it is without any doubt that he would be dangerous from an international point of view.” United Nations High Commissioner for Human Rights Zeid Ra’ad al-Huss ein⁶

“Among its many implications, Donald Trump’s election as president calls into question the open liberal international order this country has championed and defended for more than seven decades. The edges of that order were already fraying, thanks to disenchantment with the global economy and the return of geopolitical competition, particularly with Russia and China. Trump’s triumph will accelerate its disintegration, by undermining the network of rules, institutions, and alliances that twelve presidents, Republican and Democratic alike, have nurtured since 1945. The results of the election suggest that the main threats to the liberal world order are no longer foreign but domestic.” Stewart M. Patrick, Writer for The Internationalists

“It could be that he (Donald Trump) puts a nail in the coffin of the North Atlantic Alliance...He’s already said, in his view, if a state is not paying its dues to the NATO budget then Article 5 will be suspended. That is truly a nail in the coffin of the post-Second World War international order.” Sir Christopher Meyer Former British Ambassador to the U.S.⁸

“This was a victory for the forces which oppose globalization, are fighting illegal migration and are in favor of clean ethnic states,” Declared by a spokesperson for Golden Dawn, Greece’s Far-Right Party⁹

“The political revolution of 2016 is that in two massive campaigns the underdogs beat the establishment. We did it in Brexit and Trump did it last night in the USA.” Nigel Farage, Head of Britain’s Anti-EU UKIP Party¹⁰

“We are at the moment in a situation in the European Union, in our country and worldwide where there is an argument about how we want to shape globalization,” German Chancellor Angela Merkel made this statement during a meeting of Germany’s BDA employers association after the election of Donald Trump.

“We will judge him on his actions...Trump made statements that were at odds with how we like to see our society and world order.” Dutch Minister of Foreign Affairs, Bert Koenders

“I also think that Donald Trump knows that this wasn’t an election for him, but against Washington, against the establishment.” Ursula von der Leyen, Germany’s Defense Minister¹¹

“There are at times movements from both the left and the right to put a stop to integration, and to push back against technology, and to try to bring back jobs and industries that have been disappearing for decades...So this impulse to pull back from a globalized world is understandable. If people feel that they’re losing control of their future, they will push back.”¹⁴

President Barack Obama

“To consider Donald Trump a political clown would be a severe misconception...(Trump’s election) would bring major dangers for the U.S.A. and the world...basically a nationalist-chauvinist policy that would make America not great but ugly, and risk the stability of the international order.” Austrian News Daily Salzburger Nachrichten¹⁵

“Everything is at stake. What does it (Trump’s election) mean for NATO? For trade? For our bilateral relations? For geopolitics?... (Trump’s victory) is a big boost for populists all over the world.” Former Austrian Chancellor Wolfgang Schuessel¹⁶

Open Borders/Nationalism/Immigration

“Donald Trump? This is the nationalist and racist response to the challenge of globalization...It’s Trump in the United States, it’s (National Front leader) Marine Le Pen in France. It is found in Hungary and Poland... It is an appeal to get involved, to take part in every primary and every election, in order not to give in...We wanted to promote the ideas of the so-called radical left. Well, here we are, stuck with the nationalist and populist right.” French economist Thomas Piketty¹⁷

“In Europe, we are concerned about the U.S. possibly turning toward a more isolationist orientation. That would not be good for the United States, good for Europe, or good for the world. We need the U.S. engaged in global affairs in a constructive, positive way.” Minister of Economic Affairs Olli Rehn, Finland¹⁸

“The world is more interconnected than ever before, and it’s becoming more connected every day...Building walls won’t change that...If the past two decades have taught us anything, it’s that the biggest challenges we face cannot be solved in isolation.” President Obama¹⁹

“A person who thinks only about building walls, wherever they may be, and not building bridges, is not Christian. This is not the gospel.”

Pope Francis²⁰

“We won’t pay any single cent for such a stupid wall.” He also called Trump a “not very well informed man...If this guy pretends that closing the borders to anywhere either for trade [or] for people is going to provide prosperity to the United States, he is completely crazy.” Former Mexican President Felipe Calderón²¹

“Now somebody else who has never shown any regard for workers, who has never fought on behalf of social justice issues...they don’t suddenly become a populist because they say something controversial in order to win votes. That’s not the measure of populism. That’s nativism or xenophobia or worse. Or it’s just cynicism...It is my firm belief that shaping (globalism) in accordance with the values that our three countries care deeply about is going to be good for us...And us trying to abandon the field and pull up the drawbridge around us is going to be bad for us.”

President Obama²²

Mexican President Enrique Pena Nieto repeated his comparison of (Donald Trump’s) anti-global ideologies with that of 20th century dictators, and urged peoples not to “choose the road toward isolationism and destruction.”²³

“Today, a nation ringed by walls would only imprison itself...The world is too small for us to simply be able to build a wall and prevent it from affecting our own societies.”

President Obama²⁴

“We are going to have to guard against a rise in a crude sort of nationalism, or ethnic identity or tribalism that is built around us and a them.” President Obama²⁵

Echoing Obama’s recent remarks, Tsipras warned that it would be difficult for Trump to “radically change the foreign policy of a country such as the United States.” He urged his fellow European leaders to work with the new president, by building “bridges, not walls.”²⁶

“Trump’s isolationist policy will certainly harm Americans because in the era of globalization no country can live alone.” Noted Islamic scholar Komaruddin Hidayat²⁷

Trade

Trump made the free trade debate one of the central topics of his campaign after criticizing China, Mexico, and Japan. He suggested putting a 45% tariff on Chinese imports, and said he would declare China a currency manipulator on his first day in office, proposed taxing imports from Mexico, argued in favor of “ripping up” trade deals, and called the Trans-Pacific Partnership, or TPP, “a rape of our country.”

If Trump were to pursue these policies, Willem Buitter, chief economist at Citi, wrote in a note to clients that it might spark a global trade war, “which could easily trigger a global recession.”²⁸

“We stress the potential multipliers of changes in the U.S. position on international trade: the U.S. has been the champion of free trade and open borders for decades. A retreat from globalization by the U.S. would likely lead to reciprocal actions from other countries, and reinforce the latest shift towards de-globalization and could be another nail in the coffin of the liberal global economic world order that has supported prosperity since 1948.”²⁹

The perception is the same amongst all of the elites, globalists and internationalists—we have a system established to govern the world, and Donald Trump, as president-elect of the mightiest nation on earth, is the most serious threat.

John Rennie Short summed it up perfectly by making this statement in his PBS column, “Globalization is under attack. The electoral victory of Donald Trump, the Brexit vote and the rise of an aggressive nationalism in mainland Europe and around the world are all part of a backlash to globalization.”³⁰

Prophecy Fulfilled?

The Bible prophesies the establishment of a world government just prior to the Second Coming of Jesus Christ and the Battle of Armageddon. That very system has been meticulously constructed for decades. We are currently watching it enslave the citizens of the globe economically, politically and in all aspects of life including what each human produces and consumes.

Though the last several presidential administrations have advocated a world government and yielded much of our sovereignty to the United Nations, all hope is not lost! The Bible tells us the United States will not be part of the world governing system in the end time.

Is Donald Trump the person to terminate all ties to the United Nations and stand with Israel all the way to the end? The answer is that he very well could be. Only time will tell.

There is one thing we know for sure. Whether it is Donald Trump or someone else, the United States will not participate in the one-world government ruled by the Antichrist. We also know that the United States will stand with Israel all the way to the Second Coming of Jesus and the Battle of Armageddon.

How can we be so sure? Because the Bible prophesies that this is the destiny of the United States, and the prophecies always come to pass!

Baltic States Preparing for Worst

The Baltic States are preparing for the worst as Moscow continues to throw its weight around in the region. Estonia, Latvia, and Lithuania are now training their soldiers in extreme survival skills to prepare for WWII and a possible Russian invasion. Russian President Vladimir Putin has vowed to protect Russians wherever they live and could use this as a pretext to annex the states.

Fears of Nuclear War

Japanese citizens are being advised on how to survive a nuclear attack after fears from both North Korea's Kim Jong-Un and Vladimir Putin in Russia. Pamphlets have been issued advising people what to do in the event of an attack. Besides taking shelter in shopping malls it urges people to take shelter, particularly behind thick walls to avoid radiation or blast injuries. North Korea has warned that it may carry out further nuclear tests and says it is prepared to launch a preemptive strike on the United States if U.S. nuclear forces mobilize against it. According to a recent poll, nearly half of Russians fear that Moscow's bombing campaign in Syria could spark World War III.

NATO Places 300,000 Troops on "High Alert"

NATO is preparing a military force of up to 300,000 personnel, capable of being deployed within just two months to attack Russia. Secretary General of NATO, Jens Stoltenberg announced that NATO member nations are putting hundreds of thousands of troops in a state of high alert, in an effort to deter the fantasy threat from Russia.

No Compromise With Russia over Ukraine

America's European allies are insisting that the West must not compromise on its principles or weaken its support for Ukraine. President-elect Donald Trump and Russian President Vladimir Putin are said to have agreed on a collaborative dialogue based on "principles of equality, mutual respect and noninterference."

Italy's Referendum

Italy voters rejected constitutional changes that were proposed by Prime Minister Matteo Renzi. The Italian outcome was taken as another rebuke to forging a closer union of the European Union's 28 countries. According to the managing director for Europe at the Eurasia Group, it is a crisis that strikes at the core of the European Union because Italy is a founding member state.

France First to Label Items from Settlements

France has said goods from the Israeli occupied Palestinian territories must be labeled as such, prompting Israel to accuse the country of aiding a boycott of the Jewish State. Paris published guidelines on enforcing European Union (EU) regulations on produce from the West Bank, including annexed east Jerusalem, which the International Community considers occupied Palestinian land, and the Golan Heights, which Israel seized from Syria in 1967.

Turkey could Join Shanghai Bloc

Turkey President Tayyip Erdogan said that Turkey did not need to join the European Union and could instead become part of a security bloc dominated by China, Russia and Central Asian nations." Turkey must feel at ease. It mustn't say 'for me it's the European Union at all costs. That's my view,'" Erdogan said.

EU Membership Conditions 'Humiliating'

Serbia's president has accused the European Union of setting "humiliating" conditions for the Balkan country's membership. Once an applicant country meets the conditions for membership, it must implement EU rules and regulations in all areas. Serbia, a traditional ally of Russia, wants to join the EU, but has been under intense pressure from the Kremlin to reconsider.

DHS Real ID Decisions

Department of Homeland Security announced that it will refuse Americans' access to federal facilities beginning on January 30, 2017, if their drivers' licenses or IDs don't comply with the Real ID Act. Though more than 10 years old, the Real ID law has not been fully implemented because of the firm refusal of many states. In November, DHS rejected Montana's request for an extension.

Britain's Invasive Surveillance Law

UK Prime Minister Theresa May's government passed what some are calling "the most extreme surveillance law ever passed in a democracy." Internet and mobile phone providers will now be obliged to record every Internet customer's web usage and history in real-time, for up to a year. This information can be viewed and assessed by any number of government departments, for any reason.

Mass ID Database

France's interior ministry wants the Secure Electronic Documents (TES) to collect all the information on an individual held on two separate databases that have details of people's passports and national ID cards. The database could end up holding the biometric details of 60 million people. The aim is to fight identity fraud and improve efficiency. But there are fears the database could be abused not only by hackers but by state intelligence.

Cashless is Here With Amazon Go

Amazon has announced its new Amazon Go store in Amazon's hometown of Seattle. Amazon Go is an 1800 Sq. Ft. grocery store with no lines, no checkouts, and no staff. Relying on sensors and AI (Artificial Intelligence), similar to those used in self-driving vehicles, the store tracks the customer walking in, everything that is picked up from the shelves, and customers walking out. Customers are instantly charged via their Amazon accounts linked to the app on their device. Amazon refers to it as "Just Walk Out Technology." The New York Post reacted in knee-jerk style labeling Amazon's new store as the "next major job killer." Amazon Go is scheduled to open to the public in early 2017.

West Bank, Possible Wave of Terror

The head of the IDF's Military Intelligence Directorate is warning Israel to prepare for a possible wave of terror attacks amid growing instability in the West Bank caused by a power struggle in the Palestinian Authority over who will succeed President Mahmoud Abbas. Maj-Gen Herzl Halevi said that 2017 "would be a year of instability in the Palestinian Authority."

If Trump Moves Embassy

Palestinian Authority's ambassador to the United Nations has threatened to "make life miserable" for the United States at the United Nations if President-elect Donald Trump follows through on his promise to move the U.S. Embassy to Jerusalem. It is a violation of Resolution 181 of the UN General Assembly. It means they are showing belligerency towards us. Nobody should blame us for unleashing the weapons that we have in the UN to defend ourselves.

Palestinians Claim Ownership of Dead Sea Scrolls

The Palestinian Authority is claiming ownership of the Dead Sea Scrolls and demand that UNESCO order Israel to surrender the artifacts. Palestinians say the Qumran Caves, in the Judean Desert, are beyond the Green Line and that Israel has taken possession of the ancient texts illegally.

Removing ISIS Won't Bring Peace

Stanley McChrystal, former head of U.S. commando strike operations, said that removing ISIS alone won't bring peace. "It is certainly not the cause of the region's problems," McChrystal said. "It is more likely to take 30 years, billions of dollars and a lot of frustrating work." McChrystal believes the United States should remain involved in Iraq for years to come and has mixed feelings about providing humanitarian aid to Syria.

Pope Calls Climate Skeptics to 'Ecological Conversion'

Pope Francis has decreed what he sees as the "weak reaction" of governments to the climate crisis, while deploring "the ease with which well-founded scientific opinion about the state of our planet is disregarded." What is needed, the pontiff suggests, is an "ecological conversion capable of supporting and promoting sustainable development." Francis paints a picture of a world on the verge of "ecological collapse" and a "consequent increase of poverty and social exclusion." Inspired by Pope Francis, U.S. Catholic leaders nationwide are urging priests and congregations to think about global warming as a sanctity-of-life issue. Parishes are pursuing energy and water-efficiency overhauls of their churches, schools and other buildings.

Fastest-Growing Churches

A Canadian study of Mainline Protestant churches found that ministries that promote conservative teachings and a literal interpretation of the Bible are growing their membership more successfully than liberal churches. The study analyzed 2,225 churchgoers in Ontario, Canada, and held interviews with 29 clergy and 195 congregants. The research also showed that 67 percent of millennials prefer a "classic" service to a "trendy" one, and 77 percent want the service in a sanctuary rather than an auditorium.

Catholic, Lutheran Churches Begin Unification

At the end of October, Pope Francis and the president of the Lutheran World Federation signed a joint statement in hopes of unifying the two churches once more. The agreement marked the 500th anniversary of the start of the Protestant Reformation. The joint statement was created to bring the two religions closer together and help create a unified Eucharist.

Rejection of Resolution on Temple Mount

UN Secretary-General Ban Ki-moon distanced himself from a recent UNESCO resolution which failed to acknowledge the ties between the Jewish people and the Temple Mount. Israel suspended its cooperation with the United Nation Educational, Scientific and Cultural Organization (UNESCO), claiming the draft resolution it adopted denies the deep, historic Jewish connection to the holy sites in Jerusalem.

Trump Torpedoing Globalism

Donald Trump winning the presidency based on his promise to torpedo globalism came exactly 27 years after the fall of the Berlin Wall. The election of Donald Trump now represents an existential threat to World Socialism across the planet. Trump seems determined to destroy "Socialist Globalization" with the same capitalist tax cuts and regulatory relief that President Reagan used to destroy communism.

Russia Quits Hague Court

Russian President Vladimir Putin signed a directive to withdraw from the International Criminal Court (ICC) in The Hague, Netherlands. The ICC is meant to be the world's first permanent court and works to prosecute leaders and countries for war crimes, genocide and "crimes against humanity". In 2000, Russia signed the Rome Treaty establishing the ICC, but never ratified it. The ICC was established in 1998, and currently has over 100 member states.

Kids Suing Over Climate Change

Children and young adults suing the federal government allege that climate change violates their constitutional rights to life, liberty, and property by causing direct harm and destroying so-called public trust assets such as coastlines. A federal district court judge in Oregon has written an opinion preliminarily finding that a stable climate is a fundamental constitutional right. U.S. District Court Judge Ann Aiken ruled in favor of 21 children and young adults in their suit. President-elect Donald Trump could be included in the court case as a defendant once he assumes office.
